Alumni Members (1969) of the project

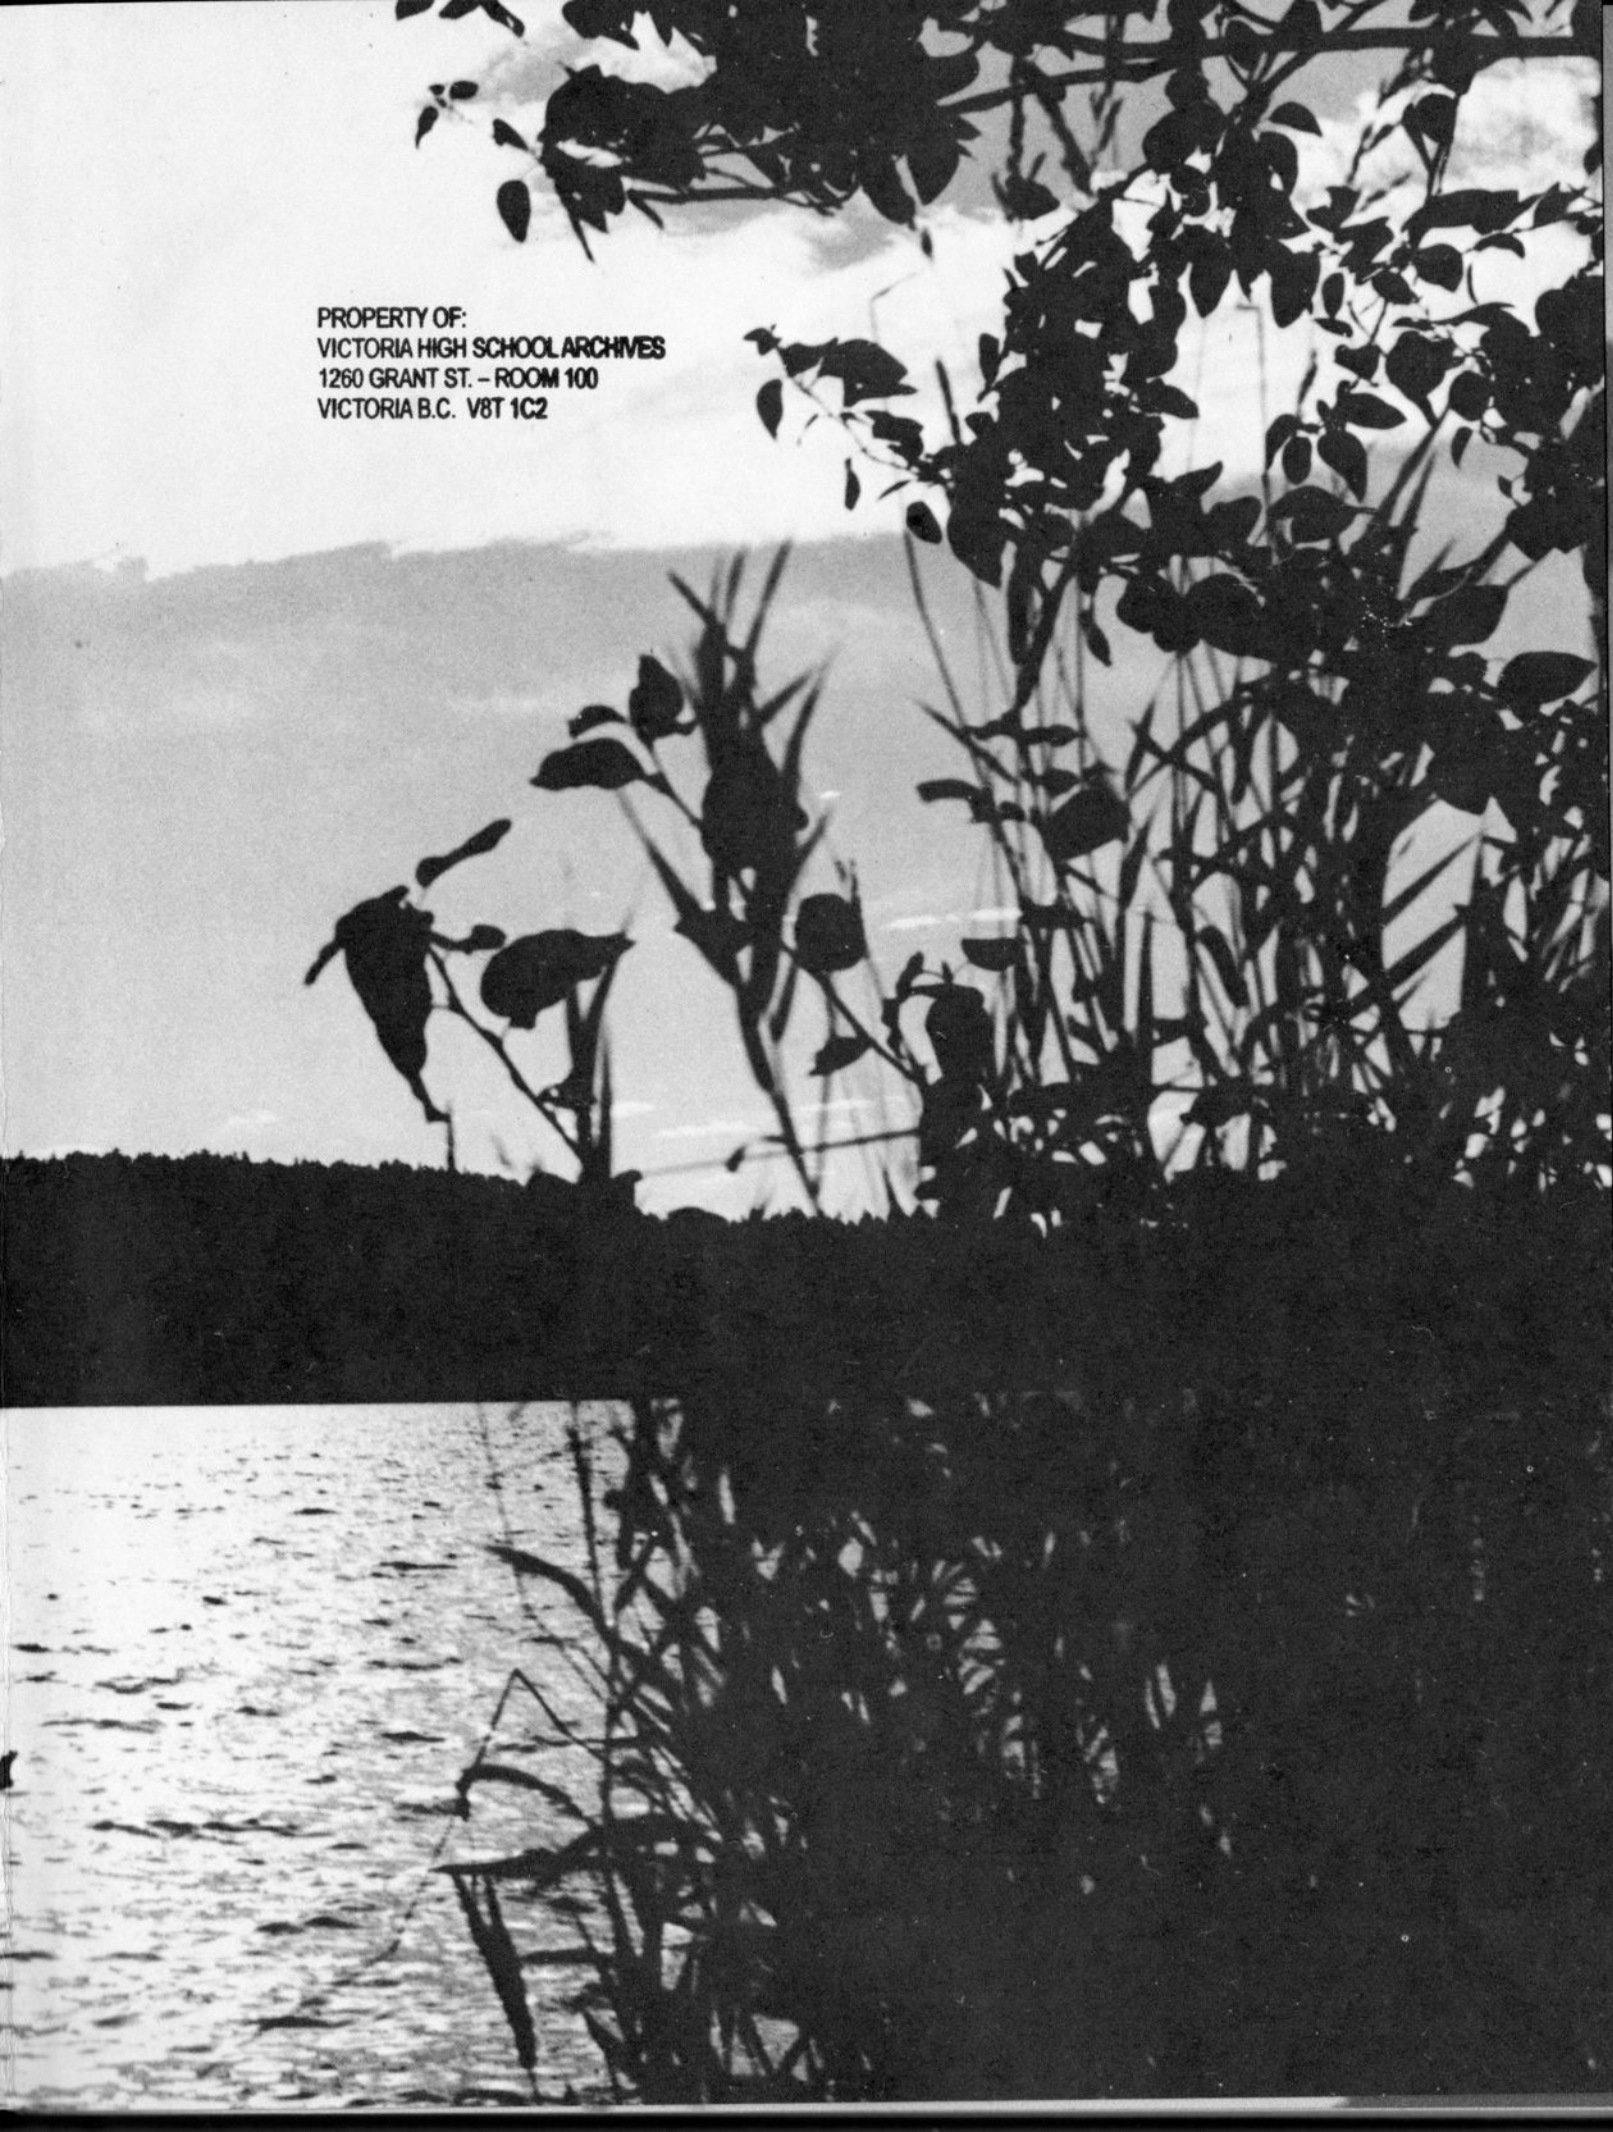

The Victoria High School Alumni Association is indebted to the generous alumni who spent hundreds of volunteer hours scanning Vic High Camosuns so they can be more easily searched by the dedicated Alumni volunteers who manage the school's historic archive collections. The Vic High Spirit is alive and well and always will be.

Reflections . . .

Camosun '79, Victoria High School, Victoria, B.C.

This yearbook is dedicated to those teachers leaving Vic High after many years of service. To Mr. J. Andrews, Mr. D. Clark and especially Mr. J. D. Lorimer (principal), we wish them much happiness and good health.

Administration and Parliament

Mr. J. D. Lorimer (Principal)

One of the highlights of the school year is always the distribution of the Camosun.

We congratulate and thank the editors and sponsor of this splendid annual. It is an illustrated report of our school's activities, another addition to Vic High's long list of excellent publications.

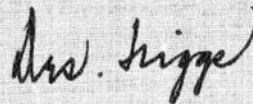

Congratulations must also be extended to all students and staff who contributed so much to the life of the school this year. It is this co-operative spirit that, over the years, has developed the friendly atmosphere that is uniquely Vic High's.

At this time we think especially of you, our Grads, who leave us for other fields of endeavour. With you go the best wishes of the staff. May the future see the fulfillment of your hopes and ambitions.

Mr. D. Higgs (Vice-Principal)

When you reflect thoughtfully on the past eleven or twelve months, a series of images will provide you with an awareness of who and what you have become. The most important image will be that of yourself. At this moment, are you the person that you would like to be? Human beings are always changing and growing. The changes, which you can and may wish to make in your life, will depend upon the picture you have of yourself. The pages of this thoughtfully and well designed yearbook abound with positive reflections. May your future be as bright.

Another year has passed and I have learned from both my failures and successes. This year we tried many new activities such as the Garage Sale and Auction, the Gong Show, the Nickel Race, and the Pie Throw.

I would like to thank my Cabinet for their patience at the 8 A.M. meetings and for their general support. Also I extend my gratitude to the M.S.P.'s who showed up regularly, and to Mr. Lorimer, Mr. Higgs, and Mr. Wickstrom for their valuable guidance.

I take this opportunity to remind the undergrads that the future of Vic High lies in your hands (so don't drop it). I also wish the grads luck in the future and remind them that, "The world turns aside to let any man pass who knows where he is going."

The moments that are gone forever . . . never to be captured again. If we could unwind the clock would we do things differently?

Mr. B. Cahill: "Pardon me? Speak up! I can't hear you!"

Miss B. Hanslip: "Hani" is very strict on attendance. She would like to be remembered for her perfect attendance and urges her students, "If you're well enough to come to school, you're well enough for P.E."

Mr. P. Gammon: "Mr. Backgammon" is strictly a morning person. "Some people are morning people. Some people are afternoon people. I'm a morning person." Your move.

Mr. A. Cullin: Quick on hello's, slow on goodbyes.

Miss H. Ruckle: Vic High's shrink warmly welcomes her patients to her office to discuss problems. But wait till you get her bill!

Mr. A. Valdal: "Participation" is Mr. Valdal's middle name.

"This is how you sign your name."

"Sir, will you please pay attention?"

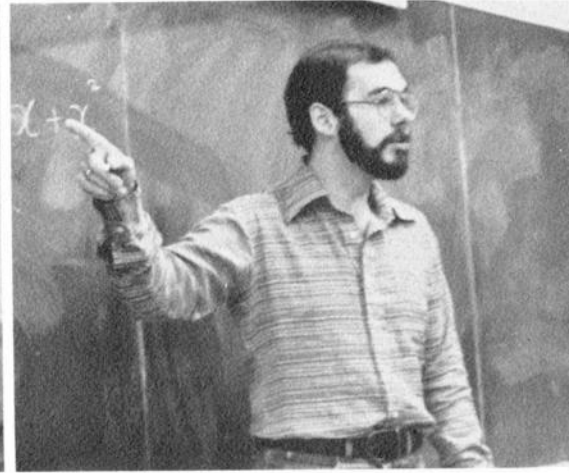

Mr. J. Hopper: We all know that he would like to lead a campaign on total silence so when he starts marching with his posters we won't be surprised.

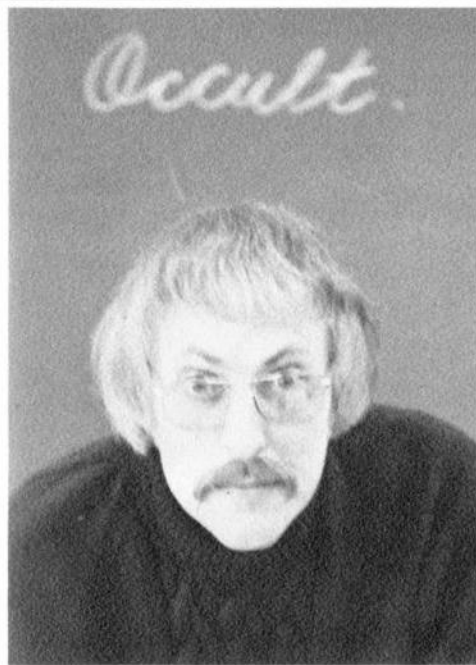

Mr. D. Clark: He "drives" his students to the "right of way".

Mr. B. Somers: "Uncle Bruce" is loved by all his students. However, the students in his Outdoors Club did try to "rock" his trailer into the lake.

Mr. D. Johnston: He is very good at making ostrich movements with his neck but his students have yet to see him stick his head into the ground.

"Do you believe?"

"Hey you over there, come here."

Mr. C. Nesmith: He puts his students in a trance with his hypnotic glare. ("Now when I count to three I want you to wake up.")

Mr. K. Newell: When he jogs into his room he likes to see his "clothed" walls. Word has it that he secretly hopes that the posters will all fall down on his "turkeys".

Mr. M. Lund: "Don't just sit there with your teeth hanging out of your gums!"

Mrs. M. Miles-Herman: Many thanks go to her for all the help she gave to the New Canadians.

Mr. G. English: Those tables and chairs may have Renaissance features but they're English originals.

Mrs. M. Fishwick: A quick, speedy "type" of woman.

Mr. F. Packford: "Skipper" helped to coach swimming to all the Gilligans of Vic High.

Mrs. V. Egan: "Mrs. Volleyball" would not admit that she had outside help in coaching the teams but if it weren't for her dog, we wouldn't have the clean gym floors we have today.

Miss B. Armstrong: She can really cook up a storm.

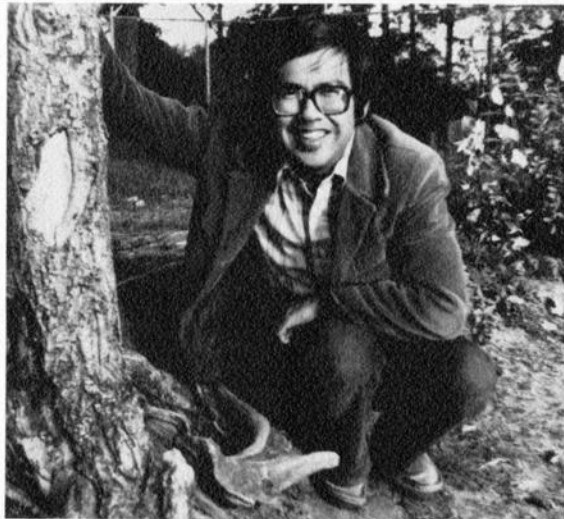

Mrs. L. Allison: Many students have been lead to believe that she is the Incredible Hulk. We wonder why.

"This is my friend the tree."

"Want to see my yearbook?"

Mr. B. Chan: Alias "John Henry" has megaphonic hands and a magic elbow. He can often be found using them to attract attention. "Just march your little bodies over here . . ." Wait till you hear about the giant grasshoppers!

Mrs. J. Donaldson: She believes that a room should always be well balanced. In concordance with that she says, "Two heads are better than one even if one is a cabbage head."

Mr. G. Andrews: We wonder if "Porky" is preparing his students for the armed forces. He always orders, "Line up!"

Mr. T. Harris: "Thank Heaven for little girls!"

"Do your make-up. NOW!"

Harris's Happy Harem.

Mr. W. Ashwell: Vic High's Mr. Nice Guy.

Mr. B. Camp: He is the head organizer of the "Dance of the Excited Electrons". Another one of your positive (?) ideas?

Mr. G. Sinclair: Soft-spoken Sinclair's favourite saying, without a doubt, is "That's really great!"

Mr. T. Briggs: Students wonder where he takes his attendance slip. It must be interesting because sometimes he doesn't come back.

Mr. A. Paone: If in doubt as to where he is, the phantom can often be found having his coffee break.

Mr. E. Bryans: Mr. Bryans may have difficulty getting to class on time but he knows what to do once he gets there . . . And what's your project on?"

"Hey!"

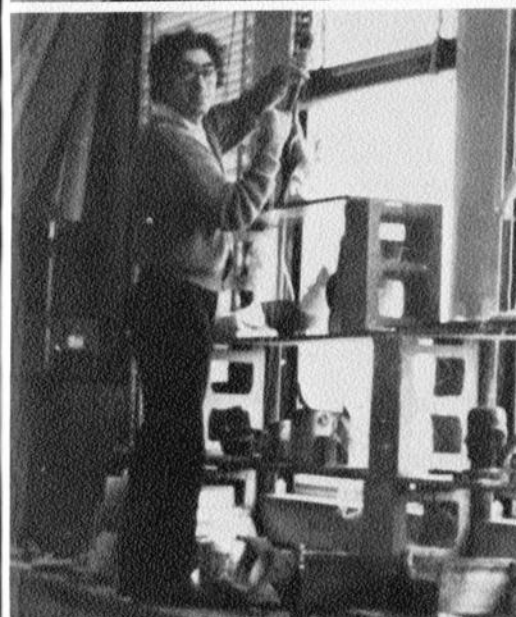

"Hi!"

Mr. R. Blasner: Mr. B. can often be side-tracked into telling ski stories to his "mental midgets".

Mr. J. Chell: After assigning a difficult problem Mr. Chell loves to walk around the room saying, "Bet you can't get it!" to encourage his students.

Mr. M. Hemming: He tells his students to keep their eyes on the screen so that he can secretly snack on paintbrushes.

Mr. R. Wickstrom: Watch out, Leger!

"How do you climb these ropes?"

"Top of the morning to you."

Mr. R. Fell: He taught English in a "nutshell".

Mrs. M. Coburn: Although she is always giving tests with one minute notices, she comforts her students by saying, "The exam is 20 pages long but I think you'll enjoy it."

The Royal Family.

Mr. F. Sedgwick: We hardly saw him since he devoted most of his time to Fairey Tech.

Mrs. D. Nancarrow: She sewed her way into the hearts of her students.

Mr. K. Fraser: "Hi there!" Although he teaches music, his students know what his real love is. Can you guess?

Mr. A. Brice: Did anyone see Mr. Brice in the Fort and Foul Bay Safeway parking lot around Dec. 25? Well he was there selling trees to raise money for the Tennis Club.

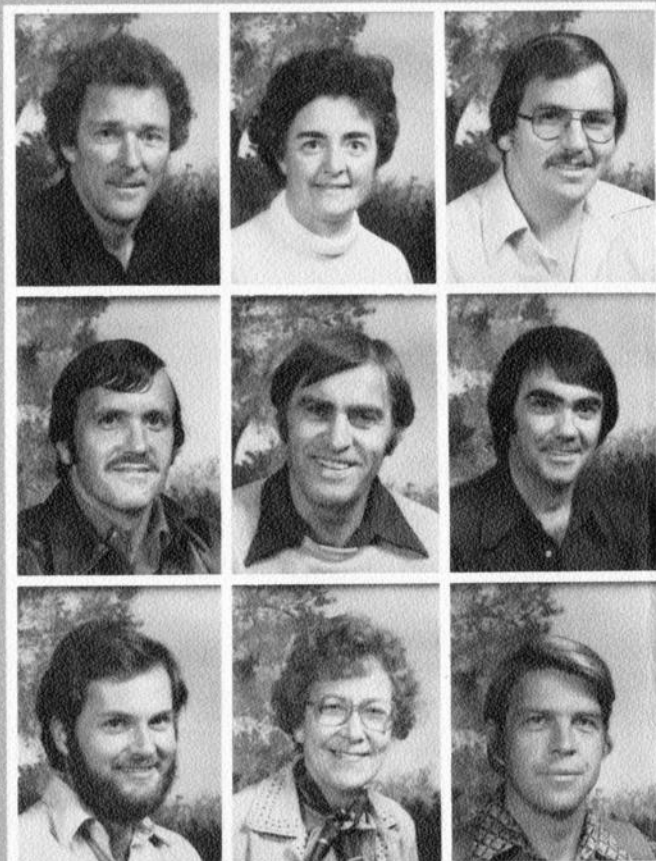

Mr. J. Kreiser: He gets his class' attention by taking off his shoes in front of the class and holding them up in the air. (It certainly gets our attention!) When you leave, he suggests, "Left turns only."

Mr. F. McTavish: Instead of being concerned with today's rising prices, he concerns himself with the tardiness of his students.

Mr. R. Kent: Mr. Kent is one of our rookie teachers. We hope he enjoyed his first year at Vic High.

Mrs. J. Burgis: "Get ready for a timewriting."

Mr. J. Peramaki: His students have yet to find out why he is so possessive about his textbooks. Perhaps it has something to do with his son the "genius".

Mr. J. Andrews: If you follow the friendly Pied Piper into Chemistryland be sure to remember the formula for escape.

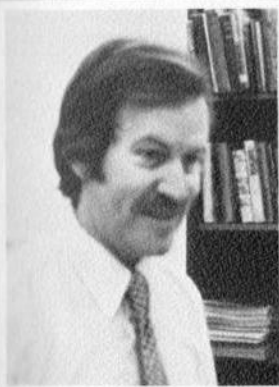

Mr. J. Baur: Among other things, he loves making a fool of himself on stage and telling jokes. "Have you heard the one about . . ."

Time in a bottle.

"Say hello to my plant!"

Mr. L. Owen: After a hard day's work of telling jokes, he enjoys his daily "cuppa tea".

Ms. N. Guilmette: She was very helpful to all the special students in her class.

Mr. B. McHugh: Many students enjoyed watching him conduct a symphony. One problem: they never had their instruments to play!

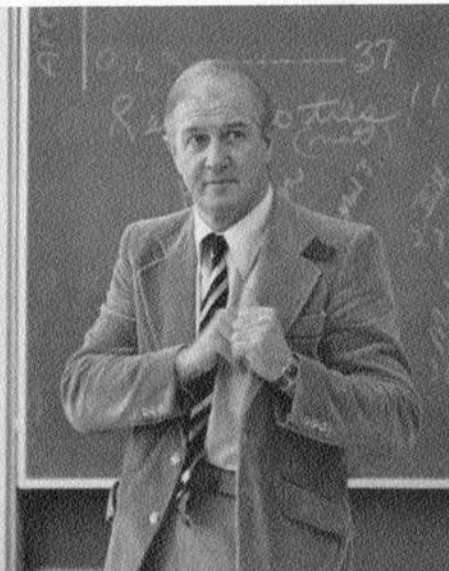

Miss B. Westman: "Bonjour mademoiselle. Comment allez-vous?"

Mrs. F. Reimer: She has a unique way of getting back her pens: "It's not that I don't trust you but you can't borrow my pen unless I get some collateral."

Mrs. M. Andrews: Her students always know what T.V. shows to watch since she writes out the T.V. guide on the board.

"What's all the noise over there?"

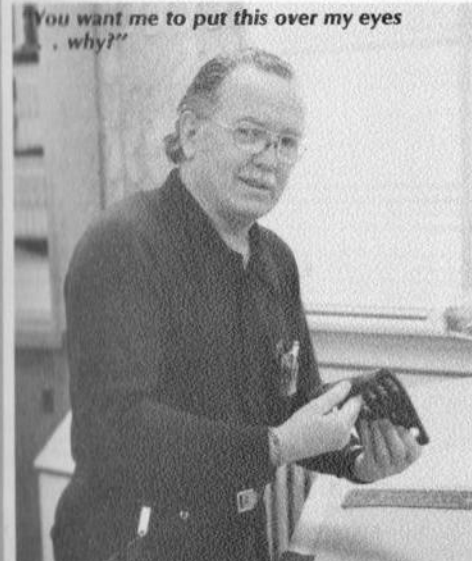

"Take it out slowly. We've got you covered!"

Mrs. E. deVilliers: Mrs. deVilliers is known for her sympathetic nature. She can be heard saying, "You say you've been sick . . . oh, yes I can see that now."

Mr. W. Brooks: He has invented a unique place for putting his glasses . . . hanging on one ear!

"You want me to put this over my eyes . . . why?"

Mr. E. Frederick: The "Mad Hatter" loves to talk . . . and talk . . . and talk . . .

Mr. B. McCarron: He keeps in shape by doing the two-step while he is teaching class. When he's not on his minutely walks to the office he's on his hourly walks back to his room.

Before Salvation

Morning bells and subtle swells and the brine of the breakers roar.
So carry me down to the deep, dark sea
And love me near the shore.

Forgetting all my sorrow
come and lay me in the sand
And o'er the fine, crushed mountains
Tenderly I'll wave my hand.

Sing to me a melody,
I've never sung before.
Lay with me till the moon runs free
Then love me just once more.

These eyes which scour the lays of old
These blue half-moons from nights of lamplit search near the faded birch
Bring pain now with their light.

And teach me by Your wisdom
as I'll teach you by my pain.
And speak true words of judgement
At the shore where I have lain.

For I know there is a rainbow as I saw it shine today.
Eternal arch of ecstasy
Which quivered in the fray.

As the lily grows, and the white wave throws
Her mark upon the sand.
I'll leave behind the mountain peak
And love my dying land.

Reflections

Memories ...
Stand vividly in my mind.
I flashback and think about
The times we shared together
As we strolled along the sunlit beach.
Your hand caressed mine
So gently like the falling rain.
I looked around
At God's wonderful creation
The beauty nature offered.
The free blue sky hid behind
The breaking of dawn.
I knelt and felt the softness of the sand.
Rescuing a seashell
I heard words of eternity.
We raced against the roaring tides
As happiness filled our hearts
And when we gazed
Upon the clear waters
Our reflections brought us joy.

BRIGHTEST STAR

Full moon;
and mellow candles.
A star that came to shine on us for a while.
Birds fly past the hand that reaches to the heavens;
a wish being like a dream.
Silent wishes,
and there you are;
holding hands with a friend.

John Carlow

Mathematics

Mathematics,
it's hard to understand the concept is quite complicated for when adding A and B
we arrive with C.
I can't quite grasp the fact that algebra we need for addition and subtractions, or multiplying fractions.
Geometry becomes a pain
when working with an infinite plane, angles of the right
and angles of the left.
They don't have any bearing on my future,
but then again they might.

Stew

They're building a bomb
so they say
That they'll use in the war come a day
It will kill everybody, but buildings will stay.

They toy for hours; hours and days Blowing up islands with no dismay.

For this craziness I Haven't an answer
But if I was that smart
I'd find a cure for CANCER.

Mark Wyatt

You look at me
As though I was an ornament
In a china shop window
Just staring
Never realizing that I might
Be of some value to you.

If you would only
Accept me for what I am
And not what you want me to be
I might not be as fragile
And break.

Don't Let Go

A tiny red leaf
Couldn't hold on much longer,
And felt very sad!

His friend, a yellow,
Was much stronger and bigger;
He said, "Don't let go!"

So easily said
From a leaf who could hang on Quite a bit longer.

A tiny red leaf,
Afraid of the windy days
Because they hurt more.

The wind wasn't blamed
When the leaf fell to the ground,
But instead, a friend.

It came in the night,
And pulled the tiny leaf down,
Coating everything.

Come morning, the leaf
Lay moistened on the wet earth.
How sneaky, the rain!

Laura King

Autumn — Again

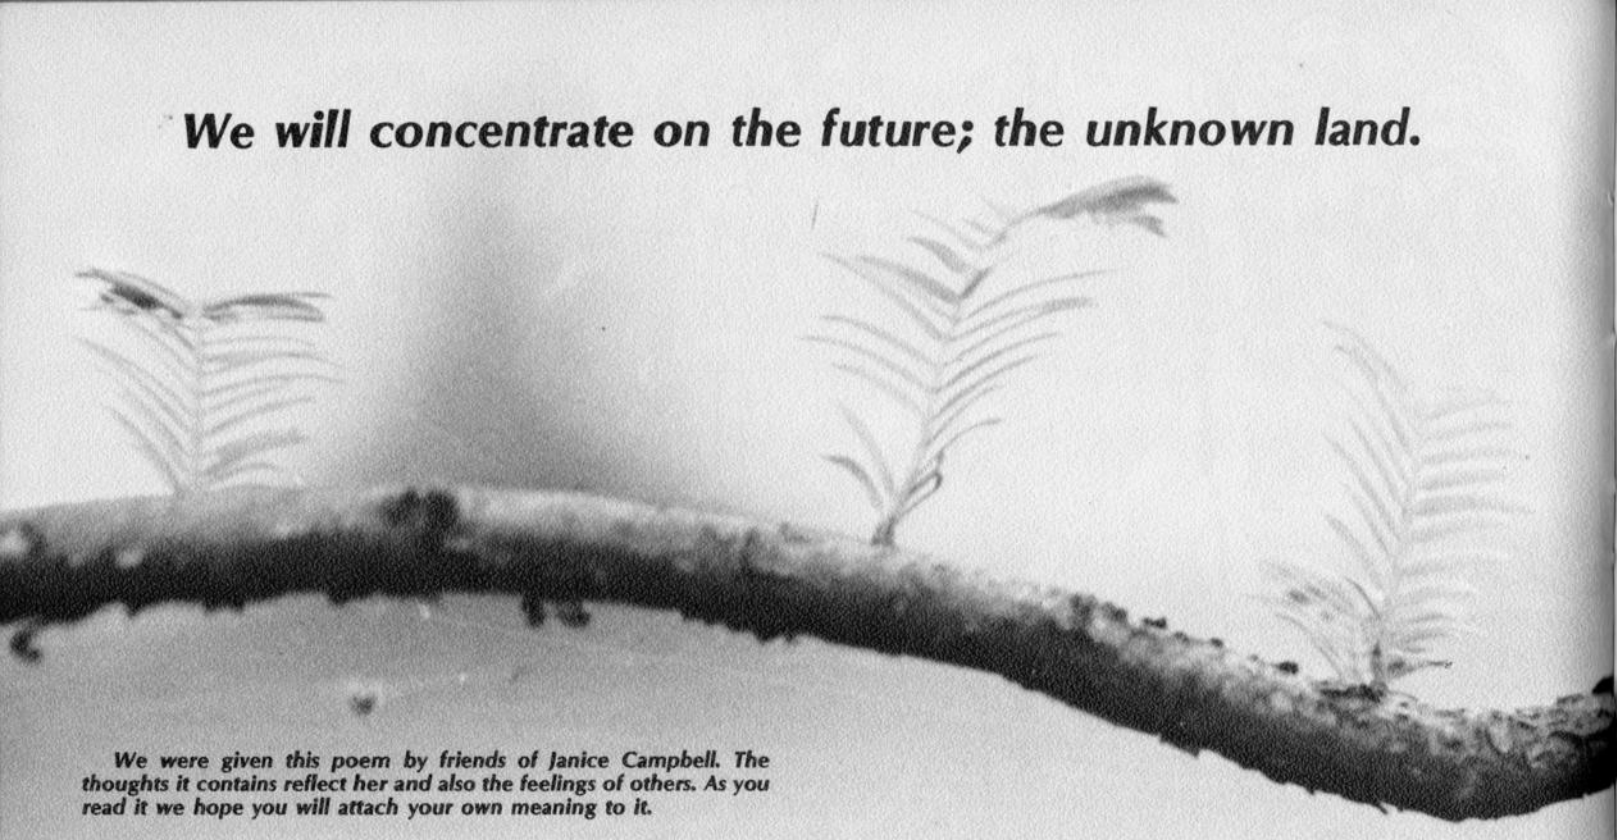

First,
buds in spring.
Last,
leaves in fall.

Time of sleeping, of crinkled leaves under-foot;
time of death, of empty classrooms filled once again.
A wisp of wind, a stirring last leaf falling to become part of Earth.

Ourselves reflected in the pond by now silent, empty picnic grounds.
Laughter and sunshine locked forever in quiet stillness.
Fruit picked, seeds strewn, books open.
Remembering the new ones, opening, becoming as one, yet individual;
as it has been,
as it always will be.

Karl John Swinscoe

We will concentrate on the future; the unknown land.

We were given this poem by friends of Janice Campbell. The thoughts it contains reflect her and also the feelings of others. As you read it we hope you will attach your own meaning to it.

I think, therefore, I am;
I feel, therefore, I touch;
I care, therefore, I reach;
No one is perfect, don't try.
I'm troubled, therefore, I'm confused;
I pray, therefore, I believe;
I listen, therefore, I hear;
I disagree, therefore, I talk.
Everyone is a friend,
Even you and me.
We're a family
And nothing is going to break us up.
To be hurt is cold.
Don't own each other, because then you're not free.
Fly, set your heart free;
Touch each other
We won't bite.
But first find out why you touch.
Is there something there?
If you don't like yourself
Then you don't know yourself.
If it's your physical appearance
Change it, but love is in the soul
Not the body.

Who are you?
Do you know?
Look into your soul;
Can you find it?
What does it say?
Or does it?
Are you confused?
Well let me tell you something,
You're okay.
What do you believe in?
Follow it and trust it.
We're here to help you
Not to confuse you.
Everyone's a brother and a sister.
Love.
Share your amusements, faith and love;
Share your ups and your downs,
For then you're not alone.
Don't bicker and bitch;
It won't get you anywhere.
Find out what you want to know.

Smile, for you aren't shy;
Sing, for you're not afraid;
Dance, for you are free;
Laugh, for you are amused;
Cry, for there is reason.
Take away your mask
And tell me who you are.

To speak cruelly about your brothers
Means you don't know them.
Find them, then you will see you are wrong.
There is no need for rain,
For you can see clearly now.
Love everything you do
Then there will be no need to bitch.
Clear the air of guilt and tension
Then we can talk.

We're here for a good time
So why fight it.
We can relate, so we'll have fun.
The mistakes we've already made
We'll erase, and start again.
We could have made this world different
But the way it is, is the way we have chosen.
Love will only change it now.

To feel is to care;
To love is to share;
To hope is to pray;
A smile is precious.
Carry it with you when times are bad;
Never lose it.
Don't be afraid
For you aren't alone.
I'm there and so are you;
Put our hands together,
Then it will be us.
Don't ever give up in this world.
There are always things you don't know
They make life a challenge.
Even though some people are cold and hard
There are others who are warm and soft.
Find them; cherish them; and love them.
No one is better than the other.
Don't compete.
Express yourself, to anyone; they'll understand.
Give them a chance.
Don't ever take this world too
Seriously; just care.
Never hate for then you will turn hard.
Stay calm and understand;
The biggest fortune you'll
Ever find is in your heart.
Don't give up.

CHRISTINA ALLEGRE: When trying to locate Christina, we found out she was in Mexico. Hope you had a good time!!

DAVE ALLNUTT: "Walnut" says his future plans are to paint Spectrum pink and jump the Grand Canyon in a Volkswagon. He says that he will be remembered for his body (huh?). His worst moment was falling asleep in Math and waking up in English.

ROB ANDERSON: Upon leaving school "No" plans to go into heavy duty mechanics. The students and staff will remember him for nothing so we might as well say goodbye and good luck to what's his name. But before he leaves he warns, "Stay away from Mr. A."

KERRY ARNOTT: "Hairy" wants to become Chinese and own his own corner store. He was a member of the Tsasquatchs and will be known as, "the guy who sat in the same place each morning." He warns us, "Don't eat at McDonalds."

HEATHER ASHTON: "Ha, ha" hates attending school and she is frantically looking forward to graduating. When she leaves, to hopefully travel across Canada with J.D., she will be remembered for her talking. She warns, "Don't bother coming. The teachers fail you anyway."

INGRID ATTROT: "Ingi" wishes someday to go to Europe to study music. She, like many, is bothered by the confusing science-mathematics. Good luck with your music Ingrid and have a terrific life.

SACVEER ATWALL: After grad, "Shorty" plans to play on the S.F.U. varsity football team. Good luck ... you'll need it. Always being heard but never seen, exams and attending school with D.J. bbg him. His worst moment at Vic High was meeting W.R.

PHILIP BAILEY: The gangster would like to be remembered for dancing around the stage in a 2-2. His main ambition in life is to become a millionaire before he's 25. His advice to his followers is, "Hand in questionnaire sheets on time or suffer the consequences."

ROYCE BAILEY: "Beatle" will leave us with memories of setting the clocks ahead in class and honest excuses. Just getting up in the morning bugs Royce. He plans to become an electrician after he graduates. Have a good time not getting up in the morning, Royce.

JASBIR BAINS: Jasbir would like to be an airline stewardess. She found that getting up in the morning was annoying and walking into the wrong class one Monday morning embarrassing. Words of wisdom: "Go ahead skip out as often as you want, but remember you'll only fail."

CAROL BARBER: Getting up in the morning is one problem which "Gubah Girl" has. Although her ambition is to travel, Carol's most embarrassing moment is yet to come. The students and staff of Vic High will always remember seeing her in the morning and missing her in the afternoon.

LISA BARBON: Lisa left too early for us to find out anything about her.

DOUG BARKER: Doug hopes to make some "scratch" ($200,000 or so) after graduation and then travel anywhere. He points out that he would have enjoyed himself more if there was a Billards Club here. "Have fun because when you do time flies" is his little reminder to us.

DAVE BARNES: "Dick" who is one of our many hooters, participated in soccer and girls, and had a great time in the "Nanaimo Hotbox". He was a great supporter in parking lot parties with the Hooters, but hated block A Geography. Dave departs saying, "Big knockers aren't everything."

KELLY BARTER: Kelly wasn't seen or heard of!!

DIMPAL BASI: "Dribbles" or "Bambie" plans to party her life away. The most bothersome thing to Dimpal was the P.E. Department and vice versa. Her words of wisdom: "Don't get caught skipping out ... it's not worth it."

JO-ANNE BEEREN: "Little Un" (!?!) plans to go to UVIC to become a lawyer so that she can sue boring teachers. Her favourite saying is, "Let's skip out," and she wishes all who follow, "Good Luck." Good luck to you, Jo.

LEN BELL: "Smily" wants to take it easy for a year or two after graduation instead of having to attend school. He says that Grade 12 is a great memory and so are the people who were there. His advice to future grads is, "This school is number one!"

BALBIR ATWAL: All we found out was that Balbir can't wait to leave school. We think the feeling is mutual!!

RON BELL: When asked, "What are you planning for the world when you graduate?", Ron replied, "Who said I'm going to graduate?" His worst moment was getting a cupcake for his birthday with 19 candles on it. He warns, "Never take your teachers seriously."

STEPHEN BONE: This mysterious person couldn't be found for information or a picture. Are you out there, Steve??

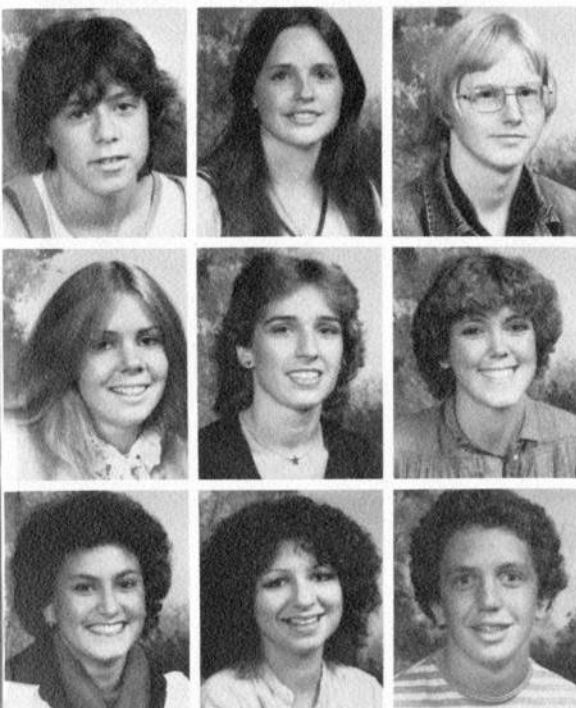

CHRIS BOOTH: Chris has been voted the girl most likely to become a high school dropout due to her plans for the near future. She had better hurry, graduation will be here before we know it. Chris' favorite pastime is vanning with D.S.

MURRAY BOSTON: Murray only took one class at school this year. We couldn't find out why but he must have had a good reason.

CHRISTOPHER BOS

Sabotage.

BOB BEST: "Hot dog" says that he wants to be a machinist, that is, if someone doesn't eat him first. He also suggests that anyone who enjoys yawning should get into Mr. B's class. Bob's pet peeves are getting up in the morning and filling our questionnaires.

CHARLENE BIRNIE: Charlene is a women's libber so her future job won't be a soft one. She smiled all through her boring moments and even when she walked in a class late and everyone stared at her. She warns others, "Don't skip out too much!"

GERRY BLACK: Gerry's unusual sense of humour was extremely evident on his questionnaire. He must have caused a lot of trouble in his two years at Vic High because he says: "I hope I'm not remembered; I want to live a long life."

TRACY BLACKMORE: Otherwise known as "Bot" or "Porky", her pet peeve is getting up in the wee hours of the morn. Her main ambition is to work and travel to Europe.

FRANCIS BODENCHUK: Fran plans to continue her education, do some modelling, study fashions, keep fit and, enjoy life. Conceited people bother her the most. Her best moments were playing volleyball, badminton, and tennis. She says, "Get involved with school activities to make your stay more enjoyable."

CINDY BONNELL: Cindy is a vocalist and an instrumentalist who plays rhythm guitar and is an avid drama student. But alas! Her life is too structured! What she wants most of all is to grow her hair so long that she can sit on it!

GRETT BOTELHO: "Pissgetti's" most awkward experience was "walking into the boys' washroom by accident." She plans to go to college, be a social worker, marry a rich guy with blue eyes and have 3 kids. An ambitious lady! Keep up the school spirit. Without it, there's not much of a school.

JULIE BOUCHARD: "Eat a peach", says Julie who plans to become rich and famous as a professional poodle stylist in Coombes, B.C. In general, school life bothered her though she couldn't remember any especially bad moments in it.

PAUL BOUGIE: "Boogey" says, "homework . . . it rots my mind." He didn't like filling out the questionnaire, either. He did like Biology and English II and will be remembered for his integrity, maturity, punctuality, neatness and charm. (Sure, Paul, sure.)

ROB BOURKE: Rob liked Mechanics this year and playing pool. This is all we got. A friend gave us the information, Rob!!

MIKE BOURNE: "Mikey" is known for his love of Life cereal, along with throwing paper airplanes off the top floor. His best moment was using a dissected frog for target practise. (Yuk!) He plans to do a lot of surveying, of what we couldn't find out.

PAUL BRADY: When trying to locate Paul, he was found washing dishes at a local restaurant. When asked if he would hand in a questionnaire . . . he said, "I'll think about it." Well, Paul, you thought too long!!

SHARYL BRAMBLE: Sharyl plans weird and wonderful things for the world. She's into non-conforming and "good" food. How interesting! To explain the reason for the many lunatics of our century she says, "The moon (its controlling force) is getting too close to the earth."

ANITA MARIE BREITHACK: After graduation, "Sunshine" wants to do some more travelling. Like most of us, she doesn't like getting up in the morning, but she still manages to be a "conscientious" worker. Keep up the great attitude, Anita!!

LORRAINE BRIDGER: Lorraine is always late or never here so when and if she graduates she plans to disappear. Lorraine does not like paying adult rates at theatres and showing I.D. at the pub. She says wisely, "Whatever it takes, try and go to class."

MICHELLE BROWN: "China Doll" plans to do a lot of travelling in the near future. We're sure everyone will remember her for bringing back little blue cards from the dentist. School bothers her the most and her worst moment was being caught skipping out.

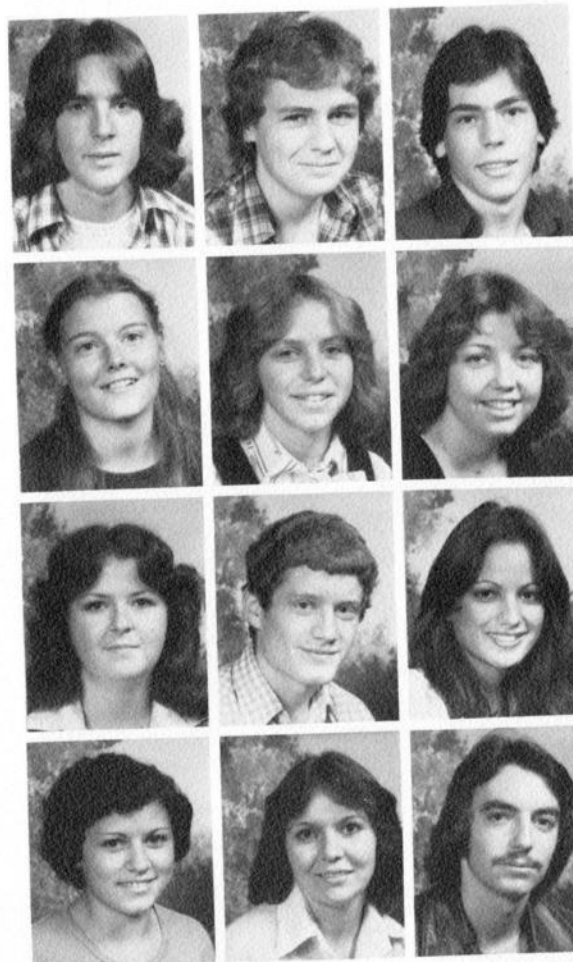

MICHAEL BROWN: Mike leaves us with fond memories of hockey on the tennis courts and others he'd rather not mention. When you take over the world, Mike, take it easy on us at least. Why not start with tennis and work your way up from there?

CINDY BRUCKEL: To the best of our knowledge, "Gubah Girl No. 1" plans on going to Holland to check out the guys. Her pet peeves include getting up in the mornings. Cindy's most embarrassing memory of V.H.S. was the time she was acting in a drama between M.C. and J.J.

ENCARNACION BRUNO: "Tata" is looking forward to the future where she will be busy travelling or trying to find a job working with people. Exams, teachers that make you feel embarrassed, and homework didn't appeal to her. And Encarnacion, your name isn't weird . . . it's beautiful!

PAULA BURNS: "Poopsie" would like to become a millionaire and own the world. Her favourite saying is: "You stewed prune." Paula doesn't like having holes in her socks when having to take off her shoes in acting.

AL BURNS: When Al graduates, he hopes to jump the Grand Canyon in a Volkswagen. Good luck!! We all will remember his fabulous smoke shows. Al doesn't like getting up in the morning for school. Join the club! In parting, Al says, "Buy a Chevy."

Introducing, Mr. Hyde . . .

Down to earth business.

LOUISA BUSHNELL: Louisa plans to go to UVic to study Languages and hopefully to go on to study ballet. She hates having homework in all seven subjects on one night and her worst memory of V.H.S. is having unexpected quizzes. A word of advice, "Enjoy your school years while they last."

MARK BUYENS: You're all invited to a big party Mark is planning after graduation. Mark will be remembered for his participation in rugby and being a member of the Hooter Club. He departs saying, "You're here for a good time, not a long time, so have a good life, stay young, stay happy."

TAMMY BYSTEDT: After graduating Tammy plans to go to Hawaii and then to Europe before she starts to work. She says that she's a Cancer who likes swimming, skating, and partying. She feels Grade 12 is her best year and comments, "It is well worth it!" À bientôt Tammy.

GRACE CABENCINHA: "Gracie" is looking forward to graduating so that she may continue to work at Eaton's. She hates getting up on a cold morning to go to school but she still advises: "Enjoy your last year of school."

SUSAN CALVÉ: Victoria High School will never forget Susan's happy way with people and for being a beautiful person.

CASEY CAMP: After Casey (Hebediah) leaves Denis stranded in the auditorium, she plans to become a set designer and a stage manager and have Stratford at her mercy. She will be remembered for her home in the auditorium. She is bothered by uncluttered grand pianos.

JANICE CAMPBELL: We, at Vic High, will always remember Janice's beautiful smile and terrific personality.

MICHELLE CAMPBELL: In the future, "Mike" plans to go to college and like most people, travel. She admits that in her two years at Vic High, she has learned more than the rest of her past years put together. In parting, she says: "You only get out of school what you put into it."

MARK CARDINAL: "Parnelli Jones", (known for his magnificent driving) wants to become a logger and rebuild his pick-up truck. Besides Vic High, the Victoria police will also remember him for the time he smashed his truck and was abducted. His embarrassing moment was being caught.

JOHN CARLOW: "Peaches" enjoys working on plays and running across a strobe-lit stage. He plans to re-design Europe and become a lighting designer for theatre. He is full of wisdom but specifically says what else but, "Stick with drama and be good to the auditorium."

ALAN CARLYLE: Al or "One-eye" wants to be a R.C.M.P. Narc. at Vic High. Working on the chimney with T.P. will bring back memories, so will leaving for carpentry 10 minutes early every day. He also holds a grudge against "Chevs".

ELAINE CATHCART: Elaine plans to spread rock and roll throughout the land and wipe out disco. She is fond of sleeping in class; we hope that it hasn't hurt her marks too much. She advises us all to "Always carry a pipe."

BIRGIT BULLING
JOI BURTON

BOB CALDWELL: "Ughy" would like to go to university. One thing for sure is that getting up for school is a drag... and without money life is the pits! He has had a very slippery experience! Look out for banana peels on the stairs!!

DAVE CARVALHO: Dave is one of the many Vic High students who is never seen and never heard! We hope all goes well for you, Dave.

DOUG CAWKER: Doug leaves his mark at Vic High on the cash register in the cafeteria. He plans to go on to become a cook and then a pastry chef. This "Pillsbury Doughboy" didn't enjoy it very much when the cafeteria was closed down in November.

SUSAN CHABASIEWICZ: Susan enjoyed meeting all the friendly people at Vic High. She says they'll remember her for her unpronounceable last name. Her plans are to become a music teacher. Her final words to the undergrads are: "Good luck and stay out of trouble."

DONNA CHAN: "Doontz" had a lot to say when asked to fill out the grad questionnaire. Her plans range from flying to Mars to becoming a famous stock car racer to committing suicide. Aren't they all the same thing! She was worried that we would make her sound like an idiot. Did we?

JEFF CHAN: To our surprise, "Chan Man" wants to be someone special in the future. Anything you can think of, he has done. He dislikes almost everything except girls. Very interesting!

NEIL CHAN: "Chan the man" will be remembered for, as he puts it, "for being me." He doesn't like mouthy characters and will never forget that "shocking" experience with a T.V. set!!

NELSON CHAN: Nelson, future famous electrician, says that you can call him Joe, or Gary or Fred though Chan is quite adequate. O.K. Joe. He admits that he was bothered by the sight of A.L. in a bikini, and says that teachers will remember him for his generosity. ($$)

RICK CHAN: Rick wants to go to college to become an electronic technologist. He dislikes getting up in the morning to go to school which is probably why he is often late.

WILLIAM CHAN: "Mr. Typewriter" (known for neatness) says his worst moment was seeing his name on the grad questionnaire delinquent list. To future grads he says, "You should always look out for number one, especially if they don't like you!"

GLORIA CHARLES: Gloria wants to go to Camosun College . . . that is if she doesn't kill herself on the stairs first. Though she has no words of wisdom, Gloria will be remembered for talking on . . . and on . . . and on.

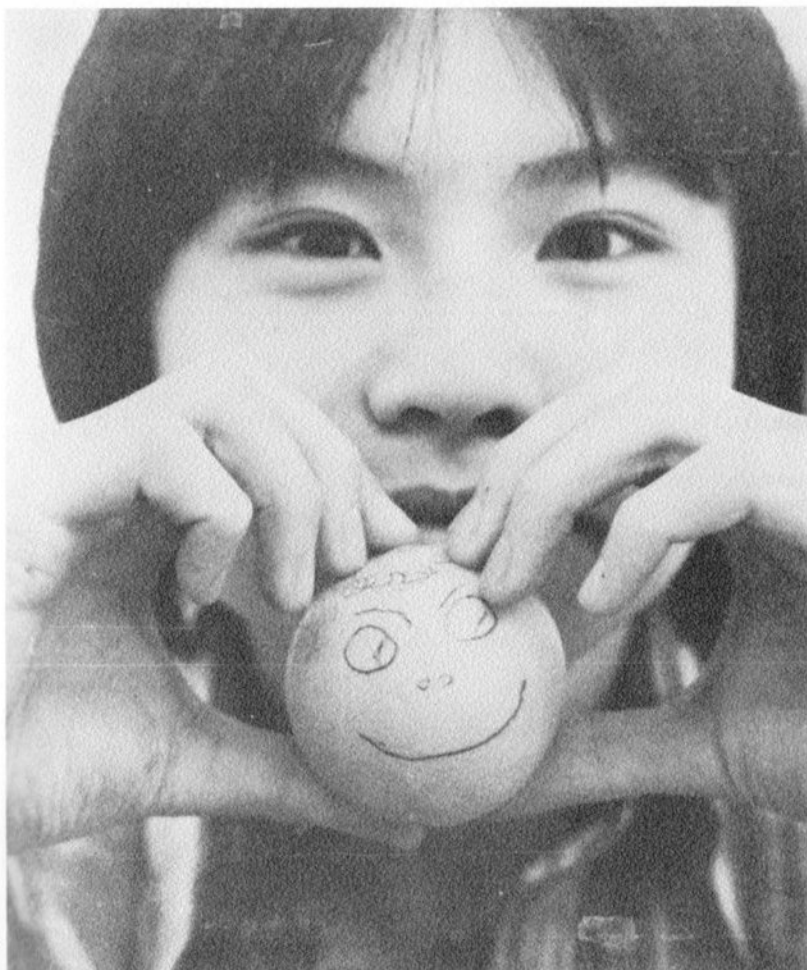

ELIZABETH CHARSLEY: "Zorbuck" is one of our ambitious students planning to get rich and famous after a few years at Uvic. She didn't like the ignorant teachers who thought they knew everything. Right on! Words of wisdom: "Show Mr. N. a little understanding when he cracks his puns."

CHERYL CHILD: Cheryl would like to become a public health nurse and practice medicine in Northern Indian villages. She always has a beautiful smile ready for all her friends. We hope that her wish for more understanding teachers will be fulfilled in the near future.

ANN CHOW: Ann says she will be remembered for being too quiet; her questionnaire certainly indicated this. We did learn that she wishes to take courses in data entry and that tripping in front of all the students in a classroom is not her idea of fun.

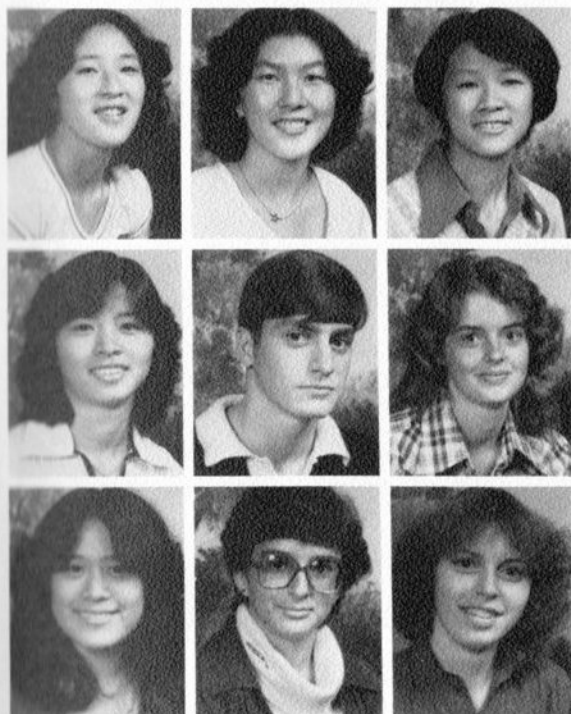

"I can't help it, women just adore me."

Any resemblance?

Open wide and say "ah".

DONNA CHOW: "Donny's" unique and artistic style of handwriting will never be forgotten by fellow students and teachers alike. After 12 years of sacrificing, she hopes to live a long, happy, and $$ life. Don't we all! To the undergrads, "Make your last year the best."

JENNY CHOW: "Chow-Chow's" most embarrassing moment was watching her clogs roll down the stairs as she was travelling up. (Rivalry for Cinderella?) Globe-trotting will be one of her future plans; with your clogs we hope! She advises: "Don't skip out."

JULIE CHOW: Julie detests surprise tests and exams. We will always remember her as one of those who didn't hand in her questionnaire until the very last moment. Her worst memory at VHS was when she pressed the Xerox machine in the library and had to pay for a blank sheet of paper.

LILA CHOW: Lila plans to continue her education in the business field and hopes she will eventually find a good job. She regrets the time she was doing a speed test on an electric typewriter and the power went out. Lila does not appreciate people who give up easily without trying again.

STEVE CHRISTIAN: S. Christian plans to become a lawyer. His words of warning, "Beware of chronic skipaphobia, a disease..." and his illegible handwriting indicate that he should become a doctor. Stephen is bothered by the bureaucracy of school. He believes that like most things, it could be run more efficiently.

DEBBIE CHRISTIANSEN: "Smiley" has dreams of being a nurse or flying on cloud nine as a stewardess. She didn't like coming to school, going to classes, and doing school work. Maybe that's why she was always late. Our only advice for you "Smiley" is to "Grin and bear it."

STEPHANIE CHU: "Slugging it uphill, Stephanie" would like to graduate from University. Confusing other people to win an argument is her specialty. People pretending to be something they're not bugs her. She spent this year trying to trip Mr. C. in Biology. (P.S. It worked!)

KAREN CLARKE: After grad "Chester" plans to go to university, where if you're unlucky, she'll get to you with her cheese jokes. The color of the walls in Vic. High didn't exactly have her approval. In parting she says, "Don't get caught." Doing what?

SUSAN CLARKE: Sue wishes to remain as sane as possible, but getting skied over by an unidentified person on the slopes of Forbidden Plateau doesn't help. Sue's ambition is to "Make a lot of money with the least amount of work." Is that legal?

OTTAVIO CIAMMAICHELLA

JEAN CHAN: Jean's worst memory of Vic High is walking into class 10 minutes late. She has been blamed for jinxing everybody's locks. We're thankful it's nothing else! Also, "Don't argue with teachers... they think they're always right." Amen.

TONY CLARKE: Tony is known for his red hair; sources say that he is called "Carrot-head."

KEITH CLAYARDS: Keith would like to be recognized for his great jokes. For his future plans, he wishes to work, make money and live luxuriously and comfortably. He says the best part of school is not attending and the worst part of school is attending.

VIKKI CLEMENTS: Vikki would love to go to New York and star in a movie. Possibly it's about an interior decorator who leaves the life of wallpaper and paint for one of glamour, modelling, fashion designing and finally movie stardom. "Always give a smile. It doesn't cost anything."

VALERIE CLYDESDALE: Val is going to tear the world apart after she graduates. We presume this must have something to do with being short. Her worst moment was having all her music fall all over the floor in band and Mr. F. stopping the music!

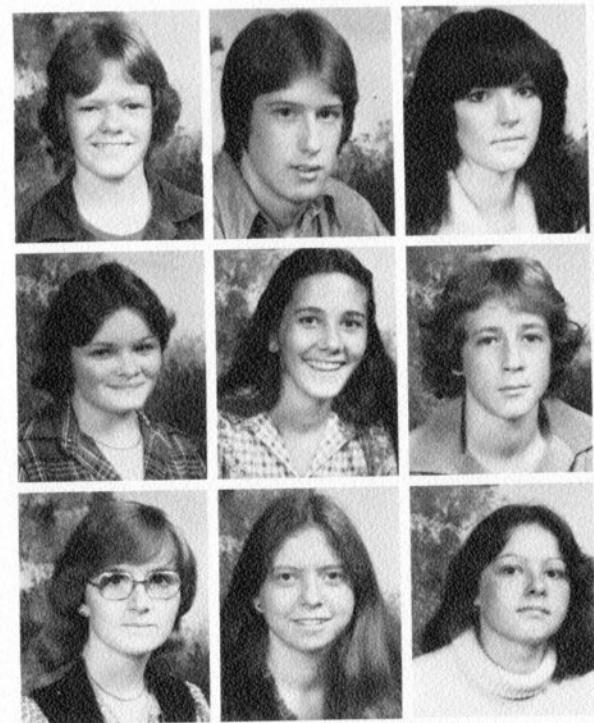

MARY COCHLAN: Mary loves crazy, happy people and over crowded lockers. Her best moment at Vic High was the California Band Trip in '78. She dislikes snobs and suggests that you don't wait till "next time" to study for exams.

ALAN COLLINGS: Al's best memory was his summer holidays. He told us that he didn't like coming to school, yet he never skipped out (something's wrong here!). Oh well, he leaves saying, "Mr. P. was born that way."

JANET COMBE: "Germ's" ambition is to be able to afford a new amp and guitar in the same century. She is one of the lucky people not bothered by anything except maybe tripping up stairs. Really? Janet has found that "Vic High ain't so bad."

LAURA COOK: Laura insists that carrots rule the world and will eventually take over mankind. Carrot lovers of the world... UNITE!!!

TERESA COOPER: The C.I.A. couldn't find out where Teresa hid all year!

Get down to the disco beat.

MIKE CLEMENTS: Mike could be heard saying, "What." Mike will remember this school with fond memories. He was kicked out of Mr. C.'s English II class within the first week of school.

TIM CONNOLLY: Tim is a man of few words and would like to be financially independent. His worst moments are test results. He doesn't like the early and late hours of school. His final shot at future grads was: "Don't follow so close!"

CALVIN COOK: "Spud's" ambition for the future is to win a lottery. He will be remembered for being a member of the "Hooter Club." His best memories of Vic High were, what else, but the Albert Head Hoots!! "Blame it on the other guy," are his parting words.

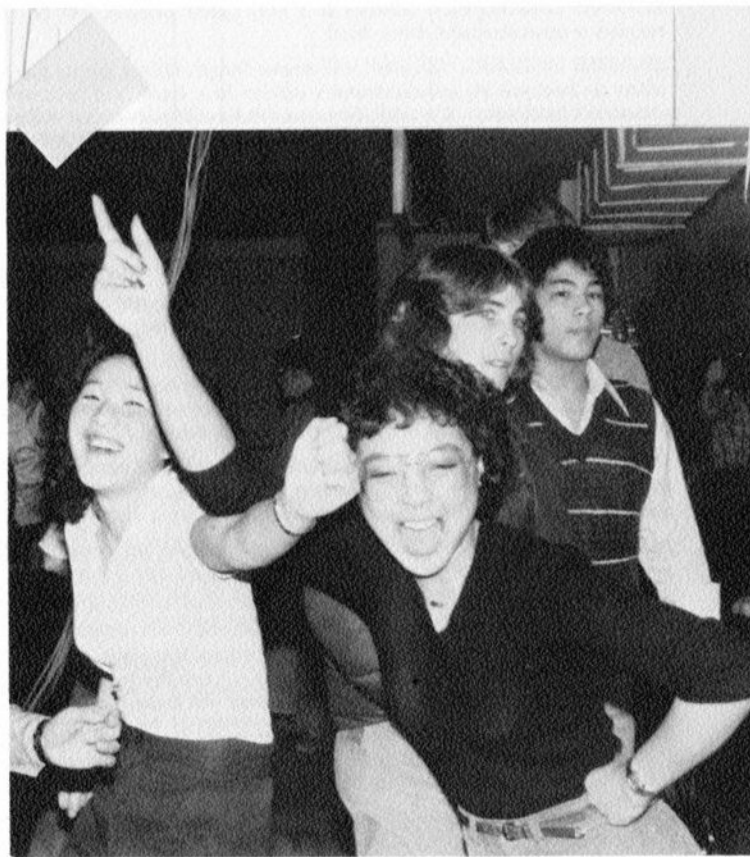

SHARON CLERMONT

MELANIE CONWAY

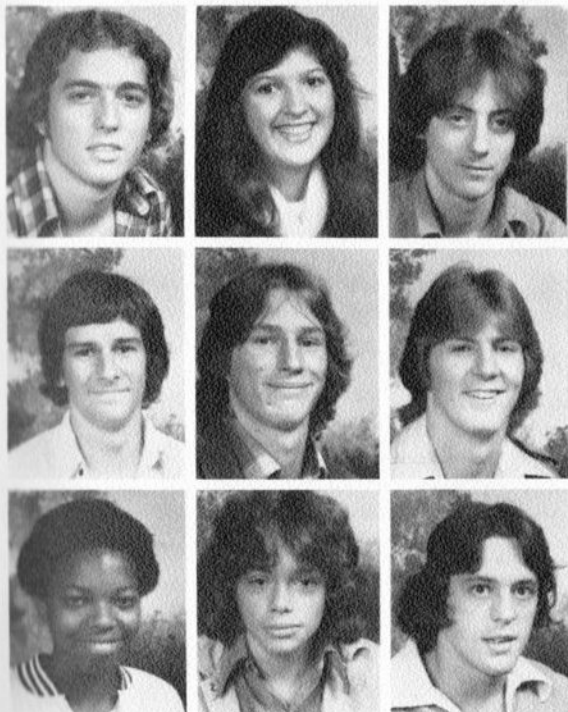

Best dressed couple?

John Travolta's sister?

KEVIN CORLETT: Kevin feels that having to hand things in on time as well as being on time is a real effort. Among other things, his questionnaire sheet was handed in late. He would like to be remembered for having an almost perfect record and never arriving on time.

SHELLEY CROCKER: Shelley plans to become a physiotherapist and to travel a lot mainly to Australia. Her dislikes include exams, homework and getting up every morning. Her best moment at Vic High was when her puffed pastry really puffed in her Foods class.

PETE CROSS: Pete, who's nickname is "not printable", will be joining the unemployed when school is finished. He told us we'll remember him for his "ambitiousness?", (that's what he wrote!) and also his phobia for mornings. He lets others know, "Don't take questionnaires seriously."

WAYNE CROSSFIELD: Wayne is planning to become a carpenter in the near future. He will be remembered simply for coming to class even though it was bothersome getting up for it. Wayne, the Camosun staff wishes you good luck with your future plans.

DEREK CROUCHER: Derek wants to become a professional sports star. (In which sport?) His worst moments were getting caught smoking and having to pick up garbage. His final goodbye words are, "If you don't want to go, don't!"

JOHN CROWTHER: "J.C." wants to start a shoe business in Africa selling platforms to Pygmies. Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays are great, but the cafeteria tiles still remind him of a public washroom. He leaves Vic High asking, "Does your head hurt when you think?"

JENNIFER CUMBERBATCH: Besides falling while running on the balcony, Jen has a habit of being late! She says she doesn't mind being the minority but hates getting up for school. After graduation, she hopes to do all the things she missed while going to school!!

PAUL DAGGETT: Sorry, Paul. No questionnaire, no comment!

BUD DALZIEL: When "Crash No. 1" graduates, he plans to become the world's fastest Press Mailer and keep fit forever. He'll be remembered at Vic High for making a Motor-cross track behind Fairtech. His words of warning are: "Don't come in late when your teacher's in a bad mood."

MARY COVERDALE: We didn't get any info. from Mary so this is all we could write!

ALLAN CROW: Allan is bugged by the futility of the Student Parliament and teacher's discrimination. Being famous for cutting classes to go fishing, it is no surprise that he plans to become a Fisheries Biologist. His advice is, "Don't sit in the back and wear a leather jacket if you plan to graduate."

BRUCE CUTHBERT
ANTONIO CREVATIN

SILVANO DARDANGO: Silvano is a very quiet person. Maybe that's why we didn't receive a questionnaire from him!

JENNIFER DARLING: "Shorty" will never forget falling down the stairs in a dress. She plans to become an administrator's officer in a bank and to marry a rich doctor. This shouldn't be hard — S.A. should know. "Moose" says to her fellow "darlings", "Enjoy yourself as much as you can."

NIGEL DAVISON: "Niggle" will be remembered for his distasteful decoration and destruction of the back of the second floor hallway. His worst moment was kissing the captain of the soccer team!?! "Do unto others, then get the hell out of there," are whimsical words, Nigel!

DEBBIE DEAR: "Mousie" plans to move to Scotland and teach Scottish dancing. Debbie will be remembered for falling over her feet and slipping over the rock during curling. (OUCH!)

DON DESCOTEAU: "Ford Man" plans to continue with his musical talent after he graduates. He is bothered by English and working on Friday nights, but will never forget seeing C.F. in a swimsuit. His last words are, "Beware of the mighty wrath of the Andrews-Valdal machine."

JOANNE DIETRICH: "Joey" refuses to be remembered but hopes to become a secretary in the foreign embassy. Her pet peeves include the cafeteria coffee, the school stairs and school. "Joey" says, "A day without a spare is like a Friday night without booze."

MIKE DIXON: "Mikey" or "D-Jay" hopes to build his record collection past the 500 mark! He is bothered by walking into school and not being able to have his morning coffee. One thing he will never forget is all of his cool, calm and collected teachers. Mikey says, "Keep partying and meet lots of people!"

JACK DONG: Jack says they call him many names. Are we to believe it? His greatest ambition is to play guitar with RUSH!! His advice is from the movie "Up in Smoke", "Don't go straight to school!" Jack have you recovered yet from waking up on Sept. 5, 78?

VICKY DOUGLAS: "Spid" hates getting up early for school and gets embarrassed when she falls up the stairs. When she leaves us as the girl who embarrasses her friends, she hopes to become a truck driver. Spid says, "Quit while you're ahead before it's too late."

TERESA DOWMAN: Teresa plans to be a beach-bum after she finishes Grade 12. Besides falling she will be known for being in "Play It Again Sam." Coming to school seemed to bother her but she leaves a few last words for future grads: "The last of the best — Grad '79."

STEVE DREW: Steve, otherwise known as "Rookie," is planning to make lots of money after graduation. Most people will remember Steve for breaking things and hating non-shop classes. He says, "Mr. P. is always that way." (??)

DEBBIE DROVER: Deb plans to take it easy and then become a teacher, after grad. Deb's worst memory of Vic High was people coming up to her and saying, "Is your hair permed?" Is it Deb? Last words, "Watch out for the sausage man."

Ahoy there!

"Where's the rain?"

MICHELL DROVER: No comment!

CRAIG ELLIS: This short haired fellow, known as "Pongo", wants to become a professional hunter and guide. What are you going to hunt? He will always be remembered for his lack of homework. His most embarrassing moment is yet to come. Good luck in the future, "Pongo".

DENISE ENG: "Denny" has no great plans for the future. Her worst moments were going to a class and getting a quiz on last day's homework when she didn't have time to complete it. She shares the feelings of many in saying: "Questionnaires are useless."

DAWN ERICKSON: Dawn rarely shows up for class because so many of the teachers bore her to death with a subject that could be interesting. Her worst moment was discovering that she had broken the zipper in her pants.

CHRIS FAGG: Besides singing, smiling and eating, Chris might be remembered for shivering as she climbed up the stairs to her Biology class. She loves to dance and act too, as well as meet super people. Chris exclaims, "Keep up the school spirit!"

PERRY FANTHORPE: Perry was another who left Vic High early.

REJAN FARLEY: Rejan came to Vic High from Norfolk House and is famous for wandering.

BRETT FITCH: Brett can be seen at school (almost everyday) in the shops. He enjoys carpentry and plans to become a journeyman. As he leaves Vic High memories of his sore back will linger on. He feels that there should be more outdoor noon hour activities and advises, "Don't take school too seriously."

JAN FLORIAN: "Little Jaun" wishes to delve into the field of archaeology. He has been preparing for his career by closely examining the mud of the Rugby field.

JANET FONTAINE: "Janny" will be remembered for "being razed by P.P., M.W., I.W., G.S., and L.B. Her best moments were with "Dr. P. and the "HOOTERS" and listening to D.B.'s jokes." She profoundly passes on to all following her "TOGA!" (Don't ask us, ask her.)

GAIL FORBES: Gail must love to torture herself; she hates homework and yet after graduation she plans to go to UVIC or Camosun. Gail's worst memory is an E in Chemistry 12 during the first term. We hope that she is still reasonably sane after trying (hopefully successfully) to improve the mark throughout the rest of the year.

LAUREL FOULKES: Unlike others, "Stoney" wants to be a rock star. She can usually be found doing cafeteria duty but why does she hate normal mushrooms? Her taste in music revolves around rock and rock only. No disco! She loves "We will rock you" and suggests never to go to a Ted Nugent concert without earplugs.

SANDRA FRASER: Sandra did not like getting up to go to school, listening to teachers lecture, and homework. She is, however, thinking of going to college after she gets a good job and a new car. Some words of wisdom: "Enjoy your last year at school before you get into the world of working people."

VINCE GABAS: Vince is bothered by the fact that there are no jobs in Victoria but he is confident that in the future he will be making "big money" on an oilrig. Lots of luck Vince. Do your words of warning: "Look-out" refer to the world or should we look-out for you?

RACHELLE GAGNE: "Rish" will always be remembered for her participation in athletics. She plans to surprise the world when she graduates and advises fellow sports fanatics: "It is rough at first, but stick with it, the effort brings about better rewards."

LARRY DAVIS: "Ape Arms" is a very interesting character. This future Fisher Man thinks others hope that he'll leave this year. His best? worst? most embarrassing memory was of the time he got so drunk, he talked to a post in the cafeteria for one hour. "I hope next year they give exams every week."

STEVE DREW: Even though Steve hasn't any plans for his future, he is planning to go to College for a couple of years. Getting up in the morning bothers him, but graduation is an event he won't forget at Vic High.

DEAN EDMONDS: Dean is one of the few people in this world who can say "no" for that is all we are told in his questionnaire. One other thing: He hated attending school. Dean sure leads an exciting life!

MIKE FOFONOFF: Mike's last name will never be forgotten. He wants to get a job and travel, like most of us and is bothered by mornings, homework, and school. He can't wait to graduate, again, like most of us.

GUY DeCARIA

MARILYN DeVRIES

DONNA DIXON

RUSSEL DUNSTON

VALARIE EGLAND

LYNN ELLIS

Vic High students in the "stands".

SHAWN GALBRAITH: When Shawn graduates, he plans to win a million, move to Hawaii, and buy out the Arabs. He hates getting up in the mornings. Maybe that's why you're always late for History, Shawn. As he signs off, Shawn comments, "Don't pick your nose while you're reading your Physics essay."

STEVE GALLOP: Steve's plans include cornering the pipe-making industry. He says that he will be remembered for his lack of memory, he thinks. His worst memory of V.H.S. was being at school and warns others, "Don't go into class unless you're on a blast. Don't get caught with herbs."

LISA GARNER: Lisa plans to go to England and study hairdressing. She'll be best remembered by those who saw or heard her Carol Burnett impersonations. She liked D.O.'s locker and her laughing fits, and all the good times with "The Gang!!"

THORA GISLASON: Thora hopes to discover the meaning of life itself and to write the Great Canadian Novel. (Any connections?) Her last words are, "Enjoy Vic High because it's a great school."

JOAN GLENDALE: "Nipper" is another one of our hopeful travellers of the future. Being late for class was one of her specialties. Were you really that good at it? Her best memory was seeing all those people displaying school spirit by wearing their Halloween costumes.

BARBARA GLENDINNING: "Boob" wants to live one day at a time with Julie, Ann, and Schneider. A certain P.E. teacher bothers Barb, but then she and D.B. seem to bother everyone else. She passed Algebra with 37%?? Let us know how you did it, Barb!!

MARTIN GLENDINNING: School was a hazardous place for "Squint", since falling down the same staircase twice in one day was one of his worst memories. Maybe that's why he never arrives to school until 9:15 (a.m. or p.m.?). "Be careful," he says, "you might learn something if you're not."

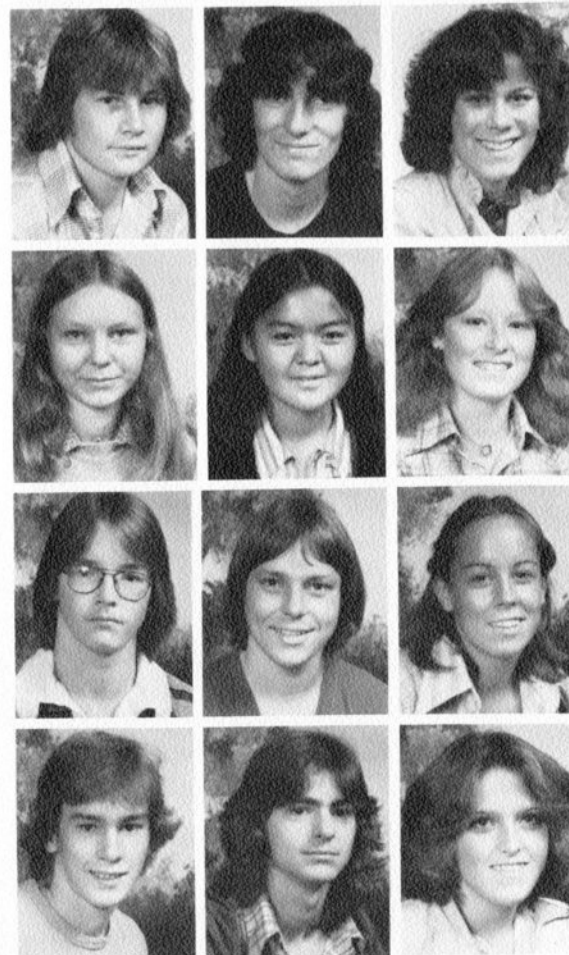

LESLIE GODO: Leslie is fond of rowdiness and smoke shows. Being an ambitious young man, he plans to blow up the principal's office and shave E.J.'s beard. He hated going to Mr. L's office but the poppy he came out with was worth it. He sagely passes on: "Avoid all teachers."

BARB GORDON: Barb's "Mission Impossible" is to become an accountant without working and waking up. Her best moments were her skiing trips. She warns people not to take Physics 12, because it's so much phun?? Are you awake, Barb?

DON GRAHAM: "Disco Don's" worst memory of Vic High was being called a "sissy" by Mr. S. His ambitions are to become a lawyer to help out some of his friends.

MARLON GREEN: Vic High has yet another case of questionnaire phobia.

PAULA GRIMSHAW: Paula is keeping her activities under wraps.

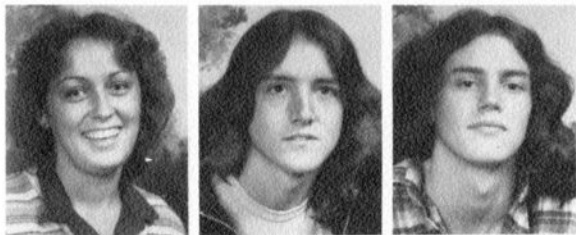

MARC GAUDET: Marc is planning to continue his education at university. He was known for playing soccer on the tennis courts. Naturally, his worst moment was getting slashed on the shins by a hockey stick held by a certain "Crazy". He says, "Don't skip out." Why not?

KELLY GLOVER: "Tiny" wants to remain happy. He dislikes Double Export papers and commercial grass. His best memory of Vic High is actually being accepted into the school! His worst is of the first day of roadruns. Kelly feels that "If ya can't roll, buy zig zags or riz-zo."

GRANT GRAY: Grant flew the coop early this year.

MARSHA GREY: "Mars" hasn't decided what she wants to do yet but being inquisitive is her best sport. Her last words are, "Just never mind listening and you'll be sure to do it twice."

KIM GUY: Kim didn't tell us much but we do know that she wants the morning assemblies to be longer. Kim seems to have enjoyed the nine day hoot party to California with the band last year. Go for it, Kim!

BILL HAIRE: "Babbling Bill" won't stop talking, especially about "chicks and Fridays". We should have interviewed him cause his questionnaire said very little. It did say that he wants to be a rock and roller and that Mr. P. is a joke. P.S. We did the best we could.

BOB HAIRE: Bob played on the Titan's rugby team this year. We know he has something against handing in grad questionnaires . . . 'cause we didn't receive one!!

MIKE HAISELL: All Mikey wants to do is relax and play music. Sounds alright! Mike said a lot of great things on his questionnaire but he mainly stated, "Teachers and some people too, often are not open enough to new ideas and insist on playing the same old game . . . for tradition's sake!! Well said, Mike!!

MARK HALIDAY: "Crazy," who got his name from playing street hockey, wants to become a parks manager. An active member of the curling team, Mark feels there is a lack of communication between students and staff.

ADA HALL: Ada's friends told us that she drives a mustang. That's it.

ALAN HALL: Alan indicated rather strongly that he hates school. The classes are boring and having Mr. F. for English is a definite no-no! He is looking forward to getting out for the summer and staying away forever.

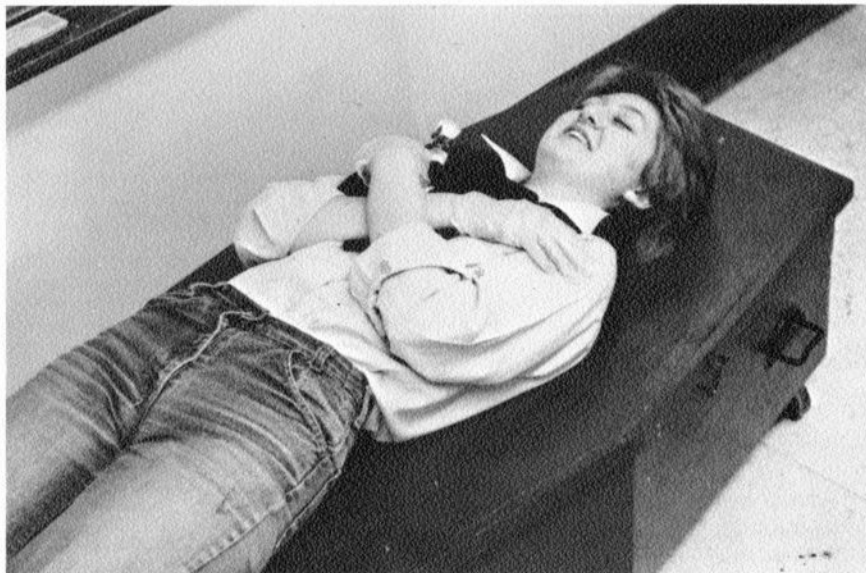

TONY HAMILTON: "Bogey" says his nickname is significant because of his gorgeous body . . . when the light hits him at a certain angle. His future plan is to hang up a giant bra and say, "Thanks for your support!" You can now say that, yes, Anthony Hamilton went to this school!! "Oh wow, did he really?!"

TRACY HAMILTON: "Twace" is planning to travel after she grads. We'll probably remember her for her absences. She dislikes getting up in the morning and her worst moment is running into the teacher whose class she skipped out of!

A triple decker anyone?

Dead stiff?

Bored stiff.

SUSAN HANEVELD: Sue is planning to be a good wife, mother and friend in the coming years. The thing that bothers her about school is that people are run by the hands of a clock. Her words of warning are: "Get yourself in shape for the stairs."

DARLENE HANSEN: Nicknamed "Dar", she hates attending school between 8:45 and 3:10 and trying to live with life. She likes making friends and was embarrassed when her stomach growled in Shorthand. She wants to be the first to own a D.J.'s Unisex Hairstylist.

HEATHER HANSON: Heather is called "Sunshine" because of her tendency to smile. Her future holds the dream of someday being an accountant. Heather warns the people following her to stay far behind because they could suffer a concussion if she stops suddenly.

DANETTE HARBAR: Europe, look out, you're going to be hit by a soft spoken, poetry loving girl who's always trippin' 'round and can't do the splits when necessary. Danette is one of the many bothered by the lack of heat in the school. We hope you keep on "getting by".

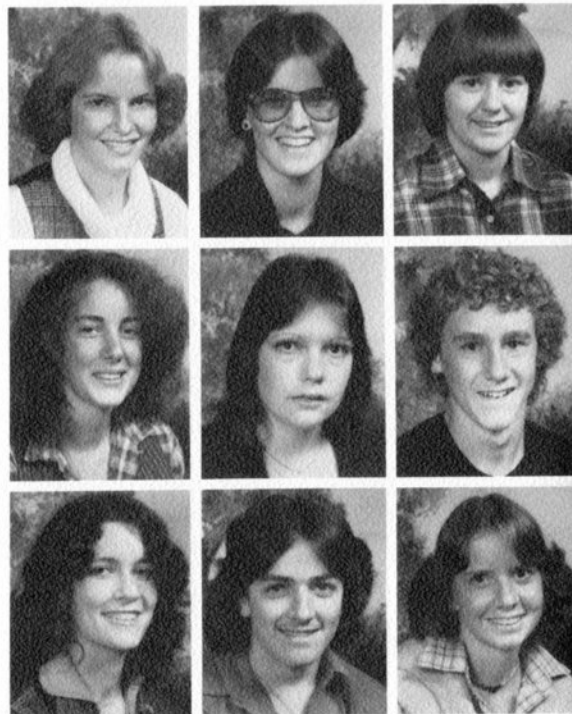

LIZ HARRISON: Liz, like a few grade twelves, didn't fill in a questionnaire.

JIM HARTNELL: "Woodstock" hopes to eventually meet Snoopy! and would like to see 8:45 classes cancelled. Best moment was participating in the "Nanaimo Hotbox" and his worst was coming from P.P.'s car and finding the Munchout bar closed!! (That's life, Driftwood.)

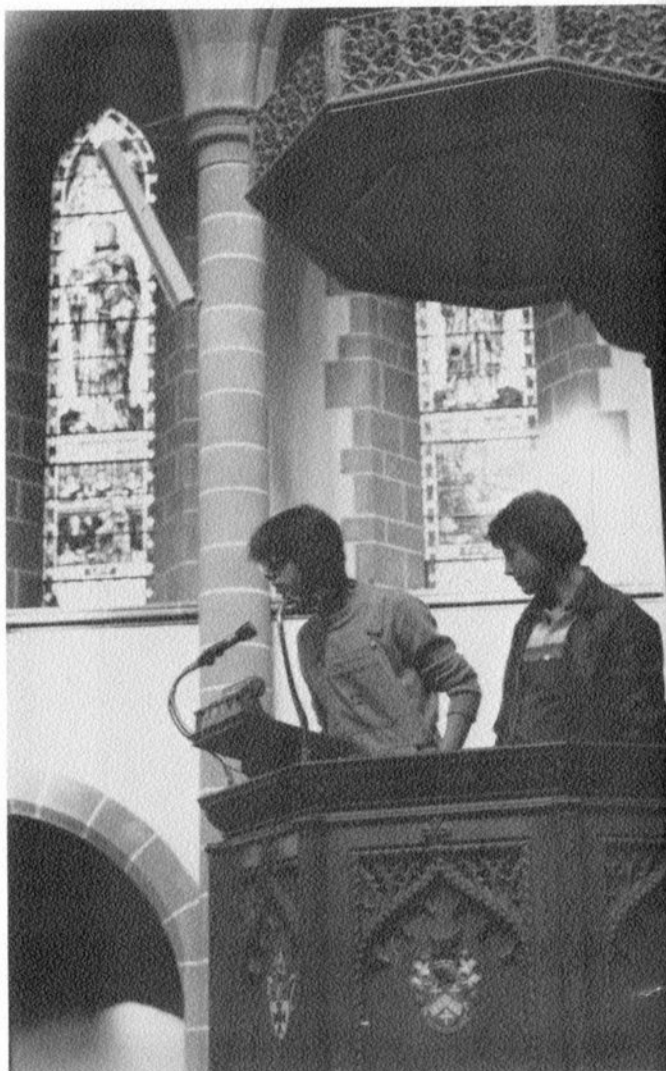

JANET HARVEY: Janet likes a little drinking, and if that doesn't work she says she'll just go to pot. Facing 1200 idiots in the morning isn't exactly her ballgame. She warns others, "Go to Oak Bay!"

ARTHUR HEALE: We did some spying and found there was nothing written by Arthur's name when he was in Grade 10. We thought we'd do a repeat of that memorable event.

CAROLYN HENLEY: "What am I planning for the world? Me, of course!" says Carolyn. It sounds like she'll be doing something different than becoming a nun and getting pregnant as she did on Halloween. Well, have fun Carolyn and remember to keep up the giggling!

Betty Cawker, homemaker.

"Can you hear me God?"

Butter . . . Parkay . . . Butter . . .

"Please? Can I? Pretty please?"

SOREN HENRICH: This ambitious artist will be seen leading a contented life in Europe. Soren has a hatred for the "macho men" and "discos" of the world as well as jocks, assemblies during spares, peer pressure, graffiti . . . he could go on and on and on . . .

LORI HICKSON: "Hicky" hates homework, tests, mouthy people and arguments. After graduation she plans to publish her book and its sequel, then visit the pyramids in Egypt. Her worst memory is getting up for all those mornings.

MIKE HLECK: Another mystery of Vic High, Mike is one of the members of the, "I forgot to hand in my questionnaire" club.

DEBBIE HOBDEN: "Blondie" plans to travel to Toronto to study fashion designing and to get married. She informs us that she would rather be working in a really exciting place than having to go to school. Her departing words are, "Get into Mr. K.'s English class."

DIANE HOLFORD: "Diney" would like to work with juvenile delinquents because she's been in their shoes. She loves rowdiness and that is why riot squads that break up good parties bother her. Her best memory of Vic High is the last day.

JIM HOLMES: "Sherlock" would like to win his first million before he's 30. Snapping one-liners in Mr. B's grade 11 math class was a gas, while handing in a messy questionnaire was annoying to us. (You should have seen it!) He warns us, "Don't meet a certain P.B. if you know what's good for you!"

ROB HOOVER: "Disco" had his questionnaire filled out by the Auto Shop. Usually people fill out questionnaires, Rob! He wants to boogie like John Travolta and get a hair cut and says, there is never enough disco. He tells us, "Disco rules the world."

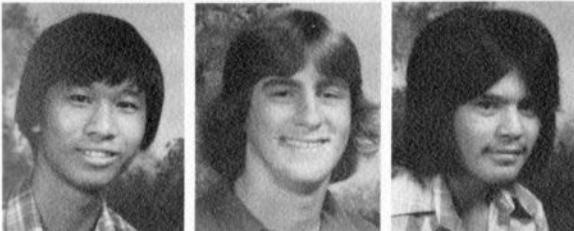

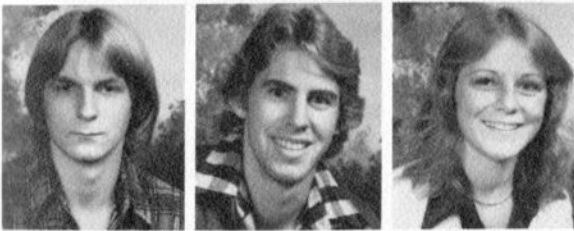

DAVE HOWE: A couple of your friends answered a few questions for you, Dave. The best of the answers were that you are known as, "God's gift to women."

RITA HUOT: Look for a disco and you will find Rita. She is known as "Disco Chick".

TIMOTHY IP: When Timothy graduates he hopes to become rich so that he does not have to work. Since he hates attending classes his best moments at school are at 12:00 p.m. and 3:10 p.m. every day.

HERB ISHERWOOD: Herb does not like getting too much work and he feels that if you don't like it, complain. A good example is homework. He also feels that teachers should not be able to run a class as much as they do. Keep up that fighting spirit!

TOM ISAAC: Tom plans to go into carpentry or iron working when he graduates. He enjoys life. His best moment at Vic High was meeting a new friend. Tom is always seen but never heard.

TERRY HARRIS: Terry was a member of the Totems this year and last. He added power to the Block G- CR 12 class by serving the volleyball out of the court (most of the time).

KEN HESKIN: Ken is one of the famed guitar players of our era. That's all we know!

RICHARD HARTLEY

TERRI HOWDEN

CAROLYN HOYDAL

ED JACKSON: Ed plans to become a diesel mechanic after graduating. He has enjoyed his time at Vic High by becoming involved in cross country, track and student parliament.

DERRICK JACKSTEIT: "Bernd" wants to become an electronic technician. He is always on time and feels that the teachers he's taught by are above average. He just wants to say "Life is too short and school is too long, don't get yourself into trouble."

MATT JAMES: Like us all, "Muzz" wants to make lots of money . . . by winning that ol' lottery. He leads a terrific life of going to wrong classes and running over crows! He listens to some girls in the Strato!, and tells everyone to, "Go for the Gold," and "Keep on Hootin'."

BUNCY JOHL: "Bucky" plans to get rich by opening his own brewery. How original! Like most people school was not one of his favourite things. His worst moment was getting stopped in the hallway by teachers and being asked if he was presently attending Vic. High.

BARB JOHNSON: After graduating, "B.J." plans to do everything and anything (or is that the other way around?). Vic High will remember her for her crazy sense of humour. She hates the stairs at school and the sore feet. Her final words are, "That's life."

CHARLENE JOHNSTON: "Char" didn't want to reveal too much to our Camosun writers. But what we do know is that she disliked homework, teachers, and getting up in the morning for school. The feeling is mutual! She plans to work after graduating.

SANDRA JOHNSTON: Sandra hopes one day to own a farm where she can raise Arabian horses. She is bothered by uncaring, unfeeling people and the lack of communication and understanding in the world. She hopes that people will learn to be more open minded. Right on, Sandra!

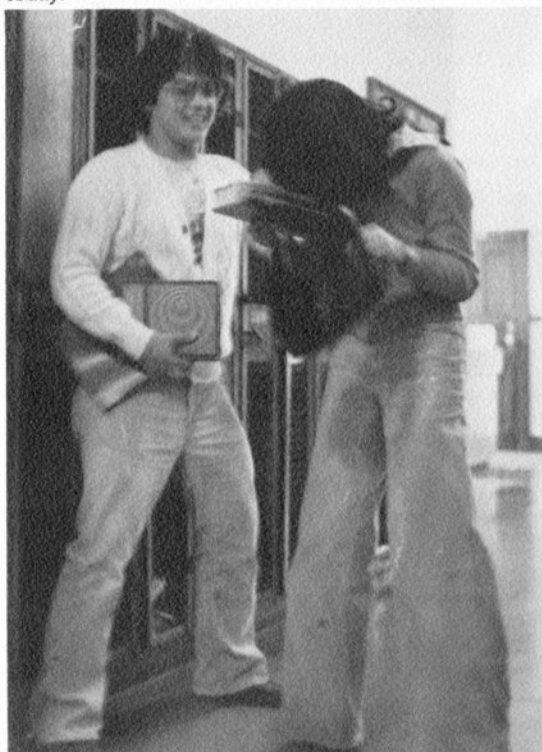

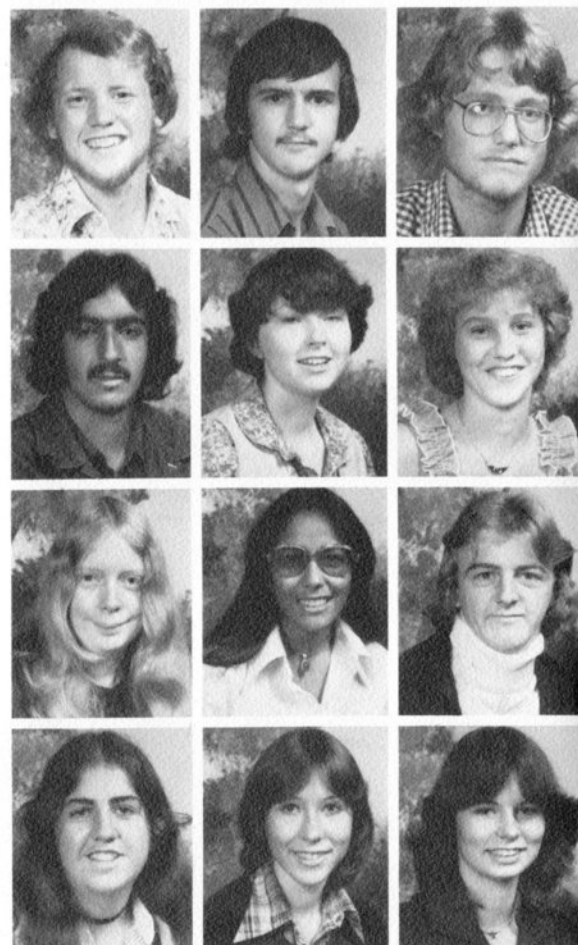

PAMMI KALOTI: "Mickies" wants to be a cashier (such ambition). She says the greatest thing about school is that all the people are so nice. She wishes (like all of us) that we only had to go to school for seven months instead of ten.

ROB KAYE: Rob says he will be remembered for all the trouble they said he caused in hallway No. 2. His best moment this year was getting 11 shutouts in a row in soccer. Rob's parting words are, "If you plan causing trouble in hallways, don't stick around to see what happens."

MARGERY KEMSLEY: In the future, "Gery" plans to "Drop out of society, retaining only the good things that are important." What good things, Gery? She wants the undergrads to, "Keep on smiling, especially when you just said something stupid." Also, "Avoid boring teachers."

CAROL KENDRICK: After grad Carol plans to go into nursing and also travel. But before leaving good ol' Vic. High she leaves these words of wisdom, "This is your last year so enjoy it."

ROSALIND KENNEDY: "Roz" plans to become the first female motorcycle cop in Victoria. She hates getting up early in the morning for school and not being able to find an important homework assignment. In parting she says, "Don't let yesterday use too much of today."

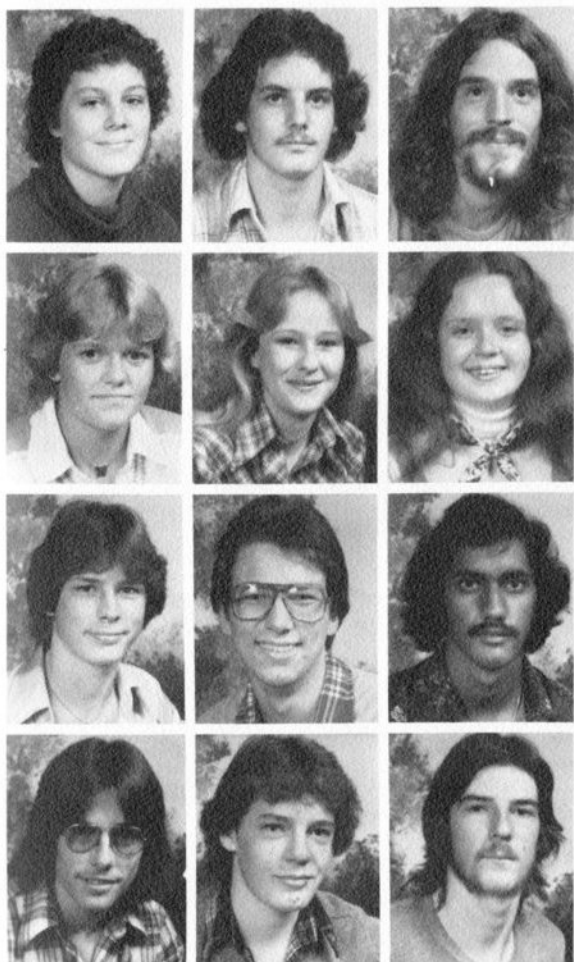

She's just a little shy.

This is a stick out!

Student commuters.

DEBBIE KERR: "Deke" will be the first travelling bum ever to teach P.E. (Do lessons in vocal exercise in the change room count?) This year Debbie has devised some ingenious ways of skipping classes. We know she loved Hawaii but we can't understand why anyone would want to spend a week in the Jubilee.

RICH KERR: Sir "Beer Belly" told us that he wants to become an Automotive Mechanic. He won't be remembered at school because he never comes and is bothered with going to all other classes except Auto. Rich reminds us that, "If you don't plan to make it thru gr. 12, carry a case of Blue."

STEVE KERSTEIN: All Steve did this year was roam the halls and go to an occasional class. What can we say?

WENDY KILGORE: When asked what she would do with her future, Wendy drew a blank. (We're not kidding.) She is bothered by "The lack of freedom and the lack of communication between teachers and students." She meekly states: "Bug the h__l out of all your teachers."

DONNA KILLIAN: Donna hates getting caught doing things wrong. She was utterly embarrassed when she fell down the stairs, but was pleased to know that she passed a few tests. She hopes to be a secretary and says, "Get your work done; don't be like me and not do it."

LAURA KING: "Red" will be remembered by many innocent souls as the pressuring editor of the Timepiece. She did not have a liking to oral presentations in English or in French (pourquoi est-ce que?). Red's final words are, "Get involved. Time flies when you're having fun." Sound familiar?

CALLUM KIRKER: Another unsolved mystery!!

TRACE KLASSEN: Trace is known as "Big Bird" for various reasons. He thinks that teachers are a drag and that they don't teach enough about life in school. This future astronomer would like to be recognized for his great debates with Mr. N.

DARSHAN KLEAR: Darshan feels that he won't be remembered for much... but we know better. His ambition to become someone great, is hampered by the fact that in school, "you try so hard but it gets you very little." To those following him he profoundly states, "Don't take the teachers seriously."

TERRY KLEIN: "Klink" wants to be a millionaire bachelor ruling the forestry world. He'll be remembered for his kalm, kool, sophisticated personality and his rotten spelling. His words of wisdom are, "Always wear tight shorts while running cross country."

DAVID KNAPP-FISHER: Being held by his ankles from the fourth floor isn't Dave's idea of fun. Nor are boring teachers. He leaves us saying, "Darth Vader lives." May the force be with you, Dave!

NORMAN KNOWLES: Despite his great attendance record Norman still doesn't like to get up in the morning. But honestly Norm, you don't have to travel around the world to escape filling out questionnaires or attending Tech 12. Why not try 8:30 in the morning?

DARREN JOHL: Darren couldn't be located for a questionnaire because he wasn't here long enough to fill one out! What can we say??

ROB KIPP: Known for never removing his leather jacket, Rob's best class was Mr. C.'s math class.

KERRY JORDON

KENNETH KING

CINDY KIMBERLY

MAUREEN JOHNSON

Touching Tut's "ba and ka" in Seattle.

ANN KNOX: Ann has set high ambitions for herself. Her plans are to get married. Her best moment will be when she graduates. Her final words are, "Good Luck." Good luck to you, Ann!

VESNA KOSAK: "Munchkin's" future plan is to become a legal secretary and to get better acquainted with B. S. One thing she dislikes is getting up in the morning. Vesna will be remembered for eating old Halloween candy in Law. Is that legal?

BEATE KROHN: All we found out about Beate was that if you look for D.G. you will find her.

TRIPAT KUMAR: "Kiran" (Sun's rays) may decide to take an accounting course in the near future. She is very quiet and feels school hours are too long. She will never forget the time she got pushed to the front of the photo-taking line when it wasn't even her T.C.G.'s turn.

WANDA KWAN: "Wunderbar" plans to become a successful hairdresser and hopes to be able to start a standard car on a hill. She was embarrassed when she tripped and fell in the library. She warns those who follow, "Don't step on any banana peels on the top of the fourth floor."

DAN LAKE: "Deek" was one of the louder members of "Ronny Rotten and the Bladder Back-ups" last year. Known for having iron lungs and hating to get up in the morning, he lets us know, "I'm glad I'm finished."

BRIAN LECKENBY: Brian kept telling us that he handed in a questionnaire but we never received it. He didn't bother giving us another one so there is not much we can say. Sorry, Brian!!

LAURA LEE: To Laura's relief she doesn't have a nickname. She could also live without seeing Mr. C. eating every time she walks into Biology. Her worst moment was not showing up for Bl. A only to find it was her spare. Oh well, you can't win 'em all.

WAI LAM LEE: Wai did not have too much to say except that he wants to go to either university or college and then to get a job. He did, however, show us how good he is at drawing straight lines on his questionnaire!

WALTER LEE: Walter plans to go to university to become a doctor. Everyone will remember him as the "Cream at the top" because he's always getting "creamed" at noon hour. His words of wisdom are: "There's a whole universe to grow upon; think hard."

CORRY LEMMEN: "Blondie" wants to travel to California and to have fun with S.M. Her worst memory of V.H.S. is having a certain Mr. H. for two classes. Attending is what bothers her most about school, especially between 8:30 and 3:10. She says: "Quit while you're ahead."

DEBBIE LEONARD: Upon completing grade 12 Debbie plans to travel around the world as much as possible before actually settling down. Like most people the lack of school spirit at Vic High bothers her.

"Stupid machine!"

Guy watchers.

JOHN LESMEISTER: John hopes to get into commercial advertising. He will be remembered for talking too much (everywhere except on his questionnaire). His parting shot to his fellow grads is, "Remember . . . even if you win the rat-race, you are still a rat."

TAMMY LIDICOAT: Tammy's future includes travelling around the world and making a nuisance of herself. She claims that the most annoying thing about school is having to come in the morning, and worse yet, having to come back after lunch. We know how you feel, Tammy.

YOLANDA LISSOWSKI: "Lundy" is one of the many liberated women. She wants to show men that women can be mechanics too. Yeh, Lundy! She admits that leaving Vic. High will be her worst memory and warns the undergrads, "When it's your last year, make the most of it."

ANDY LISTER: According to "List" annoyance is knowing that while you're having a great time at a party, you have all that homework to do. So true! In the future, he hopes to buy a big sailboat and cruise down to California. Happy sailing, mate!!

COLLEEN LOCKEN: One of the many "famous disco" regulars, Colleen has a habit of always losing one of her clogs.

JANET LORMIER: "Lorm" hated doing the squat thrusts in P.E. Reasons are unknown to us. As a member of the Tikis and Tigers, she loved getting days off for B.C.'s and tells us to, "Come to Vic High in Grade 10 and enjoy three great years!!"

JOANNE LOTT: We hear Joanne is planning on being a millionaire and to travel around the world forever. If she had a dollar for everyone of her unexplained absences, that dream could be a reality!

ED LOUIE: "Steady Eddie" is hoping to get an easy job that pays well. Others will remember him for his Zed that runs out of gas when he cruises by some girls. The four flights of stairs bother him the most about school. In parting he says, "Growing up ain't so bad."

EDWARD LOUIE: Edward plans to go to U.B.C. to become an architect. Nothing much bothers him with the exception of exams but he thinks highly of Vic. High's Mr. B. "He's the best teacher here!!!"

RAYMOND LOUIE: Another case of questionnaire phobia.

ALBERT LOW: Among other things, Albert will be remembered for trying to find a two-piece bikini. His best moments at Vic High were participating in school events. If he graduates, he plans to rebuild the world to his own tastes. (In your bikini, Albert?)

JACKSON LOW: After leading the year as Minister of Athletics, "Hop Sing's" future is to become an architect or draftsman. Known as Trouble No. 2, Jackson is bugged by having to work hard, though he quotes, "Work hard at all that you do and you will succeed."

ZOSIA LACZ
MARK LAROQUE

BRUCE KOBLEY: Upon completion of grade 12, Bruce, plans to break the world record for partying. If his attendance doesn't improve he may never graduate and then we'll never know if he could do it. His best/worst memory of Vic High is/are "class"?

PAM KOH: We made a mistake by asking Pam to hand in a grad questionnaire. Pam graduated from Vic High in 1968 and is only taking one class. Sorry about that, Pam!!

JOSEPH LAFRAMBOISE: "The Chopper King" wishes to travel across Canada on his motorcycle or go into the engine repair business. Joseph is known to drive British Motorcycles to school and work. His advice to future students of VHS are, "Never buy a Yamaha, and watch out for cops around the school."

MALCOLM LOGAN: Malcolm didn't bother with a questionnaire so we didn't bother with Malcolm!

MIKE LACROIX: Mike's plan for the future is to satisfy every woman. The students and staff of Vic High will remember him for walking the halls saying, "Go for it." He is bothered by a certain student teacher and he'll always recall those moments with H.W.

ALAN LOWE: Alan was our Prime Minister this year and was bothered by school apathy and the number of stairs VHS has. He hopes to retire at 30 and says, "Life cannot be any easier than now, so make the most of it." (Like Heck!!)

ELIZABETH LUBASZEWSKI: Lizzy plans to get rich and then travel, travel, travel. Getting up in the mornings to go to homeroom on the fourth floor and then tripping up the stairs was one of her downfalls. (Ha! Ha! Get it?) She says, "Quit while you're ahead because if you don't you'll regret it."

CORA LUETZEN: Cora plans to go to B.C.I.T. She will be remembered for always wearing her coat in block C. She hates Monday mornings. Her worst memory is getting a ticket for parking on Balmoral Street. Words of wisdom: "A wet bird never flies at night?"

RAY LUI: One of the countless grads that "forgot" to hand in a questionnaire.

TONY LUM: Tony hopes to graduate this year. Good Luck, Tony.

ED LUM: "Cobra-Boy" is planning on being a heavy duty machinist. People know him at school by his car, a Cobra of course.

GEORGE LUM: "Rocky" had some friends fill out his questionnaire. They said that he wants to learn to dress himself and will never forget J.M. vomiting in English class!! You have a nice bunch of friends, George!

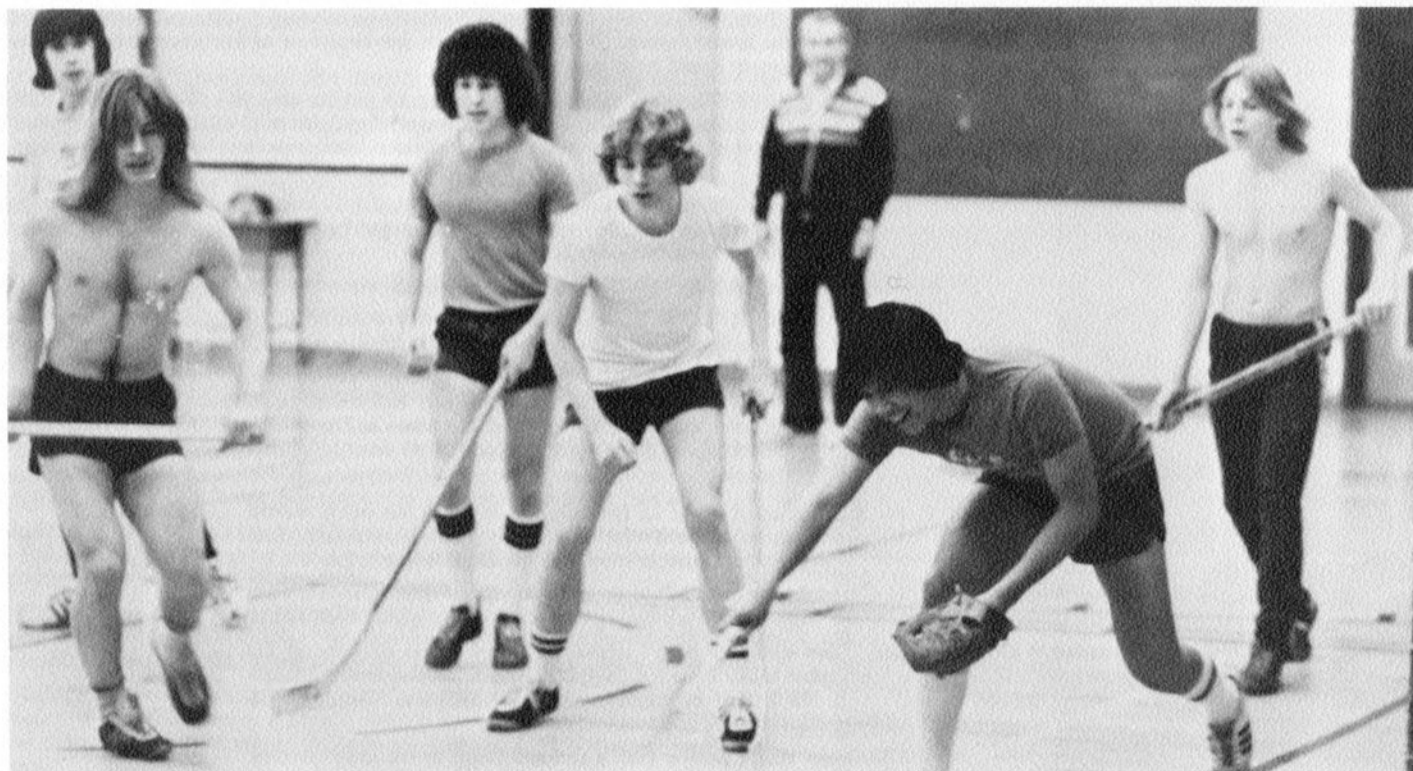

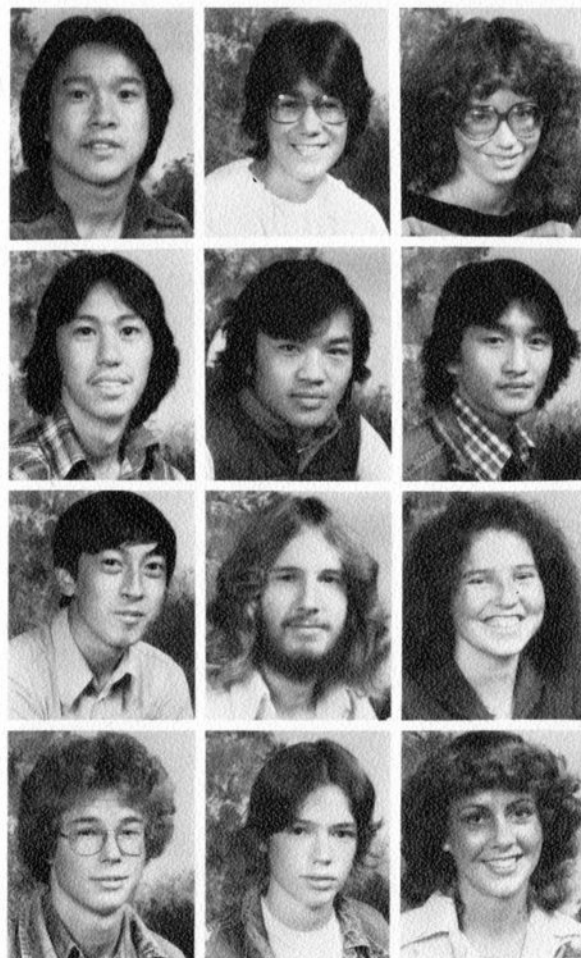

DAVE LUND: If you run into a guy riding a Harley Davidson somewhere in the U.S.A. it might be Dave. He has discovered that early morning assemblies don't turn him on. He would have enjoyed a few exciting lunch hours but is hoping that grad. will make up for all the boring ones.

CATHERINE LYLE: Loved your "glowing-red Santa sneakers" Cass. Hope you find happiness in points East and great success with your art work. We're sorry we bothered you with our midcalf length socks and we apologize for borrowing your "Boogie avec Bogart". We remember the eyes do have it!

GENE LYNE: Noted for just "hanging out", Gene says he has lungs of iron!! His favourite time of the week ... weekends ... of course!!

TERRY MacCARTNEY: Are you related to Paul in any way, Terry?

ANNE MacDONALD: Anne plans to travel, work, and become a professional tennis player. She's quite bothered about school spirit, but puts in her share by playing basketball. Yeah, Anne!! She recommends to all to enjoy school and try to make the most out of it.

Skins win!

"I'll see you and raise you two milks."

IAN MACKAY: Ian dislikes jocks and rednecks. He would love to work for the government and make lots of money. He has a tendency to be late and warns, "Don't get caught skipping out at the beginning of the year."

CAROL MacKINNON: Carol would have wanted to start a protest march against mixed grades in T.C.G.'s. She would like to be remembered for clumsily falling from the 4th to the 3rd floor. Before settling down and starting a career, she would like to travel.

RACHAEL MacMILLAN: "Mom" wants to be remembered for wearing co-ordinating P.E. strip. She wants to travel and then return and pursue a career. She tells us, "Just remember that school is what you make it, and if you have a lousy year you've made it that way."

NIKKI MARIOS: Nikki plans to come back and razz all the future grads. The things that bother her the most are the 72 stairs from the first floor to the fourth. Nikki's worst moment was accidentally calling Mr. S. "sweetie." In parting, "never call Mr. S. sweetie."

PATRICIA MARSHALL: Besides band trips and cheerleading, Trish likes: Mickey Mouse, bran muffins, sick jokes, junky lockers, and funny people. She doesn't enjoy chlorine and most people will remember her super spirit and her famous Tupperware salad lunches.

CHERYL MARTIN: Many people could say a lot about Cheryl — unfortunately we didn't meet those people.

FRANK MAYELL: Frank was too shy to hand in a questionnaire.

NEIL McALEESE: "Red", or known earlier in his school days as "Flame", dislikes homework but knows it's a necessary evil! He's planning to go to technical school but he's not sure and he mentions we won't remember him for anything. "Get involved . . . have a great year."

WE DIDN'T HAVE A THING
TO WEAR!

WAYNE MALLETT: Whenever we saw Wayne, he was just wandering the halls with his hands in his pockets, too busy to give us any information.

KAREN MARRS: Karen hails from Ottawa, Ontario and plans to return there after finishing school this year. It should be said that she loves Victoria and V.H.S. (poor kid). Getting up in the morning bothers her especially if it's for school.

IVAN MATKOVIC: After grad "Kentucky" (that wild and crazy guy) would like to further his career in the music field. "Rovinovich" was happy to report that he had no bad moments at Vic. High.

CRYSTAL McCOLL: "Tweety" wishes to travel to Hawaii and to have fun after graduation. Her plans also include becoming a secretary. She feels that exams put a big damper on Christmas and parts with these words, "Don't give up in your last year of education. It's all worthwhile."

JEFF McINNES: Jeff wants to travel to Europe for a year. He's best known for his early morning red eyes. He dislikes school but likes the excellent shops we have. He says, "Make sure you know what you're getting yourself into."

ROBIN McKNIGHT: "Tex" plans to "get famous". Strange, we thought he already was. Well, maybe it's just his car, "The Highboy". With a car like that you can't help but be famous.

SHERRIE McKNIGHT: Sherrie's nickname is "Smiley". She plans to work for two or three years after graduating and then travel, hopefully meeting Mr. Right. She hates getting up in the morning and her favorite memory of Vic High is graduating.

KEN McLEAN: "Scottie" plans to become rich after he leaves Vic High. His worst moment was being early for class and not skipping out for a whole week! Shame on you! Because he feels that school is a drag he is always coming late.

GABE MELIZZA: Gabe wants to get out of Victoria so he can travel in his car. He can't figure out why he passed after missing one-third of the morning classes last year. Also, "just be yourself towards teachers."

CATHAY MENU: Another unsolved mystery!!

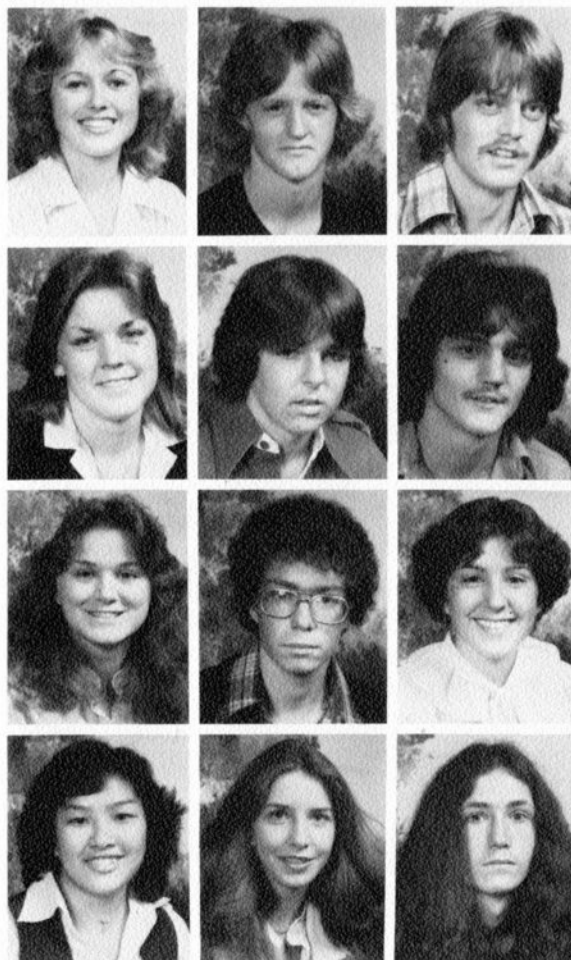

RON MERNER: "Jock" was bothered by the lack of publicity for track and cross country and by poetry with Mrs. D. He hopes one day to be on top of the pile in the computer world. He advises: "If you want to make the honour roll don't take Mr. L. for S.S."

CATHERINE MERRITT: Catherine "the Great" wants to go to university and learn something; anything! We'll remember her for her straight "A's" and her cheerfulness. Catherine detests exams, projects, exams, homework, exams . . . She tells us to laugh at Mr. W.'s jokes.

NANCY MEW: "Granny Nan" plans to scan Canadian lands. Think you can remember your way? For all we know, you may end up in the North Pole. Nan does, however, have the determination it takes. Anyone who would hike up four flights of stairs three times a day has got to be "up" to something!

SHERRI MICHALENKO: Sherri would probably break in half very easily. She is always breaking arms and legs. Also, she may be heard of but never seen.

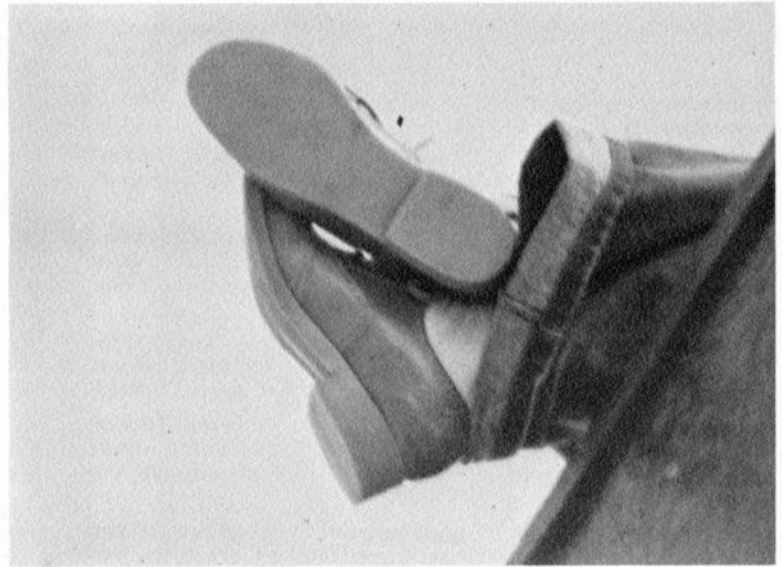

JOE MILDENBERGER: Joe didn't have much to say. He doesn't know what he wants to do after he graduates. School pressure bothers him a lot and he says to, "do all your homework and study hard for exams." (He learned the hard way about not studying for exams.)

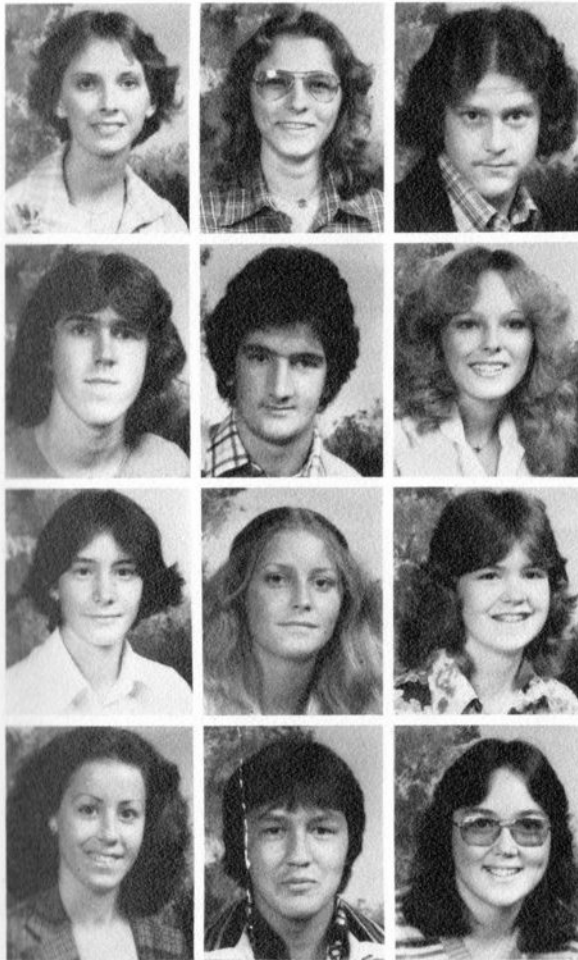

"Me? A package extra?"

"How's life on the other side of the fence?"

"Oh nothing new. I'm still a sole man."

TRACY MILES: Hidden among Tracy's endless list of worst moments were curling bonspiels and walking into doors. (Guess you didn't get a "big bang" out of that!) She will be remembered for being the only frog with glasses and for having her "cuppa tea" in Room 410. Her advice to the undergrads is, "Don't follow me, I'm lost too!"

JOANNE MILJOUR: "Mo-Jo" would like to take up Chinese cooking and accounting after graduation. Her pet peeves include climbing to the fourth floor after mechanics, her fighting brother and her sister. Keep smiling in the hallways, Joanne.

ROY MILLER: "Mr. V.W." plans to own Speedway Motors and then to retire after he has built the fastest Bug. He is well known for his famous school shaking experiments and his burnouts. Roy cannot accept the fact that not everybody owns a V.W. and suggests, "Buy a Volkswagon and get some class."

JIM MOCKFORD: Jim warns, "Getting up in the morning is a drag, the lunch hours are boring and don't drink the water." He hopes to be employed in the future although no indication of what he hopes to go into is given. Oh well, good luck anyhow, Jim.

DENIS MOREAU: Direct quote: "Allo! My nickname is 'Snoopy'. I'm from Fermont, New Quebec. What bothers me about school and life in Victoria, its my English. Later I want to be a draftsman. I'm really enjoying being in Victoria."

MICHELE MORRIS: "Mitch's" ambition is to be a model and marry into a rich family. She was known for her frequent "liquid lunches" and rowdiness at soccer games. Michele would have liked to see the cafeteria with a liquor license. She tells everyone to feel free to skip out at any time.

ROBERTA MORRIS: "Bobbie" will be remembered for never giving an oral answer in all her time at Vic High. She says to future students, "Get your homework done; you've come this far and there's no use stopping now."

JULIE MULLENS: "Snow White" is going to be a dedicated, unemployed bum. Disco chicks bother Julie the most. Her most embarrassing moment at Vic High was when she discovered she was wearing her shirt inside out.

CHRISTINE MURRAY: Stairs may bother you, Chris, but don't feel bad; how else could one get to the top? After grad Chris plans to go to university, travel around the world and work with children. Her best memories of V.H.S. are the California band trip and the Circus of '77.

ANN MUSSETT: Ann seems to be bothered a lot by men. We hope that they will not interfere in her pursuit of a career as a physiotherapist. Her parting words are: "Remember to work and study hard, for all of this you'll not be marred, in the springtime you'll find bliss, and will be free from all of this."

ARTHUR NAPOLEON: "Jo-Knox" wants to finish building his time machine, then return to the 17th century as a philosopher. His worst moment was tripping over the centre line of the basketball court during a game.

BONNIE NELSON: Bonnie chose not to tell us much about herself except that after graduation she hopes to travel. Oh well, that's better than nothing.

DAVID McDOUGALL: "Chief" spent the first part of the year on his back on the soccer field and perhaps the second avoiding his English class. He looks forward to owning his very own T.P. His worst memory is the "Nanaimo Hot Box".

TOM MOLNAR: "Boner's" favourite pastime was girls in tight pants. For reasons unknown to us, Tom was voted the boy most likely not to succeed. We wish him the best in his future endeavours if he ever makes it out of Vic. High. He'll need it!

BOB MUNRO: Bob rides his motorcycle and fixes his motorcycle. That's all he does!!

BARBARA McDONNELL

MICHAEL MEECHAN

JANICE NELSON: "Big Blue" plans to work hard, have a nice home and live in class. Getting hassled by a teacher for skipping out (Janice!) bothered her the most about school. Worst moment at Vic High was climbing to the 4th floor. Last words, "Get through as fast as you can."

DREW NEUFIELD: When "Tex" leaves V.H.S. to revolutionize the world, memories of his vandalism will remain. He dislikes teachers and when asked for any words of wisdom, he says a mere, "Don't come!"

GRAHAM NEWBERRY: "Newbs" loud hoot is his most unforgettable characteristic. Like so many others he has difficulty attending classes. Graham has invented a new school motto which he encourages all to use: "Vic High is always high." Good luck on grad night Graham.

LENA NGAI: Hop-a-long would like to travel across Europe and go to college. She hopes people will remember her for extreme intelligence and admirable personality. Volleyball is great; especially the tournaments. (You get a few days off school!)

BRUCE NIELSON: "Bruce-Bob" wants to become the next dictator of the world. He dislikes short people, teachers, round ball players and normal mushrooms. Strange! Bruce will never forget falling down the front stairs. His final words are, "Never trust a smiling P.E. teacher."

DEBORAH NIP: Debbie's future includes going to university or becoming a secretary. She is bothered by the fact that she is getting older as each day passes. It can't be all that bad.

MANJIT NIRWAN: Manjit or "Rano", as some people call her, plans to become a registered nurse. She comes from England and says her worst memory was Sept./78, her first time in a Canadian school. Hope you like it here, Manjit, and good luck with your future plans.

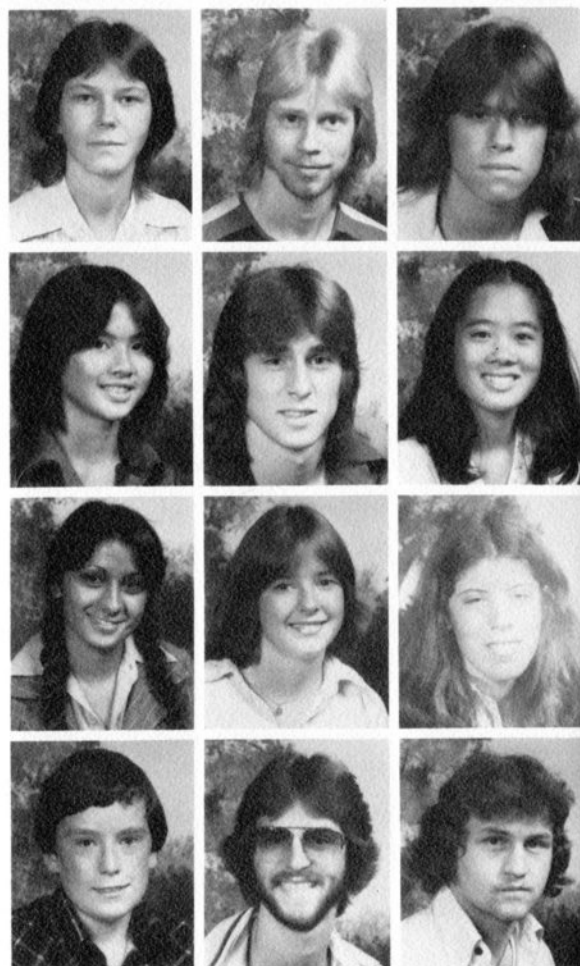

CATHY NOREEN: In Cathy's own words, "Toyotas are numero uno", especially her own named "Woah". She plans to become a commercial artist in the future and would like to see more three-day weekends. She will be remembered for having short friends.

MAUREEN O'DONNELL: "Moe" just hated 65 minute classes and registering 3 days before school started. Noted for her silence, she says, "There's an ignorance on part of many people about bad habits in life." (She knows what she means!)

ED ORD: When Ed leaves to become an engineer, he will be remembered for (get this!) playing soccer with a tennis ball on the tennis courts. Ed is bothered by the way Vic High gives first priority to sports over academics.

MARK ORD: "Beardo" hopes to go to Campbell River to become a fishing guide. You'll always find him in the gym at lunch dribbling (a basketball). Accounting and getting old really bugs him. "If you don't want to get caught skipping out, go to Pat's Place."

STEVE ORMOND: It seems that filling out grad questionnaires isn't one of Steve's favourite pastimes. He also expresses a dislike for Mondays to Fridays except when they're holidays. In the future look for Steve at a bar ... bartending of course. Well, cheers ... burp.

Vic High's entires to the Vadefest '79.

"The Music Box."

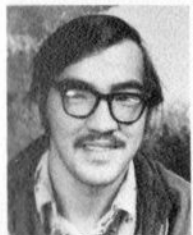

"Kendo."

PAT OSBORNE: Patty plans to travel the world if she ever gets out of school. Students and staff will remember her for nothing except coming to class. Her pet peeves are climbing up stairs and having more than one S.D.

JOHN O'TOOLE: This ambitious fellow plans to become a rock and roll star, world dictator, or an electrician. Why not all three? He hates being "put down" by teachers and learning useless "junk". John's words of wisdom are: "Take your study in block F."

DOUG OTTENBREIT: When "Hop-along" graduates this time, he plans to become a writer or a journalist for a local newspaper. He hates the four flights of stairs to Room 410 and the chair in that room which so rudely flipped him over. Doug says, "Don't skip out or you'll blow it."

DOROTHY OWSIANIK: "Dot" or "North Saanich" was a C-FAX reporter and is known for being KRAZEE!! She loves sick jokes, laughing, and "the gang". Her life revolved around writing grad ques'aires and she tells us, "Titans Rugby is no. ONE!!" and that, "life goes on."

TED PACKFORD: Ted will be the first person to swim around the world. He might be remembered for being here physically but not mentally. "Block C studies are great." (Just ask M.J.) "School's great when you're not straight!" Keep on Hootin'!

EVELYN PAPAS: Ev hopes to get a job as a secretary. She is constantly forgetting her books; perhaps this explains why she rarely attends classes.

ROB PARKER: Standing in the rain for three hours taking pictures of a soccer game is not Rob's idea of fun. He can often be found searching the halls for spirited people. Rob is a member of an ever increasing group of students bothered by English classes with Mr. C.

SUSAN PARRISH: Susan was another "I fell down the stairs at Vic. High" member. Nothing annoyed her more than the rowdy "little boys" who destroyed the cafeteria at lunchtime.

WAYNE PARKER: Your friends told us that you are a nice guy, Wayne! The only other thing they told us was that you went to Lansdowne in your junior high years.

RON PEARCE: All Ron plans to do when he graduates is party. That's not much different to what he is doing now! He doesn't know what he'll be remembered for . . . possibly nothing. Lunch-hours are his favourite time of day.

LINDA PEARSON: Linda wants to travel around B.C. and Alta. in a tent this summer. VW's that don't back up bother her. The most embarrassing thing that happened to her was when her friends had to push her out of the lot because she couldn't back out.

VICKI PEARSON: "Wiki Wiki Moose" wants to travel, travel, travel and manage her own hockey club. She will be remembered for singing Christmas Carols in the change room all year round. She hates toilet paper that only comes off the roll one square at a time.

ANGELO PELUSO: "Jello" (!?!) is known for his kindness and consideration. He is interested in becoming a professional basketball player for the Sonics and says, "Keep up the school spirit. Participate in all sports — it's a gas."

RICK PHILLIPS: Rick plans to become a machinist. He will be remembered for always pigging out in classes. The thing he hates about school is attendance records. Future grads: "When in charge, ponder. When in trouble, delegate. When in doubt, mumble."

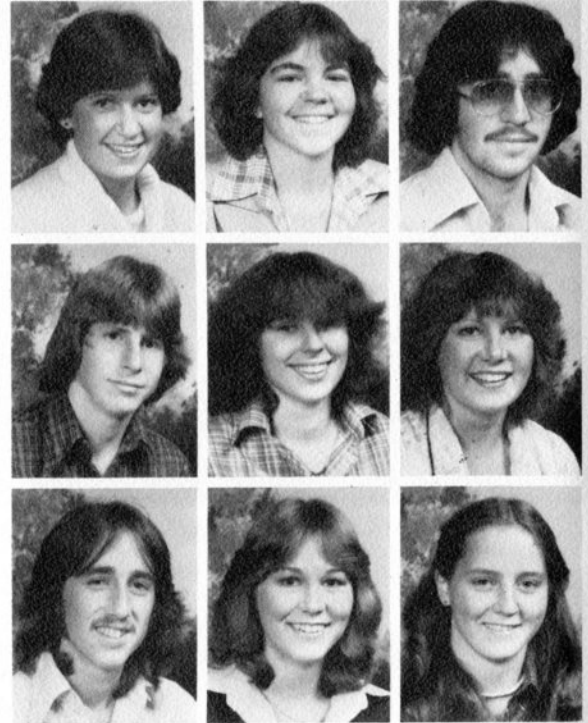

JULIE PICKFORD: "Small" plans to rule the world after she graduates and will leave behind a constant naturally high memory. She feels that the school is too cold so she dances with Mr. Higgs for warmth. She says, "Start the year off bad; that way you can only improve."

ANGIE PIETARINEN: Angie flew the coop this year. Good luck!

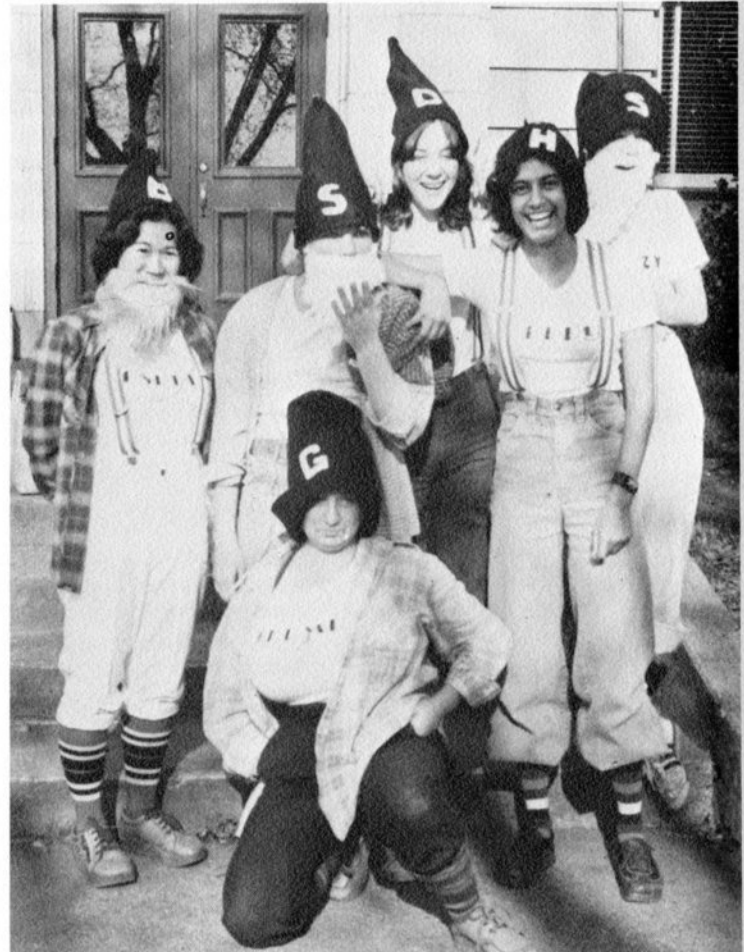

MARK PLETZ: Mark hopes to invent the world's first money tree! Good luck! He is best remembered for talking a lot. His worst moment at V.H.S. was receiving a 500 word essay after being absent. Failing a grade and selfish people both bother him. His final words are "Go for it; the worst is over!"

LAURA PONKKA: Laura does not know what she wants to do yet but since algebra is not one of her favourite subjects, we doubt her job will have anything to do with it. In parting she says, "Do unto others before they do unto you."

TAMMY PORISKY: Tammy would like to study art and become an interior decorator after graduation. She has already made a start by hanging her painting in the cafeteria for all to admire. She feels there are too many personal grudges between students. Keep trying to fulfill those dreams!

There's a new kid in town.

"Hey you guys, where's Doc?"

Ms. Kung Fu '79.

TERRI POTVIN: "Uncle Ter" is bothered by girls that gossip about other girls. She plans to own a play school and as her first act maybe she could give us all a repeat of her being turned upside down in the middle of the hall.

IRENE PRICE: No comment!!

DEAN PRITCHARD: Another case of questionnaire phobia.

GLEN PUGH: "Joe" wants to become a private detective. Most of his teachers will agree that he is very co-operative in class. Speaking of classes, it is the classes that bothers him the most. Of course, he will never forget the day he skipped out.

JIM PUNGENTE: "Gash's" definition for skipping out is, "being let out of last class on Friday afternoon for no apparent reason." (Ha! Ha!) He hopes to become an electrician and someday get ultimately fried. Good luck . . . we think, and don't forget to avoid line-ups at McDonalds!

LIBBY QUAN: "Beans" has plans to travel and to get a career in nursing. The thing that bothers her most about school is a lack of school spirit. Her worst moment was getting her face painted by an immature guy. All she has to say to future grads is, "Good luck."

MAY LILA QUAN: May plans to find a permanent job and to make herself rich and famous. Don't we all? She is bothered by school exams and life's ups and downs. Her worst moment was getting back a test and finding out she'd passed! (Huh?)

SANDY QUAN: "Sen" loved working on the yearbook and will be remembered as the fat midget in the Camosun show. After she suffers through school exams, fat, heavy textbooks, quiet libraries and counsellors, she WILL become a worldwide famous accountant.

ARTHUR RAMPON: Art wasn't partial to school. (Now that's unusual!) However, he will always recall L.L.'s unconstructive remarks in carpentry class. Art would like to visit Italy for one year and then return to Victoria as a carpenter.

JEET RANDAWA: We asked your cousin if she knew anything about you that we might print here . . . but she didn't!

SHARON RATCLIFFE: Sharon knew exactly what to do with her questionnaire: crumple it up; stain it yellow; and then write. (You had to be there!) She was one of the many who embarrassed themselves in Mr. C.'s Bi. 12 class and passes on the thought, "Treat your teachers like buddies; they love having buddies for students."

MICHAEL REBITT: Contrary to the popular expression, "write it don't say it," we think Michael would rather do the opposite. However, he tells us that he plans to do nothing for a few years and then win a lottery and retire for life. Hope you succeed, Michael!

ANNIE PERRY: Annie left VHS early this year.

AL PEIRCY: Al hasn't had any good or bad moments at Vic High, "cause I'm never here." He will be remembered for coming to Guidance with dirty hands. A good way to mark the cards, eh Al? Then there's the question, "What to do when I graduate?"

BRUCE PIKE: Good luck, Bruce, whoever you are.

PAOLA PINESE: "Dr. P.'s" main goal in life is to make a few million and have a huge hoot in her mansion. Paola wants to will all her friends the best of luck in the future years and to "Keep on hootin'." "P.P., J.F., and G.S., — thanks for all the great times."

SEAN POWERS: Sean plans to be a pilot AND musician! He did not enjoy being on time and suffering through 12 years of school. Sean will be remembered for his bad condition or red eyes. Have you ever tried Visine?

PAUL PYNN: The No. 1 hooter could be seen taking part in many inner and outer activities this year. All Paul wants to say to close is, "When you are down and old and grey, remember who you smoked up with that very fine day. And when that time comes to say goodbye, I'll see you all hootin' in that plantation in the sky."

Faster than a speeding bullet.

One's camera shy and the other one's weird.

LOREDANA REDA: Loredana came late in the year to Vic High and we didn't find out anything about her.

DORIS REICHLIN: Doris plans to keep partying after she grads. She says her absences are what she'll be remembered for. School and John seem to bother her. Her worst moment was falling down the main stairs and grabbing a guy's pant leg!!

DOUG RHOADES: Two things which didn't exactly thrill Doug were getting up in the morning to attend English and waiting for cafeteria closures to end. Like most folks, he hopes for success in whatever he tries and looks forward to terrific grad parties. Good luck, Doug!

ROBERT RICHARDS: "P.J." plans to build his own computer with a little help from his friends so that he can take over the world. He does not like having soccer and rugby practices at the same time especially in the rain and mud.

ANDREW RICHARDSON: For some strange reason, Andrew found school to be boring and life to be too complicated. Nevertheless he appreciates Mr. Johnston's simplification of Algebra. He plans to be building his way to an architectural profession and warns, "Don't take Physics."

DALE RICHARDSON: Dale plans to travel the world before making any decisions in life. His worst moments at VHS were Monday morning tests. The most bothersome thing to him about life is school. When asked what the students and staff would remember him for, he said, "they won't."

BARBARA RICHMOND: Barbara plans to get a job as a secretary and then get married. Bothered by cafeteria prices and jocks, Barb was most impressed by the Vic. High Circus.

HEATHER RITCHIE: Falling down the stairs on the way to class was Heather's most embarrassing moment. To her relief she survived this tragedy. Things which weren't Heather's idea of fun were homework and getting up in the morning. Her future includes work, money, and worldwide travel.

SANDY RITCHIE: Being one of the many hooters at VHS, Sandy is known for owning the first "hooter hat" and participating in parties at Albert Head. She would like to wish all her friends the best of luck and hopes to graduate with the best grads ever!

TERRY ROBERTSON: The ultra-violet rays from "Butch's" yellow ski jacket can be seen for miles. "He's a very lovable guy," says friends and isn't bothered by anyone or anything. He was a second year Titan this year and tells us to, "join the rugby team."

BRIAN ROBILLIARD: Brian plans to make it as an electronic technician. He's the camera bug with the brilliant flash that has blinded many of his fellow students and teachers alike.

GAIL ROBINSON: "Gabby Gail" wants to take up bookkeeping or hairdressing (to live up to her nickname). She has some rare words for her followers, "go to school, you'll enjoy it." (HUH?)

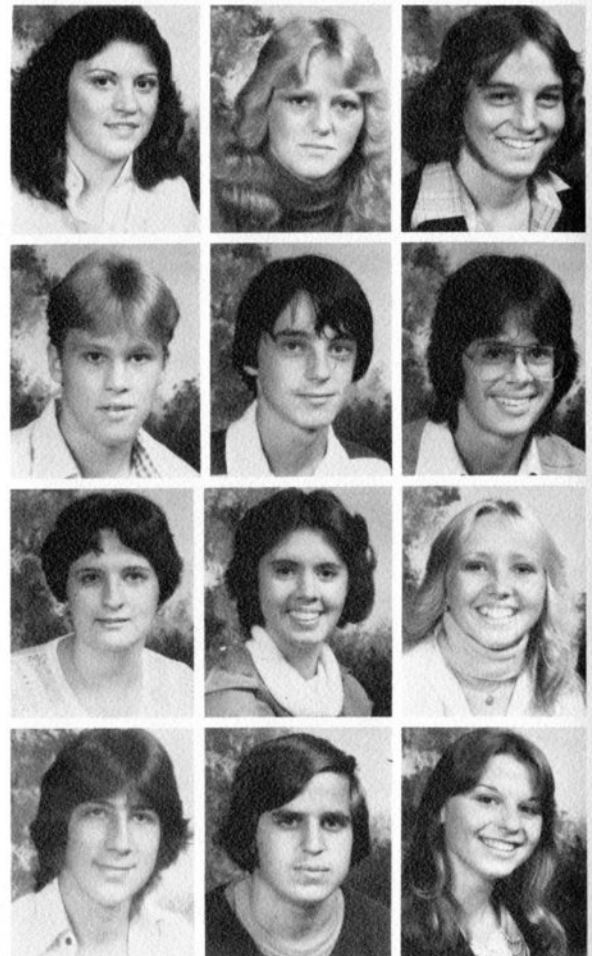

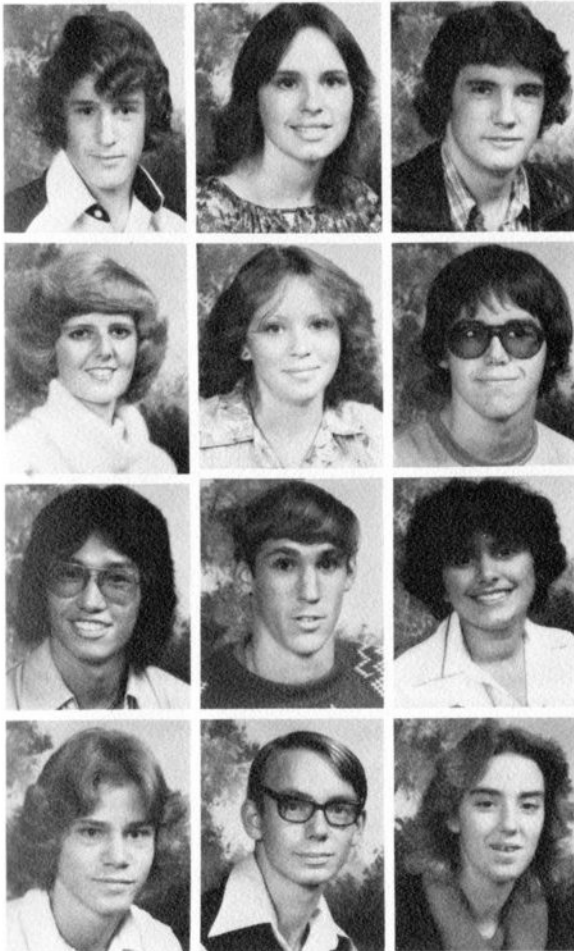

ANDREW ROOKER: "Blow out" will be remembered for his stupidity and burn outs behind the MS shops. He hates to get up in the morning but loves to drive to school in a 1960 Chrysler.

RON RUSSELL: The Camosun detective found out from a reliable "Hooter" that Ronny left school. We can't really say how reliable this source is!!

WAYNE RUSSELL: "Macho" as he is claimed to be called, will be remembered for his hoop bending tricks in the gym. Failing English 11 twice is one of his unpleasant memories of Vic High. He says, "Participate — get out and cheer for your teams."

SHAWN ROBINSON

MALCOLM ROSS: Malcolm's worst memories were tense moments in the metal shop. He plans to get rich (sounds familiar) and go on a trip to some exotic country or planet.

SHERYL ROUGH: "Rufus" aims to be a police officer and guard the lives of many. She is bothered by homework (aren't we all) and being underage. Her poetic words of wisdom are, "Live your life and live it fast, live it long 'cause it won't last."

GREG RUSHTON: All we got from "Rush" was that he plans to become a chef or a machinist. He will always remember his S.S. 11 test results and warns others "Don't mess around."

FERN RUSSELL: Fern will be remembered for being a fairy and a bird in grade 11. She wants to become a professional bum, travel for a while and then work for the tourist industry of B.C.

MIRANDA RUSSELL: In the future, Miranda wants to move to Outer Mongolia and start a toothpick factory! She'll be remembered for her absences and for being bothered by mosquitos. She really didn't have much to say!!

STEVE RUSSELL: Steve was unjustly named "Professor" by his peers. The "A" he got in auto just meant that Mr. S. is easily bribed. His tires seemed to do more smoking than the kids on the corner of Grant and Camosun.

GARY SAM: Maybe Gary bumped and spiked his questionnaire 'cause we never got it!

MICHAEL SANCASTER: In the future look for this dissatisfied person indulging in Life cereal. (Yummy) He will never be forgotten since he still owes us his activity fee. Did you plan this? Mikey says, "He who walks with nose in air cannot see banana skin on ground."

JANIK SANGARA: "Shorty" is bothered by the fear of failing. (Aren't we all?) Her most embarrassing moment was falling down the stairs but she is cheerfully saying, "Good luck everyone," and hopes to own a Mercedes Sports Coupe in the future. Look out! Varoom!

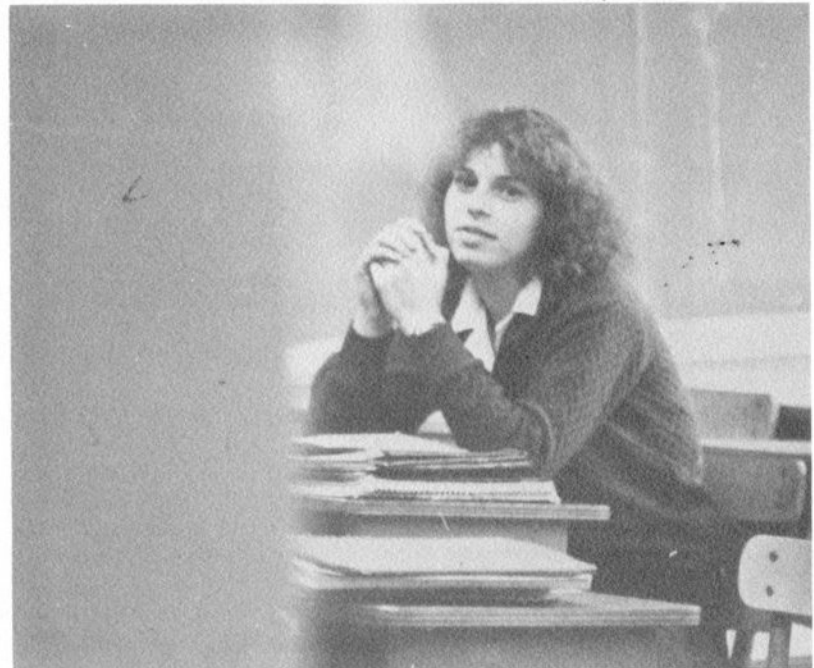

BARRY SAWYER: Barry would, "walk a mile for a camel." His worst memories range from Blake's roof to not being able to smoke during classes. His best memories were with the Hooters. Remember, "Never tell a doctor to F-O. (Flake off)"

ROBERT SAWYER: Rob, being interested in machines, plans to become a machinist. The fact that he thinks T.C.G.'s are unorganized reflects his organized mechanical mind. This comment is short and messy; an exact duplicate of his questionnaire.

SHEILA SAXBY: Sheila is going to be a computer operator, and seems to be bothered by certain people. Her most embarrassing moment at Vic High was falling UP the stairs (takes skill!!).

Super Cook.

Wishful thinker.

ANN SCHALEKAMP: Ann may study to become a carpenter but her decision is not made yet. She enjoys camping, hunting, horseback riding and water-skiing. Talk about Women's Lib, huh?

EVELYN SCHAUERTE: "Ebbie" plans to work with handicapped people if she doesn't freeze or kill herself first in P.E. She has left us with these words, "Dope can get you through times with no money, but money can't get you through times with no dope."

HELEN SHAUERTE: "Shrout" or "Howie" wants to travel to Australia to ride in a kangaroo's pocket. Talk about ups and downs!! Her most embarrassing moment was when R.K. and N.D. pulled her pants out of her "hootin'" boots in the hall at lunch hour.

CRAIG SCHMIDT: Craig was on the Titans rugby team this year and is known to hang out in James Bay.

NORM SCHOLFIELD: Norm plans to travel the world, the universe, and a few other places. He'll never forget ripping the seat of his pants in M.L.'s car or his hatred for Miss W. which kept his grades low and his blood pressure high.

DIANA SCHOLZ: Travelling across Canada and opening a pub in Calgary are future plans for Diana. Uptight teachers and students bug her; so do Monday mornings after a wild weekend.

BONNIE SCOTT: "Pokey" plans to get married sometime in the future. She hated to be called upon in class and was one of the few people who are willing to admit that they are glad to leave Vic. High but will miss it.

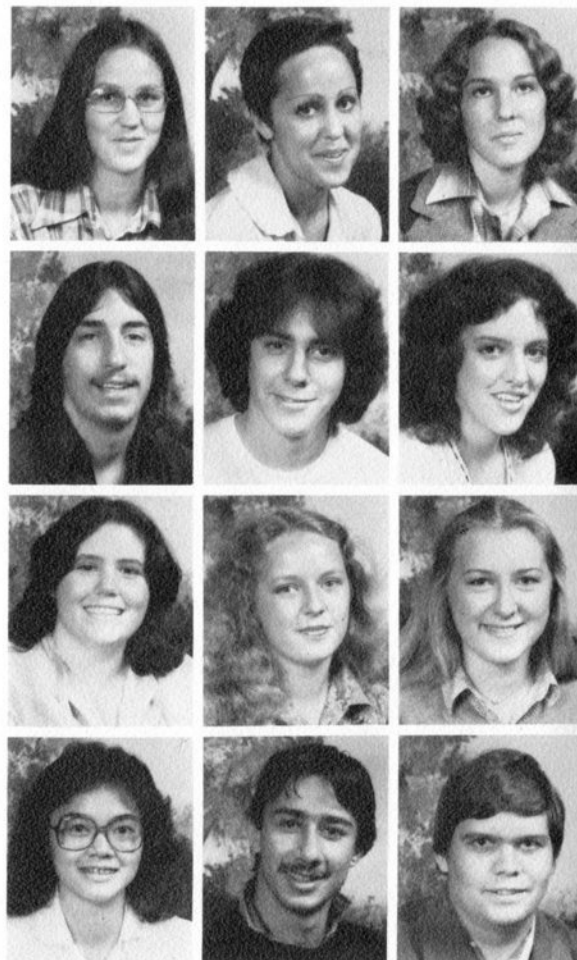

MEGAN SCOTT: "Magdalena" plans to take over her father's plant. Is it "Scottie Tissues?" Megan's most embarrassing moment was when she got her slip back during History class. She's bothered by rude people, boring weekends, work, and finishing swim meets 2 laps behind everyone else.

LISA SCOULAR: Lisa, who is another anonymous grad, "forgot" to hand in a questionnaire. We did find out that on the January ski trip, she was the only casualty with one black eye (ouch!).

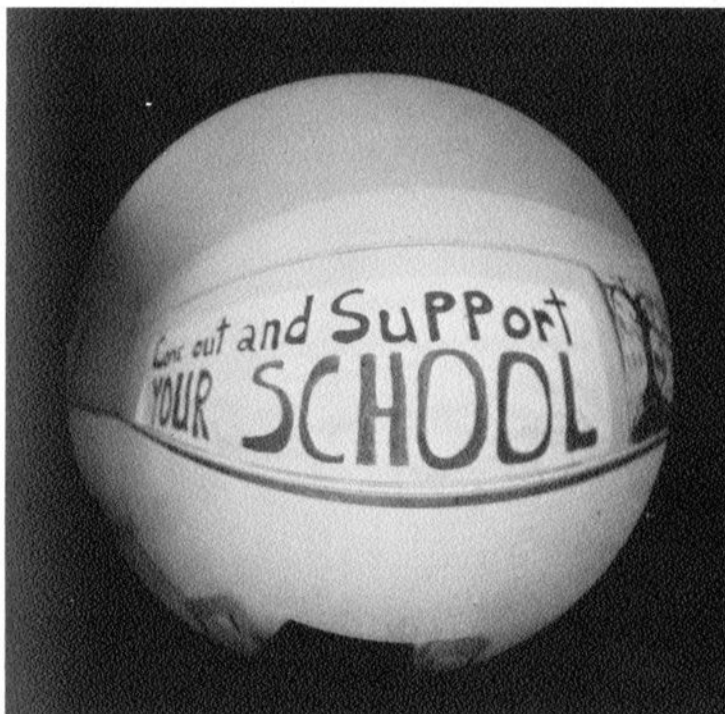

MARILYN SETO: "Mars" plans to overpopulate the world by having lots of kids. She will be remembered for her "shiny" smile and her short complex.

MEHRDAD SHARIAT-MADARI: Mehrdad would like to finish just a small part of the journey to university. As part of a family that he never got to know completely (because of his attendance in homeroom every morning) he wisely states: "Study. We didn't, so you study."

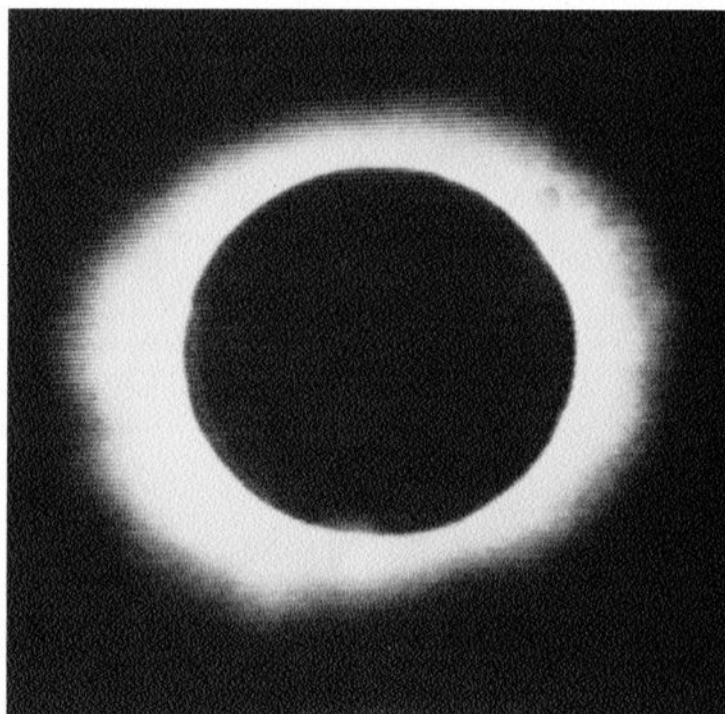

BARRY SHAW: Barry was the CKDA reporter this year and was involved in the technical side of the drama department. He says, "Be understanding with Mr. J., he's a really neat guy."

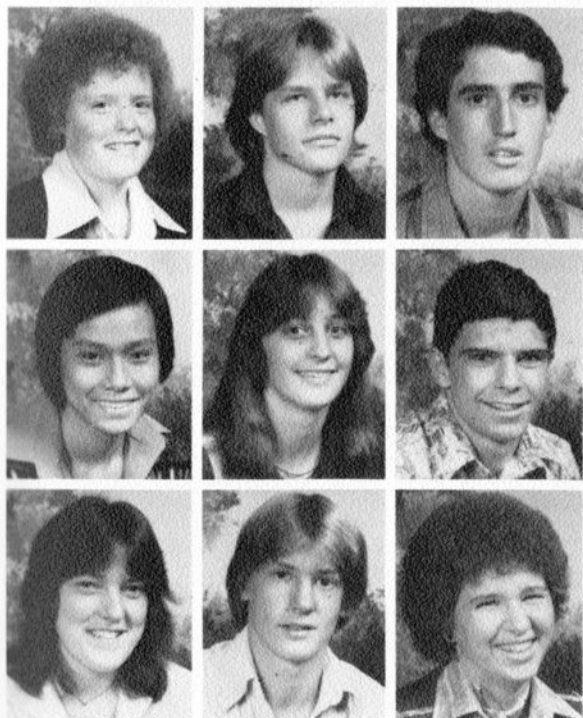

Anything, to save light energy.

All "around" participation.

79-02-26-8:19

SHERRI SHERMAN: Sherri has an orange belt in judo (watch out!) and wants to join the Scottish reserves.

ROB SHERWOOD: Rob would like to travel and to make money. By promising to get his car on the road and waiting until the last minute to do so he won't graduate to get a job done. What's your "good excuse" this time? He hates people who don't believe a good excuse when they hear one.

TIM SIMPSON: "Nose" likes to stay with our landscaping business and to eventually become an electrician. Good start! He's mastered the art of clock-setting. To Nose, tripping on the stairs with a box of books isn't his cup of tea.

JASON SIU: Jason will be remembered for being a friend to many students. He tells us that he started the school year off well due to the efforts of his teachers and to them he extends his gratitude. He hopes to see all his friends in the future.

ADIANNE SKINNER: "Ajar" plans to go to college and study photography and communications. She'll never forget the good times in hallway No. 2. Her best memory was cheering at the Colonist Cup soccer game on the field in sub-degree temperatures. Rah! Rah!

RANDY SLEMKO: Randy plans to become an automotive mechanic or an educated bum. He is a "good student," has perfect attendance and has a brush painted car."

DEBBIE SMETHURST: Debbie didn't like having to attend every class each day. Also, she wasn't tickled by her boring lunch hours. (At least you didn't have to listen to "dry" teachers then!) We hope that travelling to Europe will bring excitement into your life, Debbie.

COLIN SMITH: When Colin graduates he is planning to become independently wealthy. He hopes that Vic High won't remember him for anything. Why is that? Colin feels that too much school time is devoted to work and in parting he is happy to say: "I'm free!"

TERESA SMITH: Teresa wants to become a doctor, get rich, and rid the world of all its sickies. "Mag", when you're being bothered by your mornings remember all the rugby and soccer games. Teresa's leaving under the delusion that after Grade 12 she'll be free.

SUE SCOTT: "Scotty" plans to go into nursing (R.N.) when she graduates. Going to school bothers her the most. Who doesn't it bother? But how would we get to our goals if we didn't Sue? "Good luck" to all undergrads.

RANDY SMITH: Randy plans to be financially independent after he graduates and would like to be recognized for not showing up for class.

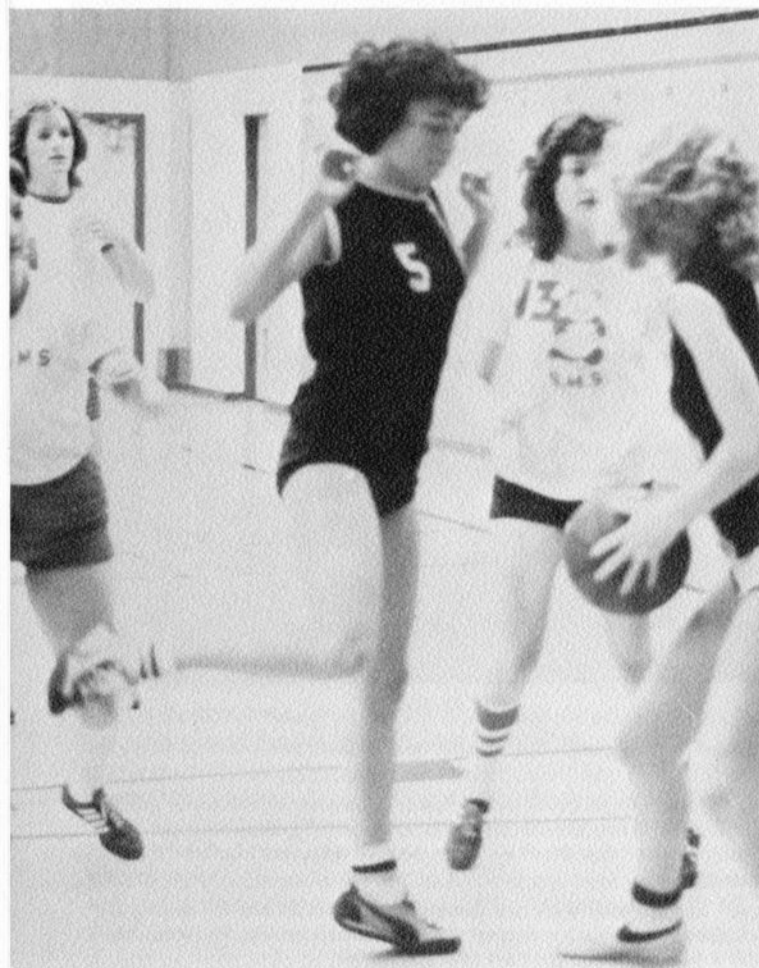

ED SKELLY: "Smelly" drives a little purple truck. Your friends informed us of that fact, Ed!

KELLY SHEEN

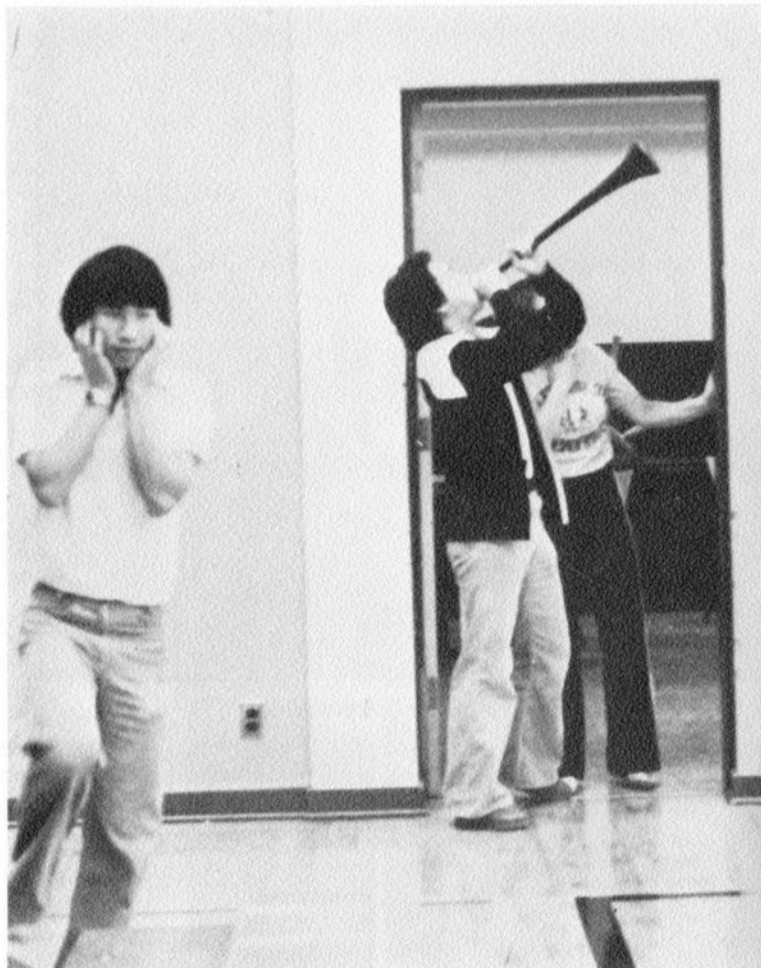

TONY SILVAGGIO

ROGER SINGH

Fancy foot Kerry.

"Oh no! He's going to play that thing again!"

KELLY SPEAK: Just follow the trail of sunflower seed shells to find "Ki". She'll probably be coaching the "Green Beans" Intermural volleyball team. She loved being a football player on dress-up day and getting tackled by all the cute guys. She leaves saying, "Don't let the teachers push you around."

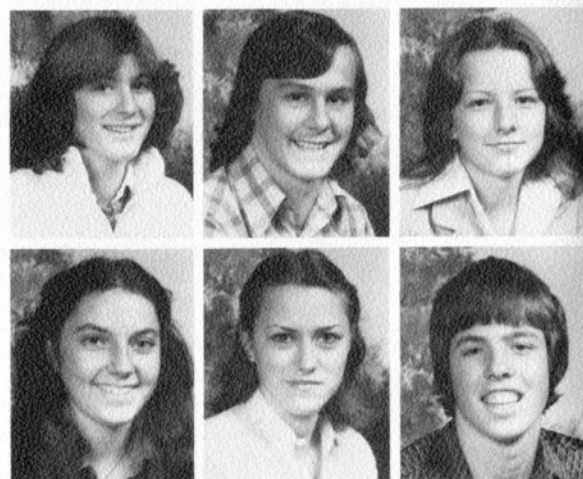

GEORGE STANLEY: After he graduates, "Stan" wants to work at B.C. Forest Products. His worst moment was last year when someone stuck the wrong name beside his picture. When asked about what bothered him most, he replied, "I haven't got a clue."

CARMEN STAVDAL: Carmen's ambition is to be in the 1980 Olympics in the potato sack races. Good luck! She tells us that she is bothered by the flies in the building. Her best memory of Vic High was finding her first nickel. Congratulations even though it is a little late!

SHARON STEWART: "Stew" plans to take over the world but if that falls through she is going to disappear for six years and reappear as a millionaire. Lots of luck!

TRISH STIRLING: Trish's ambition is to do nothing and get rich. Good luck! She is not impressed by failing grade 11. How are the Camosun sponsors coming Trish?

JAMIE STRAITH: Jamie is sure he's going to be a professional student. This was decided half-way thru Xmas exams! He wants VHS to install escalators and try to make Miss Camosun Contests less embarrassing. "Don't take Algebra. God will get you for it!"

ERIC SORENSON: All we found out about Eric is that he went to Quadra Elementary and S.J. Willis Junior.

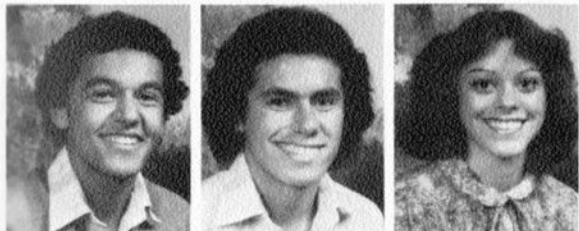

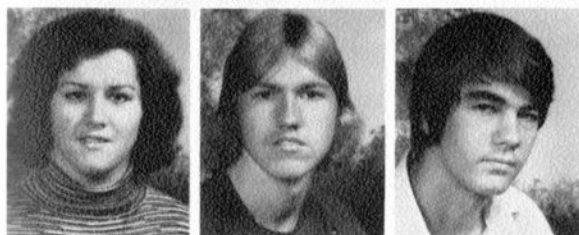

PETER SOVENKO: "Zig" can be found at noon enjoying "liquid lunches". He will be remembered for his rowdiness and his frequent encounters with the police. Were they close encounters?

GORD SPROULE: Gork would like to be the next Fraz Cramer and to not get his truck stuck in Seattle in the future. He's remembered for well attended classes and participating in the Albert Head Hoots! "Hooter madness . . . GO FOR IT!"

RICHARD STEED

WENDY STILL

RANDY STUBBS: After graduating, "Stubbs" would like to become an electrician and to turn all the Discos into jazz concerts. He will be remembered for his smile and for "going for the gold". He advises that "If you want to have fun, remember what adds life."

JOCELYN STYLES: "Sawed Off", plans to study arts in either New York or L.A. She's remembered for never refusing an invitation to skip out. Not passing S.S. 10 bothers her the most about school.

RAJ TAKAR: Another member of the Titans rugby squad, this is Raj's second year on the team. He also participated in CR 12 and weekends.

CHERYL TAVES: Hi, Cheryl, are you there?

GORDIE TAYLOR: "Chuckie-Baby" or "T-Squared," was a member of the Totems basketball team for 2 years. He doesn't mind school but hates classes. Words for future athletes, "Don't take basketball with A.V."

HEATHER-DAWN TAYLOR: She was never seen or heard.

ELIZABETH TEIXEIRA: Liz also "forgot" to hand in some answers.

JOHN TELEGUS: "Guss" won't reveal his plans but hopes to have fun in whatever he does wherever he goes. His boring moments included going to classes to learn nothing and his better moments included meeting "far-out" people.

CRAIG TEMPAN: "Dinosaur" doesn't know what he wants to do when he graduates. He doesn't like the "high" standards set by the school or slipping down the stairs. Sorry to disappoint you all, but he has no words of wisdom.

CAROL THAYER: "Buckwheat" plans to make the best out of life for herself through work. She will be remembered for being an M.S.P. wearing a smile at all times. She reminds us that we should make the most out of our Grade 12 work but to still have a good time.

MICHELE THIRSK: Michele plans to travel across Canada after graduating. The students and staff will remember her for her determination. ("There's only one way — my way!")

VICKIE THOMAS: Vickie says that after graduation her "real life" will begin. She will always be remembered for her outspokenness. She hates classrooms where nobody talks and cliques who judge people by what they wear and she likes people who say what they think.

MAUREEN TOM: Maureen would like to major in psychology and then to get married. Everyone will remember her as a great volleyball player. Her worst moment was having to hop on the stage as a frog. Maureen would like to thank her mom for everything and in parting she wishes everybody, "Good luck."

DAN TRACH: When "Trash" graduates, he wants to get out of Victoria, get rich and take lots of holidays. His worst moment at V.H.S. was being threatened to fill out his questionnaire or else he'd lose all his bonus points. His final words are, "It isn't worth it; quit while you're ahead."

JEAN TRUMBLE: Jean, with a lot of help from L. C. managed to fill out her grad questionnaire. She will be remembered for participation in the grass hockey, soccer and swim teams plus a whole lot more we're sure.

EDUARDO TUDELA: Ed is Enrique's brother. What can we say without a questionnaire.

ENRIQUE TUDELA: "Kike" will be remembered for his "neat accent" and Thursday night at the '78 B.C. soccer championship tournament. (Hmm . . . sounds interesting.) His most embarrassing moment was the time he fell asleep in Mrs. A.'s class and had to be woken up by her! Zzzzz . . .

CATHY TURNBULL: Cathy hopes to get a good job and have fun. (Don't we all.) She is bothered by the unavoidable E.H.G.'s of school; exams, homework and getting up early. She thanks Vic High for the friendly atmosphere which made the E.H.G.'s bearable.

LINDA TOWN
HOLDA TOWNS
LORA TUTHILL

CYNTHIA TUTTLE: "Tut" has a habit of talking with her hands which is perhaps why she was caught sleeping in History. If she can survive the essays and stairs until June she hopes to live and work in France. She advises: "Don't leave old apple cores in your locker!"

MARIE-JAQUELINE VERKLEY: Jackie's life is bugged by school. She hasn't made many plans for after graduation. She's letting us know, "I really envy people who can remain enthusiastic about school after 12 years of it." Non-working old clocks and gabby librarians also bug her.

MICHAEL VIALA: Fat Boy plans to be a P.E. teacher or a lawyer. His warning: "When in school, do your best, there's no time to sit and rest, but if you don't want to be a smarty, then forget the first and let's go party."

AGNES VOLLMEIER: After grad Agnes wants to travel. She enjoys life in and outside the school but she doesn't like the competitiveness found in our society because it takes the fun out of doing something. Good luck in the "rat-race" Agnes and don't forget, "PALMA NON SINE PULVERE."

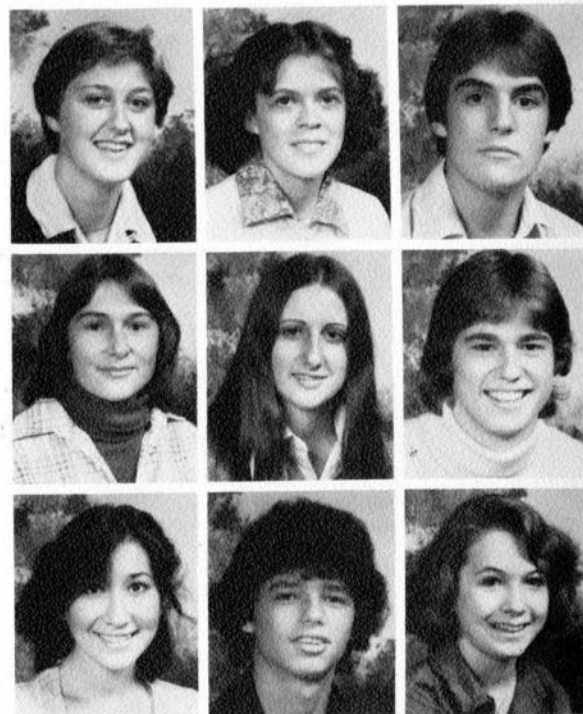

CLARE WADE: After graduating, Clare plans to travel for a year and then to attend B.C.I.T. to study to be a psychiatric nurse. She smiles for no particular reason. Well, why not? It doesn't cost anything.

STEVE WALKER: After Steve graduates he plans to travel to the North Pole and apprentice as an igloo designer. Those at Vic High will remember him for being burned in class rather than burning out in his car. As Steve leaves us he says to watch for weirdos and punk groups.

MARILYN WALLIS: "Mar" will be best remembered for being involved in theatre and music. And yes, we mustn't forget that friendly smiling face. "Life is what you make of it. You're only what you want yourself to be" are only a handful of the words of wisdom.

RICK WARDROBE: Rick plans to take up trade as an autobody mechanic. He says, "School doesn't give much help to what he wants to do when he graduates." He has a habit of going to all the wrong classes and says, "The best years of your life are spent in school."

AMANDA WATSON: "Mindy" claims she has no Mork to date and says she wish she'd met more people. She loves playing piano and hopes to take the music world by storm (snow or rain?!). Amanda tells us, "Make friends and don't fall for Spanish guys." (L.N. knows who.)

"Ouch! That hurts."

A new way to do your nails.

Deep in thought.

Cut, cut, snip, snip.

TRACY WEAVING: A future employee of Wonka's lickable wallpaper factory Tracy enjoys cluttered pianos and sleeping in on stage forests. She was probably the first Raggedy Ann ever to work under a car.

IAN WEBB: Ian thinks he looks like a guy named Lew. He wants to run for Prime Minister of Canada so he can solve his unemployment! Lew can't stand disco people and commercials, and says that, "He'll see us next year." Not all of us, Ian!!

TOM WEISS: Another student who insisted he handed in his questionnaire, Tom didn't bother giving us any information. So all we can say is what we know! Tom was on the swim team for two years and was constantly late for English 12.

HILARY WELLS: Hilary left us early for greener pastures.

IAN WELLS: The "Wee Hooter" can be remembered for taking part in outside activities (the student parking lot). His main ambition in life is to become the world's tallest man and travel with the greatest circus in the country — showing off his good points. (If you can find them.) Keep on hootin' Ian. Hoot! Hoot!

KELLY WENZEL: "Funny Face" would like to get everything possible out of life, even if it means taking Biology tests. Kelly, remember to keep smiling especially when you're going upstairs and your clogs are going downstairs.

BRENDA WEST: In the future Brenda will go into the medical field. Like most of us, she was not "turned on" by fire drills especially when she was on the fourth floor. She also found the incident when the handle fell off her locker to be doubly embarrassing.

JENNIFER WEST: Jennifer did exactly what Hilary did!!

HILARY WHARF: Hilary would like to travel the world avoiding people who don't take anything seriously and people who ridicule everything. Remember "If you keep your sense of humour you can come through anything."

DEREK WHITTLA: "Crash No. 2" says he wants to travel for a couple of years and then become a mechanic so that he will never have to get up early in the morning. His most embarrassing moment was smashing up a car in automotive.

KARYS WICKES: Known for walking the halls and disliking Algebra 12, Karys wants to travel and make money. She'll never forget dropping her glove in the hall and finding it later hanging on the bulletin board.

MURRAY WILKINSON: "Currie Murray" wants to fix up a G.M.C. instead of a Ford. Famous for doing burnouts in front of the school he is bothered by "all the girls" and volkswagons that beat Mr. L's.

JOHN VANDERVEEN: John didn't have anything to say!

FRED WAGNER: When Fred graduates, he plans to party everyday for about a week and then to move on to beginning his career in carpentry. Fred also dislikes the school afternoons. Is it the school, the afternoons or both?

TREVOR WEST: "Pugsly" wants to be Victoria's first whitebread wild and crazy guy; Steve Martin could use a line like that. Grade 10's and 11's bother him the most about this school, but don't forget, there are more of them than there are of us. Garbage duty on Friday is his favourite subject.

COLLEEN WHITE

JACKY WILLEMS: Jacky's nickname is Jack. She hates how teachers are always on her back and was very embarrassed when she had to be a midget in the Camosun skit. She plans to be a legal secretary and thinks Vic High will remember her for skipping out.

ROSS WILSON: Coming to school in body but not in mind was something that "Rosco" had the habit of doing. After his stay at Vic. High is over he plans to deal in the black market (tsk, tsk). Ross says his best memory will be grad. Let's hope so.

VAL WILSON: When "Sergeant-Major" grads, she wants to work until she gets enough money to travel. The sound of the 3:10 buzzer is her best moment in school. She is bothered by having to answer "these stupid questionnaires." Who said life was easy, Val!!

JUDY WONG: "Unmentionable" plans to put a little sunshine into peoples lives. She loves acing tests and says, "I'm the 'goodie-goodie' who never skips out."

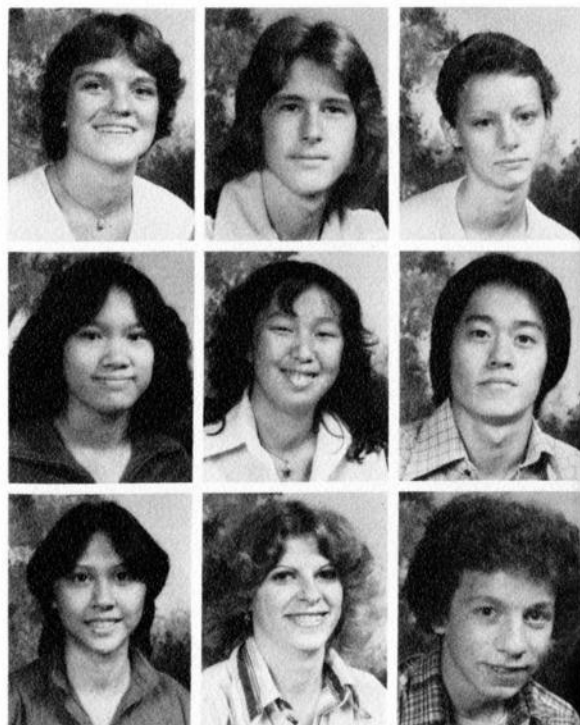

JULIE WONG: "Wongy", sometimes called "Shortstuff", would like to become a jazz and disco instructor. Her most embarrassing memory was being a member of the Calamity Players and apparently talking about absolutely nothing. "Take life as it comes."

PETER WONG: In the future, "Peter Pounder" can be seen mass producing nuclear junks for China. In the meantime, look for him on his daily hikes to the fourth floor. Peter is characterized by his continuous talking and will be remembered by many for getting them in trouble with it.

MAY WOO: May plans to have fun and be happy for as long as she can. We hope it's forever. Her words of wisdom to everyone are, "Trusting is a beginning of a true friendship and today, good friends are hard to find." Well said, May!

MARCI WOODRUFF: Marci, known as "Rowdy No. 1" got her name from "contributions at parties". Her ambition is to become a million dollar model! She hates going to school even though she has fun being rowdy. As for best memories she's still waiting! To the undergrads: "Get rowdy".

JEFF WOODS: Jeff would be quite content if he could spend the rest of his days cruising in his Ford Pinto and enjoying life on the beaches. "Bird's Nest" says he'll be remembered for being late for class and creating a hassle.

Four wheel drive.

Bold it! I'm not made of rubber!

Let the words speak for themselves.

We are gathered here today. . . .

WARREN WU: "Wooster Booster" desires a career in the computer field. Assemblies during English class were his favourite moments and finding out his marks were his most annoying. Talented as he is, Warren will be remembered for playing soccer with a tennis ball.

MARK WYATT: "Shawn's" best time was with the hooters at Albert Head and wants to have a giant toga party for the "Hooters" in the future. (Hoot, Hoot!) Overweight girls bother him while on the other hand he tells us to, "Have a good one." ("What can I say?")

CAROLE YEATS: Carole plans to go to Hawaii for a month and then Camosun for 2 years. The thing she hated about school was no heat on Mondays. Her words of wisdom are, "Don't throw rocks at a crocodile until you've crossed the river."

JOHN YEE: John tells us that he plans to live an easy life once he gets out of school. Having good friends, "helped make his school days bearable, but he still hated coming."

MICHAEL YODER: After grad, "Mr. Wonka" promises lickable wallpaper for every home. He doesn't like it when people try to be someone they're not. He calls it, "a general blindness on all parts." He'll never forget breaking a bed during a pillow fight in Terrace.

JAMES YONG: James' plans are to go to university after graduating. His words of advice are, "Yesterday is but a memory, tomorrow an uncharted course; so live today so it will be a memory without remorse." Beautiful!

PATRICIA YONG: Patricia plans to go to UVic for further math studies. The staff and students of Vic High will remember her as a nice, quiet person. Her best memories are making some good friends and the helpfulness of the teachers.

DORIS YOUNG: Doris wants to become one of the world's great leaders but she feels she will still be remembered at school for her anonymity. She warns us to watch out for civilization, "It's a killer!" Good luck Doris and when you lead the world please be kind.

SHIRLEY YOUNG: Monday mornings, homework and "the usual" is boring to Shirley. She would like to travel around the world after graduation and then become a Mountie or a nurse. "Have a great grad year and go to a lot of parties." P.S. Did you ever find your books Shirley?

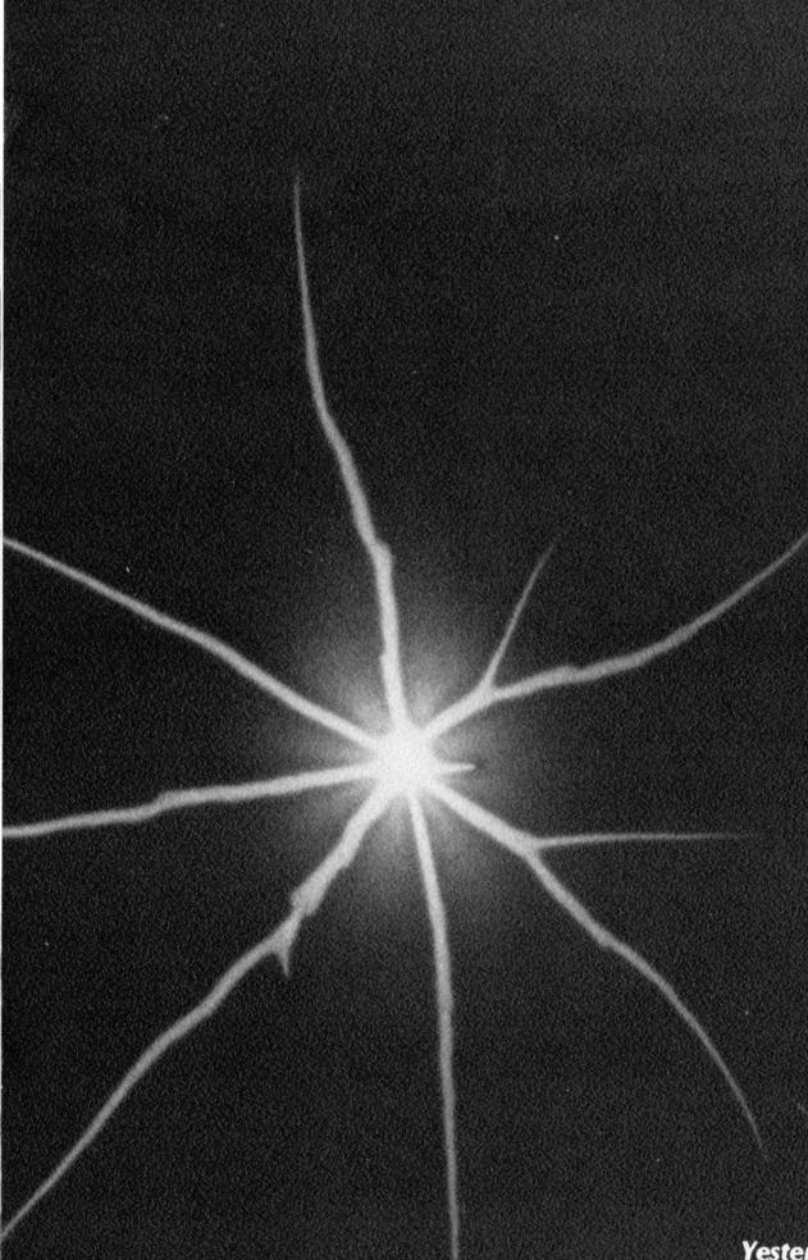

TOM WOO: Another anonymous grade 12 of Vic High.

PAT ZALOPSKI: Pat is known as "Ada's friend" and enjoyed foods 12.

JOHN ZANIC: "Buckwheat" plans on fighting off girls and staying pure for the rest of his unnatural life. He's not too keen on "normal" mushrooms and says, "To all the last of the Red Hot Lovers . . . keep it cool!"

CHERRIE YOUNG

KERRY WILLIAMS

As I gaze into this fiery brilliance, memories are traced in my mind
as flames dance then disappear.
The network of colours is hypnotic as I relive childhood memories such as people, places and things.
Frightening scenes flash before me,
yet, I can't seem to pull away.
Is it reality that bothers me?
Or am I trying to foresee the future?
What may lie ahead of me?
My concentration is disrupted as flames dwindle then die.
Thoughts and memories vanish as the wood in the fire turns to ash.

Mark Wyatt

Yesterday

I turn the pages of yesterday.
Memories come rolling back
Like clouds floating over the hills.
The first day of school,
So long ago but
Oh how scared I was.
Summers came, endless they seemed.
Junior high,
New people, new school,
Dances, wild parties.
Senior high,
Cars, guys, friendships everlasting.
Precious memories.
How fast time flies.
The baby cries,
I must close my book
But keep the memories,
They're a dear friend.

FOR SOMEONE SPECIAL

*I walk away and imagine
What life has given me
I stop and think it's over
That you're the only one I see.*

*Times that we've spent together
Have been bright like a flaming star
Making love a part of happiness
And our dreams stretched so far.*

*Now all we've really wanted
Is our companionship so good
Make sure we are warm and happy
And our love be understood.*

*But as time passes and
The night stretches into day
I love you so much I need you
So please don't go away.*

John Zanic

PASSING

Watch the leaves blowing away
Too often it seems like
Lives were made that way
We're always drifting.

And the wind changes
With the seasons end
Yet the wind has always been
My closest friend.

Time passes
The song plays out the tune
There will always be the sun and moon
But still
When I think of it
Life is always done too soon.

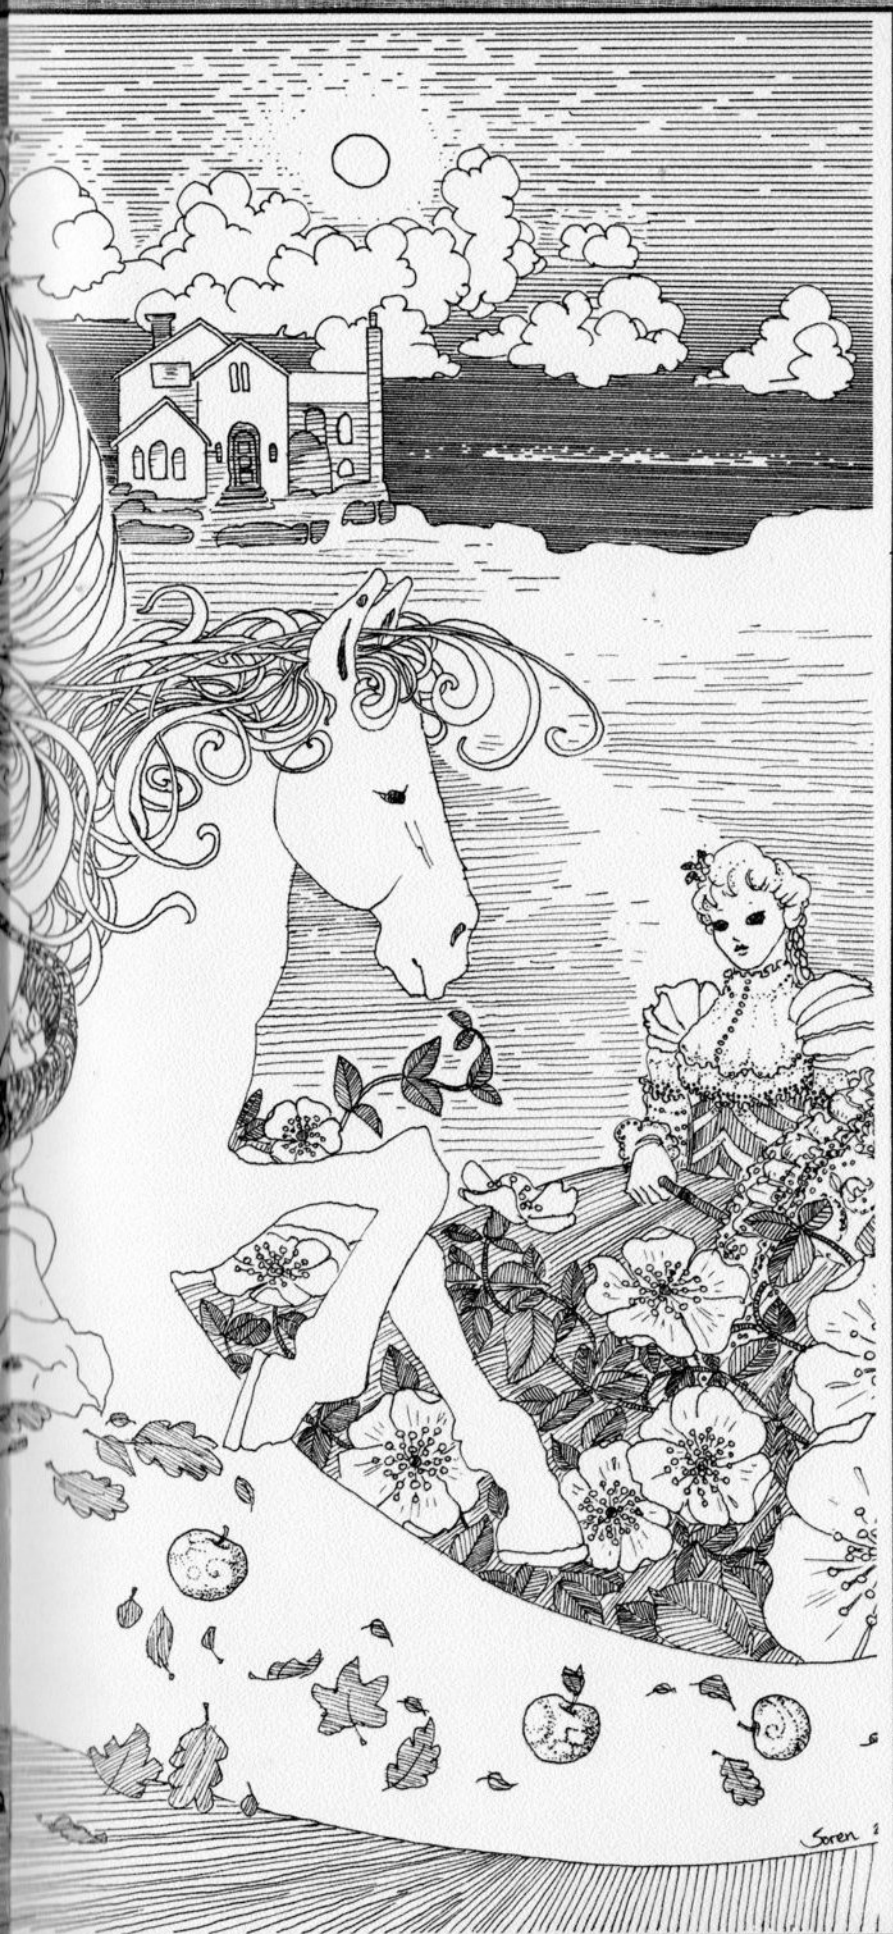

John Carlow

Susan

You came,
Touched our lives, though
Your stay was short
And many mourned.
Your life so incomplete
Gone, to what comes after;
Never again to smell
Sweet flowers,
Hear the sounds of sweet laughter,
Thoughts of faraway places,
To see those familiar faces,
To feel the rain beat down.
Your life so sweet and kind
Taken with such rage;
And now . . . rest . . . under the Cool green Earth,
Rest . . . for all it's worth.

Stew

Forget

Forget his name, forget his face
Forget his kiss and warm embrace
Forget the way you two once were
Remember now he's gone for her.

Forget him when they play your song
Forget you cried the whole night long
Forget how he held you tight
Remember he's with her tonight.

Forget you memorized his walk
Forget the way he used to talk
Forget the things he used to say
Remember now he's gone away.

Forget his laugh, forget his grin
Forget the dimple on his chin
Forget the love you once knew
Remember now he's not for you.

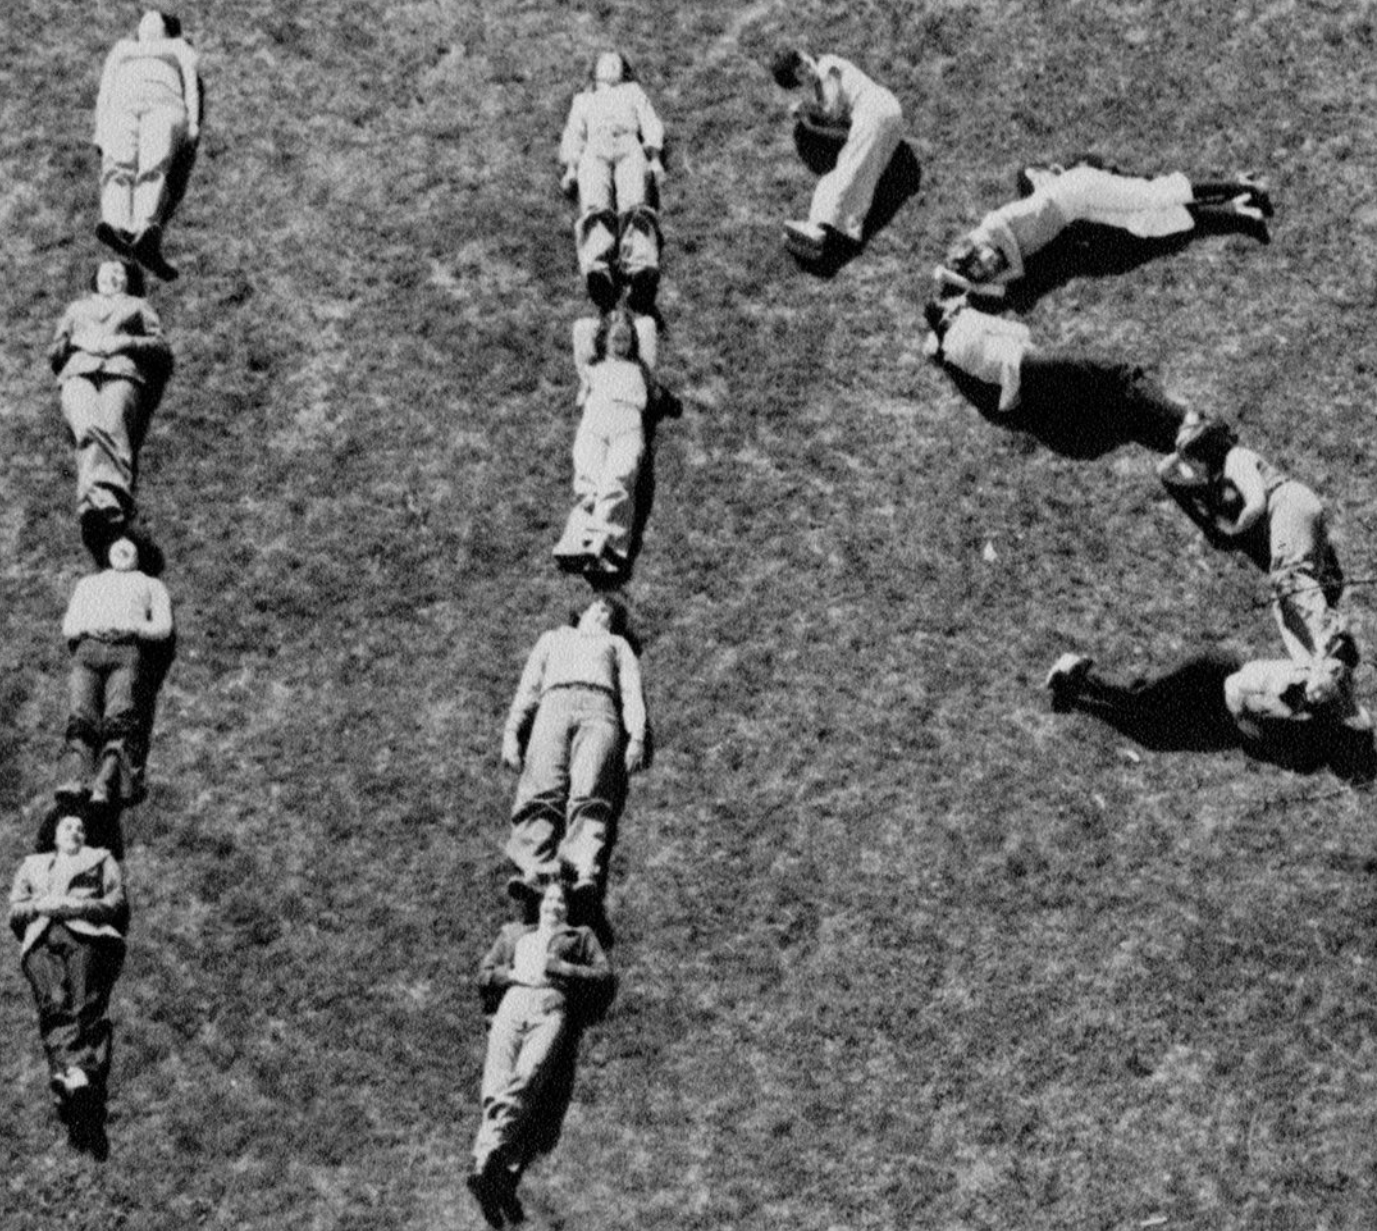

Forget the times that went too fast
Forget it now, it's in the past
Forget he said he'll leave you never Remember now he's gone forever.

Kathy Kaye

Cathy

The friend she was, the memory I cherish.
The times we had, a friend I loved.
After four years of friendship day by day
She turned around and went away.
No one can take her place,
What she meant to me, she always will.
Her scars can be seen, still she is beautiful,
Beautiful inside as well as out.
I too, have scars deep within myself
For her and the friend I lost.
She meant the world to me and now she is gone.
If only I could relive the past when I thought
Our friendship would always last.
I knew something strong would separate our souls,
But I never expected this.
She will always be the best friend I ever had.

We do not remember days, we remember moments. . . .

The school year started off in September with the election of Prime Minister. All the candidates were worthy of the position: Ed Jackson, Julie Pickford, Dorothy Owsianik, Alan Lowe, and Kim Guy. But Alan Lowe won the vote. Was it because of his unusual pep rally? Anyway, we think he's done a great job in office this year.

Halloween was on a week day last year, and the students decided to celebrate it by having a contest for the weirdest costume. Carolyn Henley's pregnant nun won the prize!

Vic High held a pie throw in February to raise money for the Easter Seal Association. Various teachers gave their time and their face to help this worthy cause. Everyone had a lot of fun. Chek TV covered this colourful event.

In March the student parliament put on a Gong Show. The judges were Mr. Higgs, Alan Lowe, and Mr. Baur. There were many strange acts, but they managed to pick a winner, and she received $22.12½.

Munchkin Review.

The Camosun class of 78/79 put on an entertaining show in early November, to promote the yearbook. It featured three skits. "The Mystical Camosun" an unusual fairy tale written, and produced by Barbara Johnson. The second skit was a Chipmunk welcome to the school. All of Alvin's Buddies sang "Good Morning." Nancy Mew directed this cheerful bunch. Ah, and of course the Miss Camosun Contest. All the contestants were members from various teams. They certainly looked lovely. Dorothy Owsianik organized this group and took the position of announcer for most of the show. The members of the Camosun would like to thank all the people that helped with the lights, curtains and various other behind the scenes jobs.

Play it Again Sam was a major success thanks to Mr. Denis Johnston. The play appeared at Vic High from November 29 to December 2, 1978. The object of these performances was to raise money for an exchange trip to Ontario, for the Drama Class.

We would like to commend the back stage crew for all their hard work: Gary Stamford, Casey Camp, Fern Russell, Hilary Wharf, John Carlow, Sharon Stewart, Danette Harbar, Lyle Fish, Ian Gordon, Nina Hopper, Doug Holliston, and Daniela Perusi.

A well-deserved thanks to the cast of course.

Garage Sale Nets $3200.00.

On March 9th, a successful garage sale/auction and raffle was staged in the Andrews gym. The combined efforts of some fifteen clubs and teams, together with many individuals, netted approximately $3200 — a welcome and needed addition to the Students' Association bank account. Members of the Drama Club auctioned 72 lots, including a 1959 Chev, with considerable energy and enthusiasm. Large appliances, small appliances, books and records, clothing, sporting goods, plants, arts and crafts, hardware and tools and home cooking stalls did a brisk business. In addition to the Grand Raffle prize of a 15 foot fiberglass canoe, manufactured by Mr. Packford's boat building class and won by Arthur Rampon, twenty prizes ranging from a tennis racquet to lunch for two — donated by local merchants, were drawn. Laura Marwick sold the greatest number of tickets (13 books). Alan Lowe came second with 10 books, followed by Gordon Wilson and Barbara Armstrong, each with 4 books. Mr. Wickstrom's Contact Group No. 56 topped the group sales and Miss Armstrong's Contact Group No. 4 was the runner-up. Many thanks to the Committee members, teams, clubs, and individuals who actively supported this endeavour. A special thanks to Mr. Higgs for his tremendous efforts.

Vic High Tikis Reach B.C.'s Once Again

The Tikis had another successful season losing only one league game. After coming 1st in 2 Spectrum tournaments and 1st in the Centennial Tournament the Tikis went on to become the Lower Island and Vancouver Island Champions. A rough time at the B.C. Championships turned up a disappointing 9th. Good luck to next year's Tikis!

Tsasquatches Receive Sportsmanship Trophy Three Times

With only 4 members returning, it was another rebuilding year for the Tsasquatches. Outstanding achievement earned the guys second place in the league standings.

The award for the Most Sportsmanlike Team was received on 3 occasions. The Cowichan Tournament in which they were 1st, the Island Finals where they placed 3rd, and the provincial finals where they placed 7th. Congratulations to John Crowther for being chosen for the 1st All-Star Team. Special thanks to Mr. McCarron, Reay Zelter, Peter Barnacle and Rick Crosby. Standing L-R: Rick Crosby (coach), Kerry Arnott, Jack Leung, Gary Sam, Peter Smith, Tim Lo, George Ko, Mr. McCarron. Kneeling L-R: Mike Viala, John Crowther, Nelson Chan, Peter Wong, Ron Justice.

Tomahawks Improve Over Season

This year the Tomahawks competed against Norfolk House, Oak Bay, St. Margaret's, Spectrum, and Mt. Douglas in the "A" Division of the Field Hockey League. Besides hosting the annual Okanagan Exchange Tourney, the team participated in the Salmon Arm Invitational and the Island Tournament held at UVic. A tremendous improvement over the season and a 4th place finish on the Island indicates strong possibilities for a highly successful 79-80 season particularly with eleven players returning. Back L-R: Miss Hanslip (coach), Sharon Cumberbatch, Alana Armstrong (goalie), Violet McDougal, Jean Trumble, Evelyn Schauerte, Marilyn Wilson, Teresa Fanning. Front L-R: Linda Shiplack, Kim Guy, Jane Underwood, Brigid Flynn, Rose Maguire, Kerry Hodgkinson (captain). Missing: Davina Hunt, Jennifer Cumberbatch.

It's the teamwork that counts.

Smile Kim.

Tomahawks on the warpath.

Boys' Field Hockey Team

Because the yearbook was sent in at the end of March, we were unable to tell how the boys did in the league. However, with an enthusiastic group of players under the coaching of Miss Hanslip, we hope for a good season.

Tyees Break Consecutive Shut-out Record

The Tyees had a very productive year. Under the coaching of Jindy Johl, the team was able to capture 2nd place in league standings, but finished a disappointing 12th in the B.C. tournament due to circumstances that could not be helped. The team had the best defense in the league and this enabled goalkeeper, Robbie Kaye to break the consecutive shutout record. The Tyees would like to give special thanks to Jindy Johl, Mr. Brice and Mr. Sedgewick for a most commendable job.

Unique technique, Enrique.

Is this soccer or judo class?

There's Lots of Support For Jindy and His Boys

Victoria High School soccer coach Jindy Johl, often referred to as a "good guy" in the sport, and his Tyees team came out as the "bad guys" in last week's British Columbia high school boys' soccer championship tournament at Nanaimo, according to media reports.

And Johl, for one, is not happy with the character assassination.

"A complete fabrication of the facts," he charged in rebuttal to last week's stories which charged or implied:

(a) Johl being red-carded for complaining about the refereeing during Vic High's 3-2 loss to Nanaimo;

(b) Johl failing to appear at a coaches' meeting that night where, if he wished, he could protest the officiating (the implication being he should have been there);

(c) Johl being cited by the provincial soccer commissioner Brian Leeson for "poor sportsmanship";

(d) the Vic High team forfeiting a game (for no apparent reason);

(e) several Vic High players on the sidelines during one game being carded by officials.

So the Tyees got bad press, unfairly it seems, for many things. And obviously they should have checked their schedule more carefully, too.

But there was another incident that didn't receive the publicity perhaps it should have and it also contributed to the Tyees' week.

It concerned a player, Mark Wyatt, who had been sent off the field in the McNair game for questioning the referee over the amount of time the goalkeeper was taking in putting the ball into play.

Usually when a player is sent off, an automatic one-game suspension follows.

bill
walker

"But this was a completely unjust call," Johl charged, "and we appealed."

"The appeal had been granted. Wyatt had been cleared to play, but nobody in an official capacity had informed the referee or the Tyees. 'We phoned but were unable to get an answer,' said Johl.

As for the report that several Vic High players on the bench during the McNair game had been carded, "not one I know of," said Johl.

Johl was quick to praise his team. "The players were exemplary," he said, "while on the field, at the motel, and all the time we were at the tournament, and I'm proud of them. I'm just disturbed that the tournament was reported in this fashion. You know, we didn't know there were all those bad stories about us until we got home."

Oh yes. It was also reported that a letter of complaint against Johl and/or Vic High was to be sent to the superintendent of schools.

For what? Johl and the Tyees would like to know.

But if so, they will have one in return. And it may pack more a wallop than the first as Johl and Vic High have the support of other tournament officials and coaches.

"Nobody is going to destroy my life in sports like that," said Johl.

The old soft shoe.

Tigers Proudly Represent Vic High

The Tigers played well this season taking the 5th spot in the 10-team league, placing 3rd in the Lower Island Playoffs, and achieving 4th position behind Mt. Douglas, Oak Bay, and Cowichan in the Island Tournament held at Spectrum. The team hosted our own Tiger Tournament and also participated in ones held at Kamloops and Oak Bay. Congratulations to the team for winning the Most Sportsmanlike Team Award at both the Oak Bay Invitational and the Island Tournament.

Tiggers Enjoy Their Game

This year's Tiggers completed the league with a 2-3 win, loss record. Overall they enjoyed themselves practicing or playing games in the gym at least once a week. Thanks go to sponsor, Mrs. Egan and to coaches, Jackson Low and Wayne Russell.

Totems Face Tough Competition

The Totems had an exciting year. From losing by 1 point to winning with seconds on the clock, the team never gave up which brought them to a 5th place finish in the league.

Titans' Teamwork Pays Off.

The Titans have had a very successful season so far this year. Holding second place in league standings, they have a good chance at the B.C. Championships. The Titans had to cancel a much looked forward to trip in California due to lack of funds, but they are planning a trip to Calgary later in the year. The Titans would like to give special thanks to Mr. Briggs, Mother (Jim) Hubbard, and to all the loyal fans who supported them throughout the year.

Big Success For Cross Country Team

The Cross Country Team had a successful year completing the seven league race with both the girls' and boys' teams finishing a victorious second in the standings. Fine performances were also evident at the Island Championships where the boys' team placed third and the girls' team second. This year was brought to a close at the Provincial Championships with the girls finishing fourth best for all B.C. high schools. Congratulations to both teams for their outstanding efforts!

Track and Field

The Track and Field Team started off enthusiastically early in March with many students showing up for practices. Though the team wasn't complete and the league hadn't started when we sent in the yearbook. Coach Newell reported that success looked hopeful. Back L-R: Kerry Arnott, Sha'ron Cumberbatch, Adrienne Skinner, John Crowther, Mark Griffin, Mr. Newell (coach), Tracy Miles, Teresa Lowry. Middle L-R: Lillian Chan, Peter Wong, Meghan Lambeth, William So, Sheryl Rough, Rachelle Gagne, Lucille Hastings, Sue Miles, Violet McDougal. Sitting L-R: Francis Bodenchuk, Teresa Lukaz, Sandra Morris, Tina Bailey, Karen Rutherford.

Big Splash For Tahsies

This year the Tahsies, which is the new team name and means "crossing the waters" in the Nootka language, developed to be the largest swim team Vic High has had in many years. Attendance at the workouts usually exceeded 20 swimmers and although the supremacy in competition was lost, Mr. Packford and Mr. Somers were pleased and satisfied with the team's spirit and excellent sportsmanship. The Tahsies Novice Team placed 4th in the Novice Meet. In the City-Island Zone Championships, Ted Packford won the City Boys' Individual Trophy and attended the B.C. Championships. Marc Gaudet and Tom Weiss competed in the B.C. Diving Championships.

Gymnastics Team

Sponsored by Mr. Newell, the gymnastics team did exceptionally well placing fifth overall in the Lower Island Girls' Gymnastics Meet. Congratulations go to Shirley Walker who won the silver medal in the elite category; in the advanced category, Carol MacKinnon for 1st in the uneven bars, Kim Guy who placed 2nd in the beam, and Nan Valgardson for 3rd in the vault and floor exercises.

Tuk Toy Yuk Tucs Do It Again

The badminton team had a very good year playing well in the regular league. With only one match lost to Mt. Doug., after a very close game, the team's efforts led to an impressive record of 8 wins out of 9. On February 21, 4 teams took part in a "round-robin" tournament to decide which team would represent Southern Vancouver Island in the B.C. High School Championships to be held at Kitsilano. The Tuk Toy Yuk Tucs won their first two rounds but unfortunately lost in the third and final round to Mt. Doug. by a score of 5 games to 6. Congratulations to Mr. Higgs and his team for a job well done!

Drama Club

It was another frantic year for Vic High's busy Drama Club. Our Christmas production of Play It Again, Sam was a huge success, followed by three plays for the Drama Festival: Music Box, Kendo, and After Magritte.

Our technical students also helped several other schools with their productions, and still managed to put on the "Bogey Boogie" and the Valentine's Dance. Club members were also actively involved with the Garage Sale and Auction, and with many productions at Langham Court Theatre and the McPherson Playhouse.

Vic High Christians

A new club this year! The Vic High Christians. A little known group of fun people who met weekly for games, songs, and Bible Studies. They also participated in field-trips, fellowship, fun and Christian Witness. They had a membership of about twenty and a sponsor, Mr. Ashwell. They had a really great year and hope to continue.

Calamity Players

Although you didn't see much of them, they were there. The Calamity Players wrote two plays, assisted in school productions, and participated in school functions. There were only about ten regular attenders but they worked very hard in putting on three individual skits in every classroom and doing assembly comedy skits. The last part of their year was spent in planning a comedy production to be put on during an assembly.

Sp-aides

This group of students is a valuable resource of our school. They spent much of their time out of the school collecting candy from various shops which was then distributed to Children's Hospitals and Old Folks' Homes. Each week a group of students went to the Aberdeen Hospital and the Victoria Recreation Handicapped Society to visit. The end of the year was taken up with the Salvation Army Appeal.

Ski Club

Our club, sponsored by Mr. Blasner, has some 98 skiers in it. We had a ski trip with two busloads of skiers to Grouse Mountain in Vancouver. The weather was great (a blizzard) and so was the skiing. The only noticeable injuries were a black eye and pride due to some stumbling and lots of falling. The trip was very enjoyable.

Other planned trips haven't been taken, as bus companies have almost doubled their prices to Island mountains.

A trip in the warm spring sunshine may still be arranged. Albert Low was the president and has done a super job of organization.

Outdoors Club

Although the Outdoors Club in the past have met with little success in Vic High, one was formed this year with great success. A whopping forty students joined to make the club one of the largest in the school.

The first trip taken in late January was to Cowichan Lake and despite the cold and snow, a good time was had by all. Jaunts to Della Falls and Botanical Beach were also planned.

Library Club

The Library Club is a service club in the strictest sense. Students who belong function as library assistants and work the desk, checking in and out books and other material. They each know their way around the library and how it functions. They try to help other students help themselves while in a learning situation.

Sailing Club

The Sailing Club was active in the Fall of '78 sailing the three V.H.S. dinghies. The planned Spring sailing programme slated for Thursdays after school at Oak Bay is looked forward to by club members. Some of the members are shown with Mr. Wickstrom making plans for an upcoming cruise.

Time-Piece

This year the Time Piece put out seven editions of the school paper, under the direction of Mr. McCarron. They hoped to provide Vic High with a newspaper that informs and interests both students and staff, while providing valuable experience and knowledge for its reporters. Laura King was the editor and had help from Carolyn Henley, Sharon Stewart, Trace Klassen, Rosalind Kennedy and Doug Ottenbreit.

Cheerleaders

These girls in black and gold were busy with their support for Vic High this year. The squad raised spirits at the Soccer, Basketball and Rugby games and really enjoyed themselves. Along with cheering, they have been involved with many other school events.

Many thanks to Mrs. Coburn and Trish Marshall for their enthusiasm and hard work. "Let the spirit of Vic High be with you always and remember our fighting song."

Our School Song

Come give a cheer for Victoria High!
We never falter; we never die
Raise our colours, black and gold
And cheer for the team so brave and bold!

If anyone should question us why,
We give a cheer and then we reply
That we're thirteen hundred strong
And this is our fighting song!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

A. B. C. and D.

From sports teams to hot dogs, from the Gong Show to the Garage Sale, the A.B.C. & D. Club was there with the advertising.

It was a small group of students willing to spend their spare time making posters to keep the Student Body informed.

Thanks to all who told us our letters were the wrong size or our paint was too watery. Your assistance was appreciated.

Club members were: Mary Cochlan, Adianne Skinner, Trish Marshall, Dorothy Owsianik, Kim Guy, Alan Lowe, Amanda Watson and Francis Bodenchuk.

Debate Club

The Debate Club helps provide experience for students in preparing and delivering their own speeches. Their activities for the 78-79 year were a speech contest which included entrants from district schools on Vancouver Island. Phil Bailey won third place by presenting a full length speech derived from history. Major activities for the balance of the year were debates and competition in the city and provincial debates.

Body Building

The purpose of the Body Building Club was to help the students build a strong healthy body. They entered and had a program laid out for them and they continued to work at their own risk. The club members met in the east Roper gym, afterschools.

Bowling Club

Vic High's bowling team enjoyed a fun and competitive season. This year we had fourteen teams and bowled for about twenty weeks. We would like to thank all those who participated and special thanks to Mrs. Stokes for her time and effort.

Chess Club

The Chess Club has always been very strong and has a fantastic record. They have won the city championships six times in the last ten years and the provincials twice in the past five. The members participated in the Inter-school Chess Tournament although it is generally a club for learning and improving the game of chess.

Table Tennis Club

The Table Tennis Club played games of doubles and singles during lunch hours. The members are generally serious about the games but a relaxed attitude is maintained. They arranged tournaments with other schools and sent a six person team to Oak Bay for a one day playoff. Anyone was welcome to come down and join in for fun.

Clean Sweep.

Curlers in action.

Curling Club

This is another of the little known groups, the Curling Club, which met outside the school. They were active in girls' and guys' playdowns and Bonspiels. There were about thirty people who met for recreation, to promote good curling and good times. They hoped to instruct students who wished to learn how to curl and enter all Bonspiels they could. Much appreciation to the sponsor, Mr. Baur.

Victoria High School's Band and Choir

The Vic High concert band, with 41 members, and the choir with 26 members, under the direction of Keith Fraser, had a successful year.

On October 12, the band played a prominent part in the city of Victoria ceremonies to welcome a Portuguese Tall Ship. Our Choir was active in providing very welcomed entertainment at Mt. St. Mary's Hospital, Sandringham Hospital and Glenwaren Private Hospital.

A Christmas concert held on December 5, that featured the Vic High's concert band and choir, and the S. J. Willis Junior and Senior bands, were well attended.

A 'pot-luck' supper and Play/Sing-a-thon was held on Thursday, February 20. The food was well prepared and plentiful, and the two marathon concerts provided good returns toward the band and choir trip in May. Other fund-raising endeavors included a Bingo Night and Raffle on April 19.

Between May 14th and 19th, 38 band and choir members toured from Victoria to Edmonton, Alberta, playing concerts in Kelowna, Penticton, Golden and Edmonton. While in Edmonton they were guests of the Ross Sheppard Composite High School. A visit to Radium Hotsprings was included in the itinerary.

Reach For The Top

Vic High was invited to compete on the popular T.V. quiz show again this year. Tryouts and practices over a six-week period produced immense volumes of useless information. Finally the team arrived in Duncan for the taping, accompanied by a small (but very vocal) group of supporters. Our slim half-time lead disappeared, as Cowichan went on to the Island finals with a 335 to 245 victory. Wait 'til next year! Coach and Sponsor: Mr. Denis Johnston.

Team members: Phil Bailey (captain), Cora Luetzen, Casey Camp, Herb Isherwood, Thora Gislason (spare), Steve Ashwell (scorer).

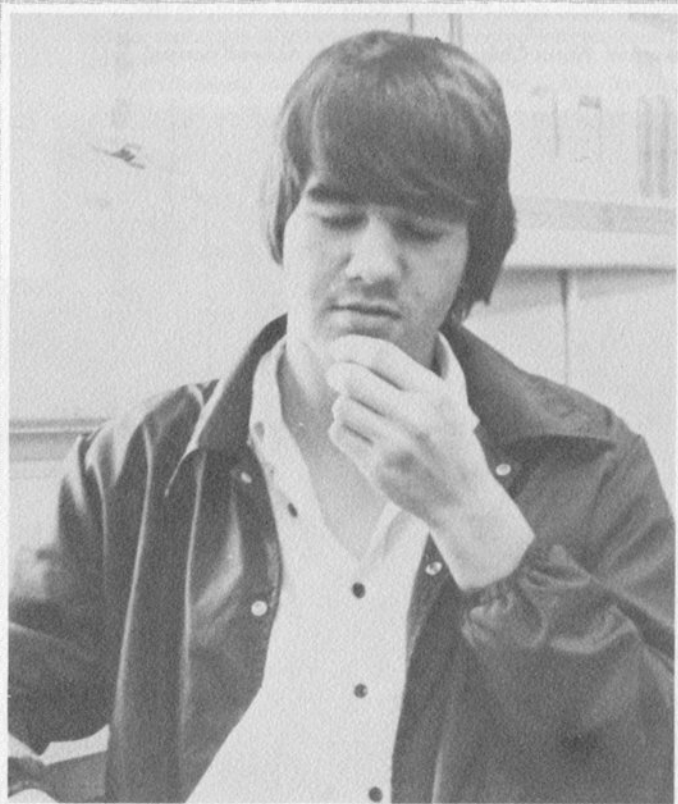

Lights, cameras, action!

The Audio-Visual Boys

This year the A.V. Club was run by two students: Barry Shaw, the president, and Jamie Straith. They would like to thank the staff of Vic High for their co-operation and patience (99% of the time). Also thanks to their sponsor Mr. Blasner.

Editors' Message

Here we are on our Spring Break, after half a month of procrastinating, finally writing our editorial message. What a vacation! We've managed to miss, postpone and miss again all our deadlines except the last one. The major reason for this is the new layout style which allowed us to include more candid photos.

Again this year the WR 11A class and the Photography Club worked in close association. We recognize and thank each of the members for their valiant efforts and their risk of "life and limb".

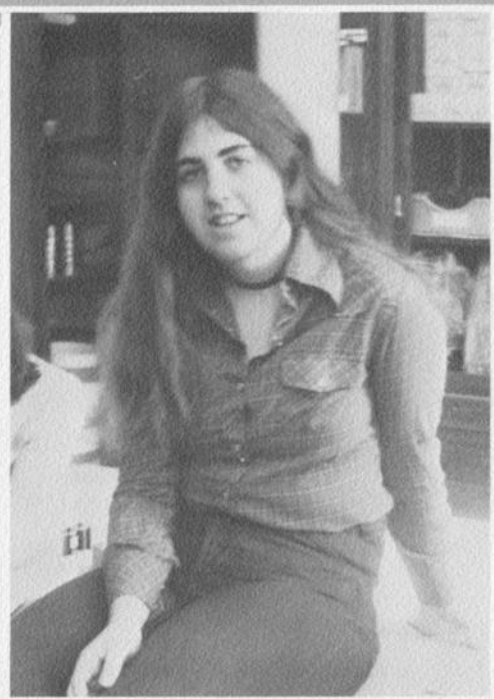

We would like to give special thanks to Mr. Chan for his patience and for his help during our times of trouble, despair, confusion, . . .

To the future WR 11A classes we say good luck and send the warning: Be prepared to work many, many long, hard hours.

We hope that everyone enjoys and appreciates our efforts which produced this year's book of "Reflections".

Once again Mr. Chan gave his undaunted support to the Vic High shutterbugs. Special thanks goes to Stephanie Chu, Brian Robilliard, Margery Kemsley, and Val Stewart for risking their lives by exposing themselves to such hazards as helping Rob Parker rush into classrooms to try and catch both teachers and students in the act of being themselves. Thanks also to all other members for their much appreciated support and to the Camosun staff for their never ending stream of confusing directions.
